HAVE YOU RENEWED FOR 2002?

COMING NEXT YEAR

Thanks to Lifetime member #62 Mrs. Helen Frances Terrell Nunnally, her relatives, and our president Mr. Don C. Terrill, we have a project in the works for next year that will consist of at least two parts.

Part 1 Ancestors of Anthony M. TERRELL will trace from Anthony backward 9 generations to Robert TYRROLD & Agnes of Hagbourne, Berkshire, England with all known children of each generation.

Part 2 Descendants of Anthony M. Terrell will trace forward at least 6 generations to present day descendants who are close relatives of Mrs. Nunnally.

This work is too large a for a single issue of Trails. It will have to be broken down into two or more issues and serialized throughout the year.

We have some photos that are too space consuming to publish in Trails. Most of those will be put into a PHOTO SUPPLEMENT and made available to those who desire a copy.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Society officers.

Thank you for another good year. We sincerely appreciate your continued good will and support. May 2002 be your best, most prosperous year ever. DFB

The chapter on the Wood family includes a 7-page narrative on the Terrell line, focusing on Archibald B. Terrell's family. I thought that some members of the Terrell Society might want to be aware of its publication.

QUERIES

Limited to two per member per year & limited to 50 words each maximum.

Just received info from Jefferson Co KS concerning Josiah TERRELL whose descent is from Jeptha & Sarah BARNES TERRELL of Champaign Co OH. (Jeptha and Sarah are my ancestors.)

However, along with that info were other TERRELL names I cannot connect. If any of these are in your records, I would appreciate knowing if and how they tie to the above lines. This is all info from Jefferson Co KS records.

Elizabeth TERRELL wife of Samuel TERRELL b 24 May 1820, d 22 Jul 1902. An obituary indicates she was born in Highland Co OH and died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Jas. E. Rose in Valley Falls, KS.

J. W. TERRELL age 37 married Susie DAVIS age 21 on 20 Nov 1889 in Nortonville, KS

Jennie E. TERRELL age 30 married J. B. FOWLER age 30 on 4 Nov 1885 in Valley Falls, KS

Jennie TERRELL on 1885 county census age 29, b OH, moved from MO to KS

I'm inclined to think Jennie ties to Josiah or his brothers but I have no name in my data base to make that link.

If you want any of the documentation I received for your files or web site, I'll be glad to send it through the mail.

Thanks for any help you can give. Kathryn Cox 7920 San Felipe Blvd #1902 Austin TX 78729-7905 Email: Coxloukat@aol.com

Kathryn,

I could not pinpoint your Samuel TERRELL with certainty; however, a possible candidate is Samuel R. TERRIL (b. 1823, Ohio - probably Highland Co) who married Elizabeth ____ (b. 1830, Ohio). He is the son of Newcomb TERRIL (b. 7 Nov 1778, Cumberland Co, N. J.; d. ca. 1843, Clinton Co, Ohio) and his wife Jane JOHNSON (b. Ca. 1796. N.C.; d. 14 Jan 1877, Clinton Co, Ohio). This is part of a family which migrated from Rhode Island, living for awhile in New Jersey, Ohio Co (W.) Virginia, and Ohio. In the 1860 census Samuel appears in Scotland Co, Mo. (Memphis) (pp. 979-980) with children Margaret (F) (b. 1847, Ohio), Jasper (M)(b. 1851, Ind.), and Oscar (M)(b. 1853, Ind.).

I haven't been able to find him in the 1870 census, and I haven't yet begun my comprehensive search for all of the TERRELLS in the 1880 census.

