DON TERRILL'S LAWSUIT

EDITOR'S NOTE: the following is excerpted from a press release made by Mr. Kirk D. Lyons, attorney who represented our Society president in this matter. Copy was supplied by Don Terrill. DFB

Confederate-Americans Seek Civil Rights

ALEXANDRIA, VA, Saturday April 28, 2001

A federal judge ruled Friday that he had no authority to grant national-origin status to Confederate-Americans under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Title VII prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, and national origin. The case before Claude M. Hilton, chief judge of the Eastern District of Virginia, was filed against the U. S. Dept. of Labor. The dept. had denied employee, Don Terrill, participation in a "diversity day" celebration because he wanted to set up; a Confederate-American exhibit.

Terrill's lawsuit survived the government's motion for dismissal. He was defended by Kirk D. Lyons, chief trail counsel of Southern Legal Resource Center in Black Mountain, NC.

Lyons said the government's position has been that "there's 'no such critter' as a Confederate-American under federal law, and we would agree with that. This is a case of first impression," he said, meaning that no court has yet addressed the issue.

The attorney said that "a good bit" of the government's case hinged on the interpretation that the Confederate States of America was not a sovereign nation.

But even accepting that argument (which he doesn't), Lyons said that sovereignty was not determinative in national origin. "Look at the Armenians," he said, "If an Armenian is discriminated against by a Turk in the workplace, he would be accorded national-origin status."

He said that cases involving discrimination against Confederate-Americans in the workplace "are falling our of the trees."

A related case in SC is titled William Vanderhoff vs. John Deere. "Mr. Vanderhoff was fired for having a Confederate flag on his toolbox which he refused to remove.," Lyons said.

Lyons said that the outcome "was the best that we were hoping for. We were not expecting to win today; we were hoping to survive the motion to dismiss. The case will be appealed to the 4th Circuit Court in Richmond VA.

Judge Hilton asked the plaintiff's attorneys why they did not file a claim under the First Amendment of the U. S. Constitution, which guarantees free expression. Lyons told the judge that he knew that remedy was available, bujt he "specifically wanted to test Title VII, Civil Rights Act of 1964 under national origin for Confederate Americans. We probably could have won a first Amendment claim, but that is not what we are in court for."

"We're trying to make law,; Lyons said, "and the way you make law is to lose. Every group that gained protection under national origin had to start somewhere." Terrill "is not an isolated plaintiff." We have cases all over the federal court system.

Eventually one of these cases will go to the Supreme Court of the United States."

The attorney agreed that some people might find it ironic that his group is using the civil rights laws to protect Confederate-Americans, "But, there is a real problem of discrimination in the workplace, in the schools, and in society against people who are proud of their Confederate heritage," he said.

Don Terrill says that details of this current event "will be continued" as the case progresses.

Hi

We are new to the Terrell site. Sorry for the late thought in placing this. We have it every year at this time on Memorial day weekend. My Grandma was a Terrell.

Frank and Beadie TERRELL reunion in Mayday, Georgia. 5/26/01 11AM --3PM. Mayday Georgia is east of Valdosta, Georgia on Howell Rd. and US 129. It is about 20 miles east of Valdosta. I will get back to you.

I am not sure about the line. We were always told Philemon was our ancestor. We got the info from the Huxford Library in Homerville Ga. . Now we have been told by the Terrell site that it was not Philemon TERRELL. So we are not sure. We have no documents to prove it and they say they do or that is what I am told.

Bessie Mae TERRELL was my Grandma her father was Franklin Jackson TERRELL. He is my Great grandfather. His father was Andrew Jackson TERRELL.

Thanks for the response. Janice Whitman Hinkley; 4535 North Lake Drive; Sarasota, Florida Info- jhinkley@aol.com

Seeking Sarah A. TERRILL; Birth unknown; Death bet 1862-1870; Married Francis Marion CRAIG 9 Aug 1860 , Johnson, MO; Children: Robert Henry CRAIG (1862 - 17 Mar 1911)
Laura & Brad Koehn email: bradlara@pld.com

Dan,
Thanks for all your hard work on my Terrell inquiry. I now have more information, which may help us locate my TERRELL connection.

Andrew Jackson TERRELL was born on March 1, 1815, in Ohio. His parents were both born in Connecticut.

He married Sarah, born March 10, 1817, died August 10, 1890. He then married Mary A. about 1891.

Children of Andrew and Sarah were: John T. TERRELL, born Ohio, 1840, married Mehetabel LILLY July 3, 1866 at Byron Center, Kent County, Michigan;

Sarah L. TERRELL born December 17, 1843, Ohio, married Alvin LOOMIS in Michigan, died 1900;

August TERRELL, born April, 1853, Ohio, married Sarah O.;

Charles A. TERRELL, born 1848, Ohio.

Willis B. TERRELL, born August, 1855, in Michigan, died after 1900. Arthur L. TERRELL, born September 17, 1862, died November 13, 1867.

Andrew Jackson TERRELL lived near Alonzo P. TERRELL, born September 5, 1809, died April 4, 1895, who was probably his brother. Alonzo's wife was Caroline M., born June 18, 1810, died May 25, 1893.

I am thinking that my Andrew Jackson Terrell may be the son of Tillotson TERRELL or at least a close relative. One of the relatives who went to Byron Center, Kent County, Michigan, and is buried there is shown on her tombstone as the wife of Tillotson. I think her name was Alvira (don't have the info here). She was born in 1828, and was probably a second wife. Anyway it's a clue.