I hope this is helpful. Don C. Terrill

Dear Don,
 on page 1451 of the latest Newsletter, your e-mail to Jim Halley refers to two books on the New England Terrills. I don't find them on the lending library list. Can you send me the author's names and information on how I can obtain them. Thanks, Arlene Terrill Schieber

The Terrell Society of America would like to reproduce copies of this book and sell it, but the copyright is still current and we have never been able to locate or contact the author.

b. Roger and Abigail (Ufford) Terrill and Some Descendants, 1632-1993, by Bruce W. Tyrrell (36 Hansen Ave., Beaconsfield, Quebec, Canada H9W 5P3)(1995), 402 pp., hardbound, Lib. Cong. CS71.T3 1995. Copies can be purchased from the author.

c. *Ancestors and Descendants of Mary Trumbill-Millins, Malinda A. Seeking information regarding Mary Ellen TERREL b. 18 Sep 1836 in Nelson County, KY; md. 28 Sep 1854 to Valorous HUGHES; d. Oct 1810 Knob Noster, MO. I believe Mary Ellen is a sister to my Sarah A. TERREL b. c1842 in Nelson Co. KY. I would love any comments regarding the TERREL family of Nelson Co. KY.

Is anyone familiar with Henry TERRILL (son of Micajah TERRILL) b.c1819 KY and Nancy FOSTER? I believe that my Sarah A. TERRILL is their daughter. Does anyone have a will for him, or any other information about his children? Laura & Brad Koehn bradlara@pld.com

My g-g-g-grandmother was: Sara A. TERRELL 1845-1924 - daughter of George TERRELL. she m. Samual TERRELL in AL. He served in the Confederate Army and was killed during Civil War. They had four children.

Sarah m(2). Thomas Jefferson LOWE 1-1-1866 in AL. He was in the Union Army and from NY. They had eleven children.

Her granddaughter told me it was a big scandal that she married a Yankee after her Confederate husband was killed. That's why they went two counties away to marry. Is anyone else descended from any of these? Diane Lowe Brown in AL dbrown27@sprynet.com

Re: Thomas Terrill

This is not a direct ancestor. From my own sources: MAPES, Lester Dunbar: A tentative correction of the Mapes Family line (1941)

Excerpted from ...the will of Thomas MAPES, dated Aug. 23, 1686, recorded in Liber A, Page 1 of DEEDS in Suffolk County, L.I.; the inventory of his estate was dated October 19, 1687:

"fifthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Abigayle the wife of Thomas TERRILL one fourth part of my lott or devition of land and meadow on the west side of Mattituck creeck alsoe a second lott share on the south side of the great River in Ac-cobuage meadowe."

Abigail (Abigayle) was the fourth child of Thomas MAPES & Sarah PURRIER, born in 1659, according to The family Record decoted for 1897 to the Sackett, Weygant and the Mapes families and to Ancestors of their Intersecting Lines, published January, 1897 by C.H. WEYGANT, Newburgh, NY.

The citation for Thomas TERRILL m. Abigail MAPES also came from World Family Tree.

The MAPES lived for many generations at Southold, LI, after which time they migrated to Orange County, NY. I believe I may have seen the TERRILL name mentioned in Early Quaker records of Long Island, but can't be sure.

That's all I have. I hope it gives you some leads.

Linda Bowdin EMAIL: ljune@usfamily.net

I got your email off of a message board under the Terrill name. I am researching my ancestors and noticed you are associated with the family. I have very little info and am not doing too well in my research. All I know is that I come from a William TERRELL born about 1824 in Indiana? who married Rachel FLETCHER on 30 Sep 1852 in Martin Co, Indiana. He probably died between 1850 and 1860 in Martin county. Any info that you might have of his line along with any sources would be so greatly appreciated!!!! 5. Lilly HARDING b. 25 Aug 1889 d. 29 Aug 1976, Mitchell, IN. Married 10 Feb 1910 to William PIERCE;

6. Gracie HARDING b. Dec 1898. Married a Hugh WOODS, no date. This info came from death cert of husband, death cert of wife and their marriage cert. 1860 Martin, IN census page 160.

George HARDING had 1st wife Nancy Ann DAY, m. 19 Apr 1872, Martin, IN.

I am surprised about the Wilburn name. I had William or Wilburn, but just found on the internet their marriage info in Martin Co. that said William. So now I'm confused! I had found a Wilburn in the census, but then assumed it was someone else! Jo Carrington; 55-518 B. Iosepa St.; Laie, HI 96762 email: jocarrington@yahoo.com

Editor's Note: For the benefit of our members who do not have internet access or who have not found this page, we are publishing the following few messages from World of TIRRELLs and Cousins My-family.com which pertain mainly to New England families. Interesting things happen on the net. DFB

Oct 8, 2001 Thought I'd share my line with you: (beginning with my father) John Arden TYRRELL, Ardon (Arden) Mortimer TYRRELL, John Howard TYRRELL, Ardain (Arden) Augustus TYRRELL, John TYRRELL², John TYRRELL¹, Samuel TYRRELL³, Samuel TIRRELL², Samuel TIRRELL¹, William B. TIRRELL, William THERRILL. Sharon TYRRELL; 170 Foresthill Ave #6; Auburn, CA 95603 USA; shayrbo@webtv.net

Oct 9, 2001 I just checked the TIRRELL book and your line is one that ended with Ardain Augustus Tyrrell--no further records found (p. 248). I'm SO glad that you found us so that we learn more about your branch.

It looks like you are also an Isaac ALLERTON (Mayflower) descendant. We have several of those cousins here as well. Lynn Hettrick; 53 High Meadow Lane; Middlefield, CT 06455; 860-349-5693; Lynn.Hettrick@worldnet.att.net

Oct 9, 2001 Yes, Lynn, I have had trouble finding any references to a line after Ardain Augustus in the TIRRELL book or anywhere on the internet. Thank goodness for family records! I was held up for some time tracing anything beyond him. Fortunately, I did have his date of birth, city/state of birth, sister's name (Almira), father's date of birth (but no name) and the factoid that he had left VT at the age of 12 after his parents' death to head off on the Oregon trail to OR. Little did any of my family know that my great-great grandfather whom we knew of as Arden A. TYRRELL had changed his name after arriving in OR from Ardain. Sharon TYRRELL

Oct 10, 2001 My husband is also a descendant of Samuel & Sarah (Gurney) TIRRELL. He descends through your Samuel's younger brother Abel. Sarah GURNEY is the one with the Mayflower connection. Her Gr-Gr-Gr grandfather was Isaac ALLERTON. Lynn Hettrick

Oct 10, 2001 "Hi, I also research TIRRELL and I'm trying to get a message to the Weymouth TIRRELLS. I have found an old photo of a lighthouse taken by a George W. TIRRELL of East Weymouth for sale on Ebay. I know if he were my ancestor I'd want to have this, so if you are or can contact a descendant, please check.

I can't relate my TIRRELLS to William Therrill, don't know that I ever will. My TIRRELL/Tyrells go back so far to about 1730 on the Northamptonshire/Leicester border. This information was confirmed by the TYRRELL Family History Society. I don't believe they have further information as to where this line originated. If they do, they didn't pass it along to my 3rd cousin in Wales. The only family I know of that came to the U.S. arrived 1914 through 1920. Mary Lynn McCloskey; PO Box L-1249; Langhorne, PA 19047 USA; able-drn@yahoo.com

Oct 11, 2001 I descend from Samuel TYRRELL through his son, Samuel TYRRELL who was John TYRRELL's brother. A brief outline of my line is as follows: 1. William THERRELL, 2 William B. TIRRELL, 3 Samuel TIRRELL, 4 Samuel TIRRELL, 5 Samuel TYRRELL, 6 Samuel TYRRELL, 7 Nathan Cram TYRRELL, 8 Benjamin Butler TYRRELL, 9 Floyd Benjamin TYRRELL, 10 Holmes Allen TYRRELL, Sr., 11 Bettye Alice (TYRRELL) Warner - ME! I have a brother who is Holmes Allen TYRRELL, Jr. Bettye Warner; P. O. Box 72; Park Hills, MO 63601 USA; 573-358-7003; bwarner@il.net

My Great Grandmother's full name was Susan Emma TERRAL Edmondson (Feb. 24, 1870--Jan. 28, 1921). Her husband was Philip P. EDMONDSON Jr. She is buried in the Thomas Cemetery, near Jena, LA, in LaSalle Parish. At the time of her death, she was living with her daughter Katie EDMONDSON Corbin. The river was out of it's banks, so she was buried near where her daughter lived instead of where her husband is near Pollock and Fishville, Grant Parish, Louisiana. Her father was Artemus Nelson TERRAL, son of John TERRAL Jr, John TERRAL Sr, Edward Young TERRAL, Joshua TERRAL Sr, William TERRALL. Beverly Brunelle Casper, WY nightphyre@aol.com