If you have any Terrell researchers working on a Connecticut line I would appreciate being put in touch with them. The family moved to Ohio, probably Warren County, then to Kent County, Michigan, by 1862. Thanks for your help! Greg Nelson; 888 SW Fifth Ave Ste 930; Portland, Oregon 97204; phone: 503-973-7413

Subject: WATTS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Some WATTS had Cherokee connections just like some TERRELLS. Although these given names are fairly common, there are some found frequently in TERRELL lines. The one that got my attention was Ignatius WATTS. I immediately wondered if Ignatius TERRELL of Pike Co. GA might have been named for him. Ignatius is reputed to be a common given name among Catholics, but all the TERRELLS in this line that I know about were either Methodist or Baptist, not Catholic. DFB

The Tulsa library has the index for the books COLONIAL AND STATE RECORDS OF NORTH CAROLINA, Volumes 1-25. They have a couple of the volume of those books but they only relate to NC laws. I copied the index for WATTS material. HERE ARE THE WATTS, VOLUME AND PAGE(S): [I don't know who all these WATTS are or whether they are related, so I copied all of them. Referring to your Summer 2000 query in "TERRELL Trails," I found your James A. TERRELL in the 1860 census of Calhoun, Gordon Co, Ga., p. 319, as follows:

James A. TERRELL 26 M W Farmer Ga.

Julia A. " 24 F W Domestic Ga.

William " 6 M W Ga.

Simon C. " 5 M W Ga.

Thomas A. " 4/12 M W Ga.

His immediate neighbor (separated by one household) is:

Anna " 54 F W Domestic S.C.

Charles T. " 21 M W Farm laborer Ala.

Robert A. " 13 M W Ga.

Mary J. DAWSON 19 F W Domestic Ga.

Now, we look back to 1850: Gordon Co, Ga., p. 52:

John T. TERRELL 52 M W Farmer Ga.

Martha " 20 F W Ga.

James " 17 M W Ga.

Charles " 16 M W Ala.

So, I would say that James Allen TERRELL did not come from Ireland, but rather from Georgia. In every case I have discovered so far, Irish TERRELLs who have immigrated to this country use the spelling TYRRELL.

In 1850 this family's nearest neighbor (page 30) is Hezekiah TERRELL, son of Hezekiah TERRELL (b. 1775, N.C.; d. 1826, Franklin Co, Ga.) married _____. While I am prepared to believe that John T. could be a son of Hezekiah Sr., we need some sort of proof of ties between the two families. Lets try another theory. James' first son is William Thompson TERRELL, and we can speculate that his grandfather is John Thompson TERRELL. We find Simon TERRELL (b. 1755, N.C.; d. 1840, Franklin Co, Ga.) and wife Sarah THOMPSON (b. ca. 1760, Brunswick Co, Va.; d. before 1808, Franklin Co, N.C.). No son yet identified as "John," but who knows.

The answer to your questions may be found in the county records of Gordon Co and maybe Franklin Co, Ga. Sorry I cannot provide you with more. Don C. Terrill Looking for information on TERRELL's coming over from England and castle in England that at one time were trying to establish ownership. I am Lewis TERRELL, son of Ruth & John TERRELL of College Park. Mom had information she had acquired from cousin Eleanor TERRELL and she used to get updates about the search for the castle's owner. The information she had has been misplaced within the family. Our son has a report to do by tomorrow (Thursday) and we are unable to locate any information. Can you help us with his project? I am having trouble with information I found about Elizabeth Betsy TERRELL.

1. Elizabeth Betsy TERRELL; b. ca 1787 NC; d. ca 1850 Louisiana; m Moses BASS; parents Micajah TERRELL & Hannah GOODMAN.
2. Elizabeth Betsy TERRELL; b ca 1787 NC; d ca 1840 MS; m Archibald Enoch ETHERIDGE; parents Micajah TERRELL & Hannah GOODMAN.

I have looked for information on this person and I can not find the correct information. It would be impossible for her to be married to both men. She is listed to have had children by BASS from 1807-1831 and ETHERIDGE 1806-1827. This could have easily slipped by someone looking only for Moses BASS or Archibald ETHERIDGE, but my trouble started when each man is my ggggrandfather.

Any information will be appreciated.

Brenda Bass email: bbjo@jas.net

EDITOR'S NOTE: The above situation is more common than you might think. Several possibilities for this exist.

1. Elizabeth is a common name. Betsy is a common nickname for Elizabeth. There were many Elizabeth "Betsy" TERRELLs. One researcher may have had the ETHERIDGE ancestor and another the BASS ancestor and each concluded that the daughter of Micajah TERRELL & Hannah GOODMAN was in the right place and time frame to be the spouse of their ancestor.

2. Micajah TERRELL & Hannah GOODMAN may have had more than one daughter. Elizabeth "Betsy" may have married one of the above while another daughter of unknown name may have married the other.

Anything more would only be more speculation. If you have a document or other information that will help clear up this situation, please share it. DFB

Seeking information about ancestors for John Calvin TERRELL, born Virginia, probably near Wheeling, Ohio County 1791 and his second wife, Mary Jane SHANE, born Indiana 1820 is sought. James,

I came across your family home page. I have a huge database of southern Terrells. If you will provide me specific information about the individuals you are trying to match, I'll check my database and see if I can help you. Hope to hear from you soon. Don C. Terrill; (with the Terrell Society of America) 3836 Fairfax Parkway; Alexandria, Virginia 22312 terrill-don@msha.gov

Don,

I have a little basic information on the TERRILL family line, but would like more. I descend from Nancy, daughter of Moses TERRILL & Nancy MARTIN. Nancy married James JACKSON. James "Jim" D. & Connie S. Jenkins-Hinkle; Family Historians - "since 1967" (PINOAK GENEALOGY) 203 Park Avenue; Buckner, MO 64016-9788; pinoak@kctera.net

James and Connie,

According to my records, Moses & Nancy did not have a daughter named Nancy. In Moses' will dated 4 Jan 1828 he names his wife Nancy, sons John & Hiram, and daughter Rebecca. Perhaps a daughter Nancy predeceased him. Anyway, I am sending to you by U.S. Mail the ancestry of Moses TERRELL and a family group chart for Moses TERRELL & Nancy MARTIN. If you conclude that daughter Nancy properly belongs in the family group, I hope you'll let me know and that you will also share with me some information about Nancy's descendants. Thanks. Don C. Terrill Don [Terrill]-I have been in contact with Stacey who is looking for MURPHEY's, we have also shared TERRELL information and some of it, I believe, came from you. She said that John TERRELL & Ann BUTLER were married in VA; also, she said that the TERRELL's, MURPHEYs, HERNDONs, etc. were from Culpeper area. However, I have not seen any documentation for any of this. I do know that these names all show up in the Caswell Co., NC, area. Also, these families seemed to marry into each other and I know that a couple of the MURPHY brothers married the TERRELL sisters.

This all does get confusing later in Caswell records, especially where the MURPHEYs are concerned as there are more than 2 Gabriel MURPHYs and they are from different families. Also, there are a couple of Basil MURPHY's and they are from different families - however, they might be cousins (2nd, 3rd, who knows.) I have been researching these families for more than 25 years, and still have trouble although I do have my husband's line clear and documented.

Following is my ancestor outline for my earliest TERRELL for 2 generations. I can document my husband's connection to this John TERRELL and the descendants listed for him. These TERRELL's were in Caswell County, NC. My husband descends from John's daughter - Martha/Patsey - who married James MURPHEY in 1795. I also am in contact with a lady in California who descends through this same line.

Although I have done very little work on the TERRELL line, concentrating more on the MURPHY line, if you need more information, please feel free to ask. I am a volunteer in the local history room of the Public Library and have access to most North Carolina records. Nancy MURPHY

Nancy, I have found a match on the data that you seek. I will send it to you by U.S. Mail. Upon receiving it, if it is satisfactory, I hope you will share information about the descendants of John TERRELL and Ann Unknown (BUTLER). My records indicate they were from Caroline Co, Va. Don C. Terrill; 3836 Fairfax Parkway; Alexandria, Virginia 22312; terrill-don@msha.gov

I am searching for information on Patsy TERRELL who married James OSBORNE in SC. I am Looking for and her birth date. Have only one child Harriet Caroline OSBORNE, born 1814 Pickens, SC. I believe that Patsy's parents were

Henry TERRELL and Sarah DYER. I have Henry born 1730 Caroline County, Virginia. Died 1798 Pickinsville, SC. Patsy married Oel THAYER 1832. Not sure of any of this record. Harriet L MCCutcheon; harrietm4@juno.com

Dear Dan, I recently heard information via e-mail via Charlotte Brown via Don Terrill noting that there is a Terrell Genealogy 1952 by Emma Dickens and that you edit a quarterly Terrell Newsletter. I would like to hear about both as to cost, etc., and how to get them.

D. S. TERRELL is my great grandfather. I could gather information easily about all the descendants of his son, Thomas, and a lot about those of his son, James. I don't know about earlier generations. I would be glad to hear from you. Tom Raisner E-mail is Traisner@AOL.com and postal address is 26 Kirklees Rd., Pittsford, NY 14534.

I am trying to find the genealogy of Andrew Jackson TERRELL, of Michigan. His daughter, Sarah L. TERRELL, was born December 17, 1843, I do not know where, and died in Michigan in 1900. She had brothers John T. TERRELL of Byron Center, MI; August TERRELL of Bristol, Lake County, MI; and Charles TERRELL of Treaverse City, MI. Do any of these names show in your records, or can you direct me to anyone who is researching TERRELLs in Michigan? Thank you very much. Dear Dan, Thanks for your response to my query about Anna TERRELL who married Elisha LAY. I don't what I was thinking. The query in 1986 was mine and it was correct. Anna was married to Zachariah LAY, not Elisha. Elisha was her son. I was at one time in touch with Mrs. Pierce who mentioned in your response. She passed away about five years ago. I will try writing the gentleman listed. Also, if you would, I would appreciate you running my query again. Anna was born in Maryland in about 1775 according to my records. Your help is appreciated. Elizabeth L. Browning;

Hello Don [Terrill], My ancestor is Elizabeth TERRELL. All I know about her is that she was born abt. 1796 in Jefferson Co, Tennessee, she died April 12, 1850 in McMinn, Tennessee, she is buried SULLINS Cemetery, Athens, McMinn Co, Tennessee and that she married Elijah GRISHAM on May 03, 1813 in Jefferson Co, Tennessee. Rebecca May RebeccaHighley@aol.com

Mary,

I regret to say that I could not find a match for your Elizabeth TERRELL. I have 101 different Elizabeth TERRELLs in my database, but none was a match. My earliest census records for Tennessee are 1820, and I could find no TERRELLs listed for that county through 1860 (my most recent data). I'm sorry I couldn't help. By the way, most of the TERRELLs who migrated to East Tennessee during that period came from North Carolina. Don C. Terrill

Your query was:

"Do you have anything on the Terrill/Terrell's in Southern IN, specifically Martin County area ... I have at least two who married into my ELLIOTT line and a Josiah SUTTON's dau. Charity married William ELLIOTT and Josiah TERRILL/ TERRELL married Kitty ELLIOTT, William's Sister." My expertise is on TERRELLS/TERRILLS whose North American origin is known or suspected to be Virginia. The "Terrell Society of America" (of which I am an officer) publishes queries in its quarterly publication on North American Terrells (etc.) regardless of colonial (or other) origin.

I have a Marinda TERRILL (b. 1829) who married Josiah SUTTON on 22 Mar 1847 (no further data about them). Marinda was the dau. of William TERRILL who married Nancy BATEMAN in Lawrence Co., Ind., on 18 Jul 1827. William's brothers Robert & Joseph, and sisters Jane &

Phoebe also settled in that county. All were from Kentucky with roots back to Virginia.

I can mail you Marinda's ancestry, if you will provide a postal address. I would appreciate any data you care to share on this branch of the Terrill family. I am always looking to extend my knowledge of the branches of this family.