FAMILY DATABASE submitted to LDS FHD

From: #493 Mr. Leigh B Terrell

Date: Tuesday, September 11, 2001 3:42 AM

This is to let all know that I have submitted a copy of the growing Family database to FamilySearch.org and Ancestral File for the Family History Centers and Libraries. I submitted a copy to FamilySearch.org back in November. It became available on-line during the spring. I mailed a copy on floppy disk back in July to the Family History Department. It will eventually become available on CD-ROM in the Family History Centers and Libraries, but not likely before 2003. I will be submitting another copy to FamilySearch.org sometime this fall. Several thousand more are now on it than in November. I am currently entering information from Evans material. Progress is slow, but continuing.

Hi, I just read on your web site that you found evidence that "Ralf, Sire de Tirel" was germanized as "Vom Graben". I believe this should be "Von Graben", Not "Vom Graben, Which means: "From the Graves", or "From the Counts". Don't take me wrong, I am not trying to be picky, I just think you might find it interesting.

All the Best,

Sir John R. E. Terrell K.C.P.T. email:

Editor's Note: Actually it was not Ralf but another generation in the 1500s who moved to Germany and changed the name. (see Trails, p. 407 et. seq.) DFB

Individual biographical text for Francis Marion TERRELL

In an e-mail dated 10 September 2001, Dan Brinson sent his file for Francis Marion TERRELL, in which he wrote that he had conflicting dates for Francis' death. First, his Civil War notes gives a death date of 1862. He further explained that family lore states that Francis died 4 December 1873, and his widow, Margaret McGAHEY Terrell, remarried nine days later on 13 December 1873 to Samuel Marion HUCKABY.

Margaret's sister, Mary J. McGAHEY married Samuel HUCKABY with the marriage recorded in Spaulding County Marriage Book A, 1852-1873. Samuel and Mary J. HUCKABY were counted on the 1870 Pike County, Georgia census with three children, Mary, age 10, Alice, age 2, and James, age 1. Did Mary J. McGAHEY Huckaby die between 1870 and 1873?

If our Francis TERRELL was the one who died in 1862 during the Civil War, then the last three children, Lillie/Lucy, James, and Minnie Lee could not be his children. The Frank TERRELL, born ca 1862, may not be his. In June 1880, a Frank TERRELL, age 18, was boarding with and working for, John H. & Emma DUNN in Pike County, Georgia.

As of this writing, I have not found Francis or Margaret in the 1870 census records when the children were young enough to be at home with their parents. Nor have I found them in the 1880 census records. Likewise, Samuel HUCKABY disappears after 1870. Research continues.

His half-brother, James LANDRUM went further north into what is now Fulton Co and may have been old Campbell Co. GA (Old Campbell Co. records are stored in the basement of the Fulton County Courthouse in Atlanta, GA). Grandson, John Ignatius TERRELL went south toward Upson Co.; known HUCKABY descendants lived in Upson Co. in 1980s. Martha TERRELL Cook went north near the present Clayton/Fulton Co. line. Coweta Co. joined Pike and old Campbell counties and it is possible that some may have been there at times. Unfortunately, in 1880, Amanda and Samuel were not likely to have children under the age of 10, so the SOUNDEX for 1880 would not list them -- unless they had a grandchild in the household. The search will be tedious and may be long. DFB

Individual biographical text for John Ignatius TERRELL

John's parents were recorded in Spaulding County, Georgia in 1860 living near his widowed grandmother, Nancy Amanda CARROLL McGahey. Spaulding County lies along Pike's northern border. In fact, parts of Pike County, along with parts of Henry and Fayette Counties, were included in Spaulding at its creation in 1851, and again later when the county boundaries were adjusted.