Sorry, no data on Josiah TERRILL. Josiah is a rare name among Southern TERRELLs, and I have never before encountered it among Southern TERRILLs. He could be an undocumented member of the family I have mentioned above; or he could be a New England Terrill. Sorry, no data on Terrills and Elliotts in that part of America. (I have one Terrill-Elliott marriage, but it occurs in late 20th century at place unlisted.)

I am presently living out of a suitcase in Denver, Colorado, on a 3-month TDY for my U.S. Government agency; however, I have my database on my notebook PC. Don C. Terrill

Thanks for your message. I have a question on where in the family line did the TERRILL's and TERRELL's (for lack of a better word) "split off" ? Thanks A J TERRELL

There wasn't a general split-off. My own family is somewhat unique. I am descended from Richmond TERRELL (arrived in Va. in 1656), and most (probably all) other branches of that family use "TERRELL." In 1822 my ancestor William C. TERRELL and his son William C. TERRELL Jr. were elected to city offices in Darien, Ga. Apparently, William Jr. didn't want to be known as "Jr.," so he simply changed the spelling of his name to TERRILL. There are several spelling variations among New England TERRELLs (TURRILL, TIRRILL, TERRILL, etc.); however, I am familiar with the history of only one clan -- the descendants of Roger TERRILL of New Milford, Conn. who arrived there ca. 1630 and have always used "TERRILL."

As for the southern TERRELLs, there are two major branches: the descendants of Richmond TERRELL (mentioned above) whose origin is Reading, England, and the descendants of Timothy TERRILL whose origin is London, England (but whose clan is traced to West Hagbourne, England). Although a few of their branches have opted for "TERRELL" (probably through the acquiescence of an illiterate ancestor), most have stuck with "TERRILL." Timothy's descendants spread from Orange Co, Va., to Ky. and Mo. during the mid-19th century. Don C. TERRILL

My maternal grandfather was Lynn Boyd TERRELL and his father was John Harrison TER-

Witnesses: George MARTIN & James MARTIN. Hezekiah must have been the oldest of John's children.

Ibid p.289: Miscellaneous Notes: Hezekiah TERRELL served in the Colonial Wars, 1754 Granville Co. NC, Capt. S. JONES Co. Because Barnhill is so difficult to follow, I am continuing with LL#241, John Terrell of NC, page 2. Hezekiah TERRELL b. 1732 Caroline Co. VA, m. 1758 Phoebe MARTIN; d. 1767 Butte Co NC. Children: Abigail TERRELL b. 1760; Timothy TERRELL III b. 10/17/1762 Butte Co. NC, d. 07/31/1781 Franklin or Warren Co. NC; Halcot Hawkins TERRELL b. 01/10/1768.

Back to the spousal surname, there is only one LITTLE in LL#241, page 16. Nathaniel Macon TERRELL b. 12/04/1810 m. Eliza Ann LITTLE. [no place listed] children: Anne, George, & Lewis C. TERRELL.

Nathaniel Macon TERRELL (above) was son of Joseph Henry TERRELL and Elizabeth FORT of Wake Co. NC.

Joseph Henry TERRELL (above) b. 07//1785 was son of Solomon TERRELL & his first spouse Amelia ROBERTSON.

Solomon TERRELL (above) b. 11/27/1755 was son of Jepthah TERRELL & Obedience. He was the eldest of 3 known children of this couple. Jepthah was son of John and Elizabeth HARRISON TERRELL.

If Mrs. Madge TERRELL Tate is correct in her statement that Hezikiah & Amelia had "first son named Timothy; other sons were John, Charles, and James Lee" — these are the best clues we have to the parentage of this Hezekiah. Timothy (if first born) is the best prospect for the father of Hezekiah. The question now is WHICH Timothy?

LL#241, p. 1: Timothy TERRELL, s/o John & Elizabeth HARRISON TERRELL m. UNKNOWN in VA, but died in 1784. This was 15+years before your Hezekiah was born. No children are listed for him.

Ibid, p.1 et. seq. Joel TERRELL, brother of Hezekiah, son of John & Elizabeth, m. Elizabeth RUSH, lived & d. in Granville & Franklin counties in NC — named children James, John, Hezekiah, & Timothy in that order with other children between them. However, both James & Hezekiah are listed as born 1775.

James TERRELL b. NC m. 1802 Mary "Polly" HOUSE [no location listed] d. 1826 Williamson Co. TN. Their sons included Timothy b. 1810; Hezekiah b. 1815; James b.1822.

Halcot Hawkins TERRELL b. 01/10/1768 Butte Co. NC s/o Hezekiah & Phoebe MARTIN; m. 08/28/1811 Warren Co. NC Martha COOK. Halcot d. 01/09/1839 Rapides Parish LA. They had 6 known children, but none were named either James, John, Hezekiah, or Timothy.

Unless your Hezekiah was the son of an unknown son of Timothy who d. 1784 with unknown spouse, we can conclude that he was not a descendant of

John and Elizabeth HARRISON TERRELL of NC.

LL#013 Terrell Genealogy by DICKEN has 21 persons listed with LITTLE surname, but neither Amelia nor Emily is listed.

Hezekiah TERRELL is listed on 5 pages: 263, 264, 265, 271, & 272. This is the son of John & Elizabeth HARRISON TERRELL and his descendants whom I have already covered. The only difference is that DICKEN goes into more detail with more document citations to pin own dates.

Timothy TERRELL appears in DICKEN on pages 8-9, 11-12, 19, 38, 54-55, 57-58, 61-62, 181, 212, 214, 232, 236-238, 243, 245, 247-249, 252, 258, 261, 264, 271-272, 179-280, 283, & 287. Is one or more of these in the right time and place to be father of your Hezekiah?

Pages 8-12 deal with Timothy, brother of Richmond who came to Virginia. This Timothy is believed to have died before 1661.

Ibid., pages 19--38. Timothy TERRELL of New Kent Co. VA; son of Richmond of VA; descendants say he was b. 1658; m. Elizabeth FOSTER; known children Mary TERRILL baptized 01/03/1688/9; Robert TERRILL baptized 12/25/1697; Joseph TERRILL baptized 12/31/1699; family tradition says they had sons William and Timothy and some daughters in addition to the three above. Due to the long span between the baptisms of Mary and Robert, it is likely that they had others. The big question is whom, and what did they do?

Ibid., page 54-55; Joseph TERRELL b. 1699 is believed to have been father of both Timothy and William TERRELL of Hanover VA. All three lived in the same immediate area. Tax records show that Timothy TERRELL d. about 1809 and William by 1812. [This makes this Timothy a possible father of your Hezekiah b. 1801-04. However, he was probably over 50 years of age by that time.]

Joseph TERRELL b. 1699 had a son [probably his first], Joseph TERRELL b. 01/28/1745; d. 04/09/1787; m. 09/29/1767 Elizabeth MILLS. Their known children included Charles b. 07/03/1768; John, and David. [No Timothy or Hezekiah listed.] These are cited as being mentioned in Colonial Families of the U.S. Vol. VII p. 267.

Charles TERRELL b. 07/03/1768 m. widow, Anne LEWIS Phillips after 1801. [No Timothy or Hezekiah listed among his known children.]

John TERRELL, said to be s/o Joseph & Elizabeth MILLS TERRELL appeared on tax rolls in Hanover Co. VA 1799 with lands obtained from William HUGHES. He was still there in 1830. DICKEN did not look further.

Timothy & Ralph H. TERRELL paid tax 1830 on land which formerly belonged to C. TERRELL and brothers. [DICKEN did not comment further on these.]

A Richard TERRELL has been named as a son of Joseph & Elizabeth MILLS TERRELL. [DICKEN did not reveal her source for this information.]

Ibid., 57-58; Timothy TERRELL, son of Richmond TERRELL of VA whom DICKEN believed had brothers Richmond, and William TERRELL (d. Hanover Co. VA before 1744) who m. Susannah WATERS.

[Judge] John Dabney TERRELL (1773--1850) in his last years wrote from memory a family sketch in which he named William TERRELL as parent of his grandfather Joel TERRELL. "William lived and died in Hanover County on the Pamunkey River . . . I cannot remember who he married. . . . Of his daughters I know nothing; his sons of whom I have heard were James, John, Joel, and Timothy." [We now have another Timothy probably born before 1700 who might be an ancestor of your Hezekiah.]

Ibid., p. 61-, The accepted children of William and Susannah TERRELL included Timothy (d.1763 Orange Co. NC); James TERRELL (d. ca1772 Caroline Co. VA); & John TERRELL (d. ca1785 in Franklin Co NC [whom we examined first]; among others. [Again, we have Timothy, James, and John in the same TERRELL family.]

Ibid., p. 62 Timothy (above d.1763 Orange Co. NC) moved to Bladen Co. NC about 1743 where his daughter Ruth TERRELL m. Isaac BROOKS, son of Susan or Susannah TERRELL and John BROOKS traditionally first cousins, making her mother a sister of Timothy TERRELL.

Ibid., p. 181; Pleasant TERRELL (1735--1808) s/o David TERRELL Sr & Agatha CHILES lived near Golansville, Caroline county, VA. He m. 1762 Catherine "Caty" FARISH who d. 1813. Nine children are listed. The youngest, Mary TERRELL b. 02/03/1784 m. 03/10/1803 Timothy TERRELL; m. (2) Robert LADD. [Here we have possible parents of your Hezekiah — if he was not born until 1804.]

Birth dates of these children recorded in Our Quaker Friends, p. 19.

Ibid., p. 212,-214; Thomas TERRELL (1734-1804] second son of Henry TERRELL I & Anne CHILES m. Rebecca PEATROSS ca1760. Eight children are listed with birth dates from Our Quaker Friends, p. 20. The fifth child is Timothy TERRELL (above) b. 03/23/1774 d. ca 1805. He m. (1) 06/10/1798 Miriam HUNNICUTT (1777--<1803) two children: Maria TERRELL & Edwin TERRELL. He m. (2) 03/10/1803 Mary TERRELL d/o Pleasant TERRELL; one child Caty TERRELL b. 07/11/1804. Widow, Mary m. (2) Robert LADD of Charles City VA 06/15/1807, Our Quaker Friends, p. 62. [If there were any LADD children, DICKEN did not list them. If this information is correct, this couple is eliminated as parents of your Hezekiah.]

Ibid., p. 232; DICKEN resumes on the descendants of Timothy TERRELL (1705-1763) who d. Orange Co. NC. He m. Mary MARTIN, had 14 children listed, but no Hezekiah.

Ibid., p. 236-238; Micajah TERRELL (1746 NC-1805 MS) s/o Timothy & Mary MARTIN TERRELL m. Hannah GOODMAN. His will named wife, Hannah, daughter Mary P. TERRELL; sons Archibald, Timothy, and Samuel TERRELL. This Timothy bought land from his father Micajah in Cumberland Co. NC in 1800, the deed witnessed by Archibald TERRELL and Mary Hawkins Terrell. [Now we have another Timothy old enough to father your Hezekiah, but nothing to connect them.]

Ibid., p. 243; DICKEN says Timothy TERRELL, s/o Micajah & Hannah was in Adams County MS by 1803 and in Lawrence Co. MS in 1817 but she found no later record of him.

Ibid., p. 245; same Timothy TERRELL, no additional info.

Ibid., p. 247; James TERRELL, s/o Timothy of NC went to GA.

Ibid., p. 249 Timothy TERRELL b. 1832 GA; p. Ibid., p. 252; 258 more on descendants of Timothy and Mary MARTIN TERRELL, no Hezekiah.