During the summer of 1880, John was in Pike County, boarding with, and working as a farm hand for, Jesse LAWRENCE. At the time the census was taken, 4 Jun 1880, he gave his age as twenty years old, and his nineteen-year-old brother, Willie, also lived with and worked for Jesse LAWRENCE. The Lawrence place where John and Willie worked was in the same neighborhood with the widow, Letha [TURNER] Harris. In the fall of 1880, on October 11, John married the widow's daughter, Fannie HARRIS. They had nine children whose births were recorded in their family Bible. Not all of the children were born in Pike County. In telephone conversations with Charlie SPURLIN of Rome, Georgia, I learned that John and Fannie lived for a time in south Georgia, and by the time their daughter, Minnie Lee, was born they were in Meriwether County. Minnie married in Meriwether County in 1907, and without documentation, I showed the births of the children after Minnie's birth, and before her marriage, as Meriwether County.

John's death in 1912 occurred before the state was required to record death certificates. We do know that he is buried in the TERRELL family plot in Pike County.

Fannie's death in 1930 was recorded by the state, and she, too, was buried in the TERRELL family plot in Pike County. She died in Lovejoy, Clayton County, Georgia, at 7:30 pm, 9 April 1930, from uremia. Attending physician was J. R. WALLIS, MD, Lovejoy, GA. Her son, John Jackson TERRELL, gave the following personal information for her death certificate: widow, husband's name not given; age 69 years, 2 months, 5 days; occupation, domestic; birthplace, Georgia; father, William HARRIS, born in Georgia; mother's maiden name, TURNER, born in Georgia; place of burial, Concord, Pike County, Georgia.

Individual biographical text for Charlie William Wilson SPURLIN

Charlie, born four months after his father's death grew up in the home of his grandmother, Lydia COATS Spurlin in Pike County, Georgia. His mother, Nannie SMITH, remarried and was known as "Granny McCLENDON."

Charlie was eighteen when Lydia died in 1906, leaving him one-half of her estate. The following year, he married Minnie Lee TERRELL on Christmas Day, 1907. The young couple were married in Meriwether County, Georgia. Their first child, Frank, was born in Pike County, but they soon moved to Thomas County, Georgia which borders Florida. Gerell was born in Thomas County. Four years later when Charlie was born, they lived near Griffin in Spaulding County, Georgia. From a long line of farmers, Charlie knew no other way to support his family, and he worked as an overseer on a farm in Spaulding County. The third consecutive generation male to die at a young age, Charlie was only thirty-two when he died. Minnie buried him in the TERRELL Family Plot in Old Hebron Cemetery, Concord, Pike County, Georgia. Charlie's untimely death was due to influenza, which may have been of the type that swept the nation beginning in 1918, and over the course of the next eighteen months, caused more deaths than war or the infamous bubonic plague. Minnie, left with four children ranging in age from twelve years down to nine months, moved to town and operated a boarding house in Griffin, Georgia. Her boarding house was fondly remembered fifty years later by the people in and around Griffin. A wall clock that Minnie had taken from the boarding house and given to the Judge hung in the Ordinary's office in the late 1970's. Charlie, too, is well remembered by the residents of Pike and Spaulding Counties; one man described him as "quite the ladies' man."

In 1925, she married E. M. CRABTREE, and the family moved to Rome, Georgia. She subsequently divorced Mr. CRABTREE, and legally reclaimed her SPURLIN surname. Her explanation was simply that she didn't want her grandchildren to call her "Mamaw CRABTREE " because she was "Mamaw SPURLIN."

Attaining the degree of Worthy Matron, Minnie was active in the Eastern Star and also in the Methodist Church.

Her obituary was printed in The Rome News Tribune on Tuesday, July 8, 1980:

"Mrs. Minnie L. SPURLIN, 91, 208 Woodbine Ave., died at 8:25 a.m. Monday following an extended illness. A native of Meriwether County, born Aug. 12, 1888, daughter of the late John and Frances H. TERRELL, she had spent the greater part of her life in Floyd County and was a member of Saint John Church. She was the widow of Charlie W. SPURLIN who died Feb. 22, 1920. Survivors include three sons, Frank and Charlie SPURLIN, Rome, and James SPURLIN, Holmes Beach, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Gerelle Myers, Rome; seven grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the chapel of Daniel's Funeral Home with the Rev. J. A. NOLAN officiating. Interment will be in East View Cemetery. Pallbearers include Don SPURLIN, Jerry SPURLIN, Otha YOUNGBLOOD, John REED, George BOOKER and Raymond DAVIS."