Ibid., p. 261, 264, 271-272; descendants of John TERRELL of NC again.

Ibid., p. 279-280 283; William TERRELL of Halifax County VA will 10/22/1792 — 06/26/1797 named 10 children including Timothy TERRELL. Timothy appears on tax roll in 1791 only. One Timothy TERRELL, possibly the same moved to Elbert County GA. He d. 1826. List of heirs did not include a Hezekiah.

Ibid., p. 287; a Timothy TERRILL of New England, but nothing to connect him to a Hezekiah.

CONCLUSION: I have not found anything to prove the parentage of your Hezekiah TERRELL. At best, I have done nothing more than provide some candidates and some (hopefully new) sources to explore. I have invested hours in this article. Days, weeks, months, or even years in this endeavor could prove equally fruitless. DFB

QUESTIONS RE. RICHMOND TERRELL

In a message dated 2/20/01 11:24:00 AM Pacific Standard Time, terrill-don@msha.gov writes:

Emma Dicken debated whether or not William TERRELL (who married Susannah WATERS) was Richmond's son or his brother in her 1952 book Terrell Genealogy (pp. 14-19). Indeed Richmond did have a brother named William (b. 1629) who is suspected of also visiting Virginia; however, Emma concluded (p. 19) that the William TERRELL who married Susannah WATERS was the son of Richmond. You are the first person I've encountered who challenges this conclusion. However, old theories are replaced by new ones when evidence is discovered. If you feel you have a better explanation, I hope you will share it with the Terrell Society.

Don,

Thanks for your response. I don't have evidence to challenge/doubt Emma Dicken's theory, that Richmond TERRELL was the father of William TERRELL who married Susannah WATERS. Somehow I gained the impression it was a theory, nothing more. In fact, I apparently don't have a copy of p. 19 from Emma Dicken's book on the TERRELL family, which may explain my lack of information and doubts.

In 1990, from the records I have seen, I formed my own conclusion: "There is no question that Richmond TERRELL had a son named William born circa 1660 in Virginia. But there was another William TERRELL, Virginia-born and of a similar age, who also could be Richmond's son. I find no records eliminating the one and supporting the other as the true son of Richmond: further, I have found no male child named Richmond listed among the known descendants of William and Susannah (WATERS) TERRELL."

I may have formed an incorrect conclusion, of course. It seems you are convinced by Emma Dicken's conclusion, to the point that you claim Richmond as your ancestor. I am aware that Emma Dicken's work is highly regarded.

I'll try to find a copy of her book in order to make a copy of page 19.

There was information new to me in the report you sent — the death date (29 Jan. 1812) of Henry TERRELL II, for example. The endnotes are much appreciated. I have yet to review the entire report, much of which agrees with my research. Certain portions disagree, too. For example, in Generation No. 2, Henry Chiles TERRELL and Miss REDD are incorrectly shown as parents of 5 children, including Henry Keeling TERRELL. Emma Dicken lists the TERRELL-REDD marriage, and one child: Catherine TERRELL b. 1790 (Dicken, pp. 196-7). I have a copy of the death certificate for Henry Keeling TERRELL (1808-1908), which names his parents: Henry C. TERRELL and Phila. SMITH. According to Orange Co., VA marriage records, "Delphia Smith" and "Henry C. TERRELL" m. 1809, years after the birth of their oldest child (Richard, 1796). I am told delayed marriages were not uncommon.

Thanks again for inviting me to express my opinions/questions.

Mary Foster Ludvigsen: Mflmfl@aol.com

Mary,

Emma Dicken's conclusion that William was the son of Richmond is a theory. It was based on her analysis of the few known facts. Because of her extreme expertise in TERRELL research and her logical explanation for reaching that conclusion, I have not previously seen the decision challenged.

Regarding the claim that there is no male child named "Richmond" listed among the known descendants of William TERRELL & Susannah WATERS: Not true. Richmond TERRELL, the emigrant, had two children known to us: Richmond TERRELL II (b. 1656, m. ?) and William TERRELL (b. 1659-60, m. Susannah WATERS). Both had descendants named "Richmond," although none of William's own children were named "Richmond." Here is my list, so far:

Richmond TERRELL II descendants [who were named Richmond]:

1. Richmond TERRELL III, b. 1695, New Kent Co, Va., to 1771, New Kent Co, Va.
2. Richmond TERRELL IV, b. 1720, Louisa Co, Va., to 1771, Louisa Co, Va.
3. Richmond TERRELL V, b. 1743, Louisa Co, Va., to 1771, Louisa Co, Va.
4. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1783 Louisa Co, Va., to 1857
5. Richmond Crump TERRELL, b. Va.
6. Richmond F. TERRELL, b. 1810, Highland Co, Ohio, to 1888, Kokomo, Ind.
7. Richmond Henry TERRELL, b. 1820, Va., to 1898

William TERRELL descendants [who were named Richmond]:

1. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1728, Caroline Co, Va.
2. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1759
3. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1760, Albemarle Co, Va., to 1856, Newton Co, Ga.

4. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1762, Granville Co, N.C., to 1827, Lancaster Co, S.C.
5. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1775 Louisa Co, Va., to 1819 Putnam Co, Ga.
6. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1796, Ga.?
7. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1837 to 1851, Coweta Co, Ga.
8. Richmond TERRELL, b. 1771, Texas
9. Richmond Joseph TERRELL, b. 1823, Ga., to 1912, Butts Co, Ga.
10. Richmond L. TERRELL, b. 1826, Jefferson Co, Ga., to 1864, Jefferson Co, Ga.
11. Richmond L. TERRELL, b. 1893 to 1968
12. Richmond Tolbert TERRELL, b. 1858, Jefferson Co, Ga., to 1932, Jefferson Co, Ga.

In contrast, Timothy TERRILL, who was NOT descended from Richmond TERRELL (and whose early descendants settled in Orange Co, Va.), had no known descendants named "Richmond."

As to Henry Chiles TERRELL and Miss REDD. The great majority of my TERRELL database is an aggregate of the research of other persons. I try to be careful to cite all my sources in my endnotes. A few times there are contradictions of essential information. Many times, more recent researchers will add knowledge (such as additional children) to what is already known from the Dicken research. Also, I spend a great deal of time doing census and other research from federal records at the National Archives. Based on the information you have provided, I have moved Henry Keeling TERRELL from Miss REDD to Philadelphia SMITH.

Occasionally, a researcher publishes information which is dead wrong (linked to the wrong ancestor), but most of the time they simply become stuck. That's where I try to help out. In exchange, I get data from them. They are working from the present to the past, and I'm working from the past to the present. We both have something to exchange.
Don C. TERRILL

EDITOR'S NOTE: I do not know who first espoused the theory that the William TERRELL who m. Susannah WATERS was the son of William TERRELL, merchant of London, and therefore nephew of Richmond. I do not know what, if any, documentation supports this theory. I am aware that Judge John D. TERRELL of AL wrote in his later years that William & Susannah m. in New York City (then New Amsterdam, Trails, p. 1388). He must have been told that by an ancestor. Unless it was a chance meeting while both were enroute to somewhere else, it is highly unlikely. Travel was too difficult in the late 1600s to go from VA to NY just to marry. I do not now if those below who were discussing this issue were aware of Judge TERRELL's tradition on their marriage. I know that the topic was discussed in phone conversations, letters, and in some cases in person between: the late Mr. Lawrence LeSturgeon of Charlotte, NC; the late Mr. Jeddie Mack Terrell, of Concord, NC, one of our former V-Ps; Mr. Banks McLaurin of Dallas, TX; and possibly others. As far as I know, they neither proved, disproved, nor agreed upon their differences of opinion.

When the Society began tentative plans to do an Encyclopedia of American Terrells, we asked Mr. Jeddie Mack Terrell to do the Prologue. This section is intended to TRY to either prove or refute the Adamic Chart that has been circulating for about 100 years allegedly tracing the ancestry of the American TERRELLS back to Adam & Eve.

Jeddie TERRELL stated that he was a historian, not a genealogist. He sincerely believed that the chart is based on ancient recorded facts. I still believe it is pure mythology. Everyone has an opinion about the Adamic Chart — Jeddie's, mine, or yours which can be anywhere between fact and mythology.

Mr. TERRELL completed the first draft of this chart containing 131 generations from Adam to William TERRELL who m. Susannah.

He did not live long enough to provide citations for all of his information. The following is what he wrote [his conclusions] for generations 128 -- 131.

128 William TYRRELL, Lord of the Manor of BRUYN in Essex. Removed to Reading, England. Married July 13, 1562 to Jane RYCHARDS (Margaret RICHMOND), b. 1555 in Stewly in Bucks. William died August 28, 1595. Had four known sons.

1. Robert TYRRELL, father of the emigrants to Virginia) d. June 12, 1643;
2. David TYRRELL Councilor of Reading. Died 1632;
3. Thomas TYRRELL died December 5 1630;
4. Francis TYRRELL Councilor of Reading. Died August 26, 1638. Married Anne ____? died August 18, 1642

129. Robert TYRRELL Counselor of Reading, Borough Guardian in 1616. He m. June 29, 1617 at St. Giles Church in Reading, to Jane BALDWIN, born 1592 to Robert BALDWIN and Jane PIGEON who m. October 5, 1590 at the same church. Robert was born in 1580 and died June 12, 1643. Jane died January 30 1661-2. They had 7 sons, 3 daughters.

1. John TYRRELL (1618--1661) unmarried
2. Robert TYRRELL (1619--1677) unmarried
3. Mary TYRRELL (1621--1693?)
4. Margaret TYRRELL (1623--?)
5. Richmond TYRRELL b. October 17, 1624 (Emigrant to Virginia)
6. Joan TYRRELL (1626--1626 infant)
7. Charles TYRRELL (1627-1629 d/y)
8. William TYRRELL b. June 22, 1629
9. Timothy TYRRELL b. January 24, 1631-2

130. William TYRRELL - [son of Robert & Jane] Grocer on the Thames River in Parish of Little Alhallows. Married Martha (WASHINGTON?). They had one son, one daughter.

1. Mary TYRRELL baptized January 24, 1654 at St. Mary's, Reading England.
2. William TYRRELL b. 1651, emigrated to Virginia.

AFTER EMIGRATION TO AMERICA

Robert TYRRELL (130) - Traveled back and forth, several times, between England and the Colony of Virginia to establish trade, but did not come to Virginia as an emigrant.

Richmond TYRRELL (130) - emigrated to New Kent Co., Virginia in 1656 as a Planter and a sponsor of other emigrants. He held authority from the proprietors of Virginia to issue headrights to new arriving settlers of age in the form of 100 acres. He was born October 17, 1624 - died 1680. He was married to Susan Elizabeth Mary WATERS. They had 4 sons.

1. Richmond TERRILL - m. Martha CRUMP
2. Timothy TERRILL m. Elizabeth FOSTER.
3. William TERRILL
4. Joel TERRILL

William TERRELL (131) [Son of William & Martha of London] Emigrated to New Kent Co. VA in his late teens about 1675 and being too young to own property, lived in the care of his uncle, Richmond. In 1688, he m. Susannah WATERS, (the niece of her namesake, Susan Elizabeth Mary WATERS), they had 8 children, all b. New Kent Co. VA.

1. William TERRELL (1690-1755) d.. Caroline Co. VA
2. Joel TERRELL - (1692--1758) d.. Hanover Co. VA
3. Anne TERRELL - (1695--1734) d.. Hanover Co. VA
4. David TERRELL - (1698--1759) d.. Caroline Co. VA.
5. Henry TERRELL (1702--1760) d.. Caroline Co. VA.
6. Timothy TERRELL - (1704--1763) d.. Orange Co. VA
7. James TERRELL - (1707--1772) d.. Caroline Co. VA
8. John TERRELL - (1710--1785) d.. Franklin Co. NC.

Jeddie included the following facts and observations for use in the Prologue. We hope you will find them informative or at least interesting.

Spelling by phonics usually changed the original spelling of the names of most emigrants into America during the 17th. and 18th. centuries. The name has been observed spelled three different ways in the same document. Most often a dialect spoken caused a phonic spelling change.

The Adamic chart of genealogy was apparently drawn up several hundred years ago by the Vatican for the Hapsburg family of Austria. At least the first twenty generations are taken from "The Book of Jubilees" which is a book of the family genealogies kept by the Patriarchs. It is written in Akkadian which was the language spoken up until the Tower of Babel. The wives and women's names were recorded in the Book of Jubilees.

Even translated into English it is difficult to understand until you work out the dating system and translate it into the Gregorian Calendar.

Briefly, a jubilee is a period of 49 years. The month was 28 days based on the orbit of the Moon and the days were called by number. They had 13 months to the year and were called Moons. The week was a period of 7 years and 7 weeks made a Jubilee.

Noah's children are recorded in the Book of Jubilees and their children and grandchildren are recorded in the Table of Nations recorded in the 10th. Chapter of the Book of Genesis.

The dating system used in the center column of the King James Bible was devised and drawn up in the later part of the 17th. Century by James Ussher, Bishop of Amaigh, Ireland. Bishop Lloyd had the system adopted by the Church Fathers and added to the King James Bible in 1702. This was the last thing ever added before final adoption.

Bishop Ussher had only one child, a daughter named Elizabeth. She was married to Sir Humphry Tyrrell of Oakly for over 50 years and bore him 14 children and all were reared beyond maturity.

Apparently Joseph Henry Tyrrell had access to this Magna Chart when he compiled his first book on the Terrell family line. While verification of the validity of the line cannot be documented, it may be taken to be basically correct. The Vatican has for many hundreds of years collected and assembled the writings of many different languages based on Kings in order to establish an accepted and working calendar of reference. Even then, based on Augustus Caesar, there was a four year error because Pope Gregory failed to recognize that Augustus had served 4 years as Octavius before being declared as Augustus by the Roman Senate. To transfer all of the known king references of period rule to the Gregorian Calendar was a monumental task and took many years of scribe work. The Pope could support or deny the authority of a king based on Genealogy.

Genealogy became very important to the church because of God's many references to the subject and great efforts were made to collect and keep accurate information on family lineage.

Hebrew Rabbis must chase their lineage back to Aaron (Moses' brother) and their wives must have a clean genealogy for at least five generations.

History and Genealogy go together because one cannot truly be studied without the study of the other. Even Mythology is composed of Genealogical relationships.

Fictitious characters such as Sherlock Holmes and the Lone Ranger were given genealogies by their authors for the purpose of giving some background to their existence to make them more acceptable as living characters. Those genealogies are interesting to read even though they are knowingly made up and false.

While Census records were kept on kings to prove their right to rule, most of the kings called for a census of the people for the purpose of knowing the ownership of properties and to control the collection of taxable tribute. They too reflected the genealogy of the people.

This country is a Republic and not a Kingship, but requires a census be taken ever ten years and basically for the same purposes that they have always been taken and they still reflect the genealogy of the people.

The census is not without error or even complete and becomes less accurate each decade because of illegal immigration and illegal identities. This does not pose a large problem yet as the 1920 census is the latest available to the public and the errors are present, but will increase with the 1930 census because of the great depression and the population movement.

If a class were to be applied to the Terrell Line it would be the "Warrior" class from 2000BC until 1500AD with only a very few exceptions. The Terrell line males seldom died in bed, but rather died in Battle.

After 1500AD they settled down to being tradesmen and farmers, but kept their swords sharp and handy. Politically the first born males became lawmen while the second born became churchmen and the other males became soldiers or tradesmen. This was generally dictated by their size, wealth and temperament. The families were usually clannish in nature and put forth great efforts to keep peace in their homes.

Several generations after coming to America the Terrells began to leave farming and have gone into all walks of life. This [planned] Encyclopedia should cover the last 350 years of Terrells in America. We have some Terrells in South America who left North America during and after the Civil War who may no longer speak English.

Apparently Jeddie Terrell accepted the traditional lineage that has been cited since about 1910, except that he disagreed with DICKEN about the parents of William who m. Susannah. If he had any documentation to support his theory, he did not share it with us before his death.

Documents uncovered by the TYRRELL FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY in England have failed to prove the family tradition of having descended from the TYRRELLS of Thornton. The last word we have from there is that the proof now ends with William, the accepted father of Robert TYRRELL of Reading, England. DFB

OLD NAMING PATTERNS

The first son was named after the father's father.
The second son was named after the mother's father.
The third son was named after the father.
The fourth son was named after the fathers eldest brother.
The first daughter was named after the mother's mother.
The second daughter was named after the father's mother.
The third daughter was named after the mother.
The fourth daughter was named after the mothers eldest sister, always.
ALSO:

2nd wife's oldest daughter named after the first wife, using her full name.

Children after those listed above were usually named after a favorite relative with some possible exceptions:

If a child died in infancy, a later child might be given the same name.

When a newly ordained minister baptized his first child, if that child were a boy, he would be named for the minister, if a girl, she would receive his surname as her middle name.

If a child were fostered, usually because of being orphaned, he may be named for the foster parent.

If you are sure that you have the earliest birth or baptisms and that they are in the correct order then, if John's first son is named Charles and his second daughter is named Elizabeth then John's parents might be Charles and Elizabeth.

Sometimes!! DFB