Editor's Note: This article is edited from information found at the above web site. The format and some of the order has been changed to make it fit our format. Surnames have been capitalized in keeping with our format. The usual emphasis has been added. My comments are in [brackets].

This is one of the better sites to be found on the web. Although longer than most of our articles, this one is a fine example of taking information that most of us have either in our memories or lying around the house and making our ancestors and relatives come to life. This is much more than a mere collection of names, dates, and places. There is a liberal sprinkling of photographs on the site for which I regret we do not have space in Trails. I suggest that you visit the web site and see for yourself. We thank Mr. Murrow for his generosity in putting this on the web for us to enjoy! DFB

O B I T U A R Y

Henry Clay Dean MURROW, son of James Riley and Kiturah MURROW, was born April 5, 1863, in Powsheik [sic] county, Iowa; and departed this life March 19, 1939 at his home in Alva, Okla., at the age of 75 years, 11 months and 15 days. He was the youngest in a family of eight children and the last one of the family to leave this life.

He spent his early childhood in Iowa, and with his parents came to Stafford county, Kansas.

He was united in marriage on November 23, 1888, to Mary Cathryn Dix [sic]. To this union were born seven children, two of whom have preceded him in death.

He leaved to survive his going his devoted wife, Mrs. Molly MURROW; four sons, Lionel, of Avard; Clay and Frank, of Alva; Luther of Dacoma; one daughter, Mrs. Walter Bergesen [sic], of Capron; 15 grandchildren, and four great grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

He came to Oklahoma at the opening of the Cherokee Strip and settled on a claim 4 miles southwest of Dacoma, moving to Alva about 12 years ago.

He was a kind and loving husband and father generous to his family in every way. His friends were numbered by his acquaintances [sic], and their loss was his gain.

He was stricken with paralysis over a year ago, and since that time has been in failing health.

About a year ago he was converted to the Lord at his home, and while at times he was discouraged because of his affliction yet a few days before his death he expressed anew to the members of his family that he was ready to go.

Mr. MURROW was of a kindly disposition, and hospitable to all. And while he was not a Christian man his home was always open to the ministers of the gospel.

Jesus said, "He that giveth a cup of cold water in my name, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward."

Life is a leaf of paper white

Whereupon each one of us may write

His word or two, and then comes night.

OBITUARY

Mary Catherine DICKS was born July 10, 1864, in Parke county, Indiana, and departed this life December 8, 1939, at her home in Alva, Okla., at the age of 75 years, 4 months and 28 days.

She spent her childhood in Indiana, moving with her parents to Carthage, Mo. and from there to Stafford, Kansas.

At the age of 24 she was married to Dean MURROW at Stafford, Kans. To this union were born seven children, two of whom have preceded her in death. Her husband also passing away last March.

She leaves to mourn her going: four sons, Lionel R., Avard; Luther, Dacoma; Clay and Frank, Alva; one daughter, Mrs. Walter Bergersen, Capron. Also by two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Watson, Sydney, Ill.; and Mrs. Hannah Hall, Portersville, Calif., and one brother, Miles DICKS, Washington State; 15 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; many other relatives and a host of friends.

She with her husband pioneered in settling the Cherokee Strip, coming to a claim southwest of Dacoma, moving to Alva about 12 years ago.

She became a Christian in her early married life and in spite of hardships and discouragements she retained her sweet Christian experience. She was a true follower of her Lord who went about doing good. "Aunt Polly" (error - it's "Mollie") as she was affectionately known, held a Sunday school in her home, conducted religious services, acted as midwife for many a mother, spoke the comforting words when the loved one was placed in the ground, prayed for the sick and taught sinners the way of righteousness.

Truly from our midst has gone one of the Lord's anointed, one that faced the task to be done and never turned aside until she had discharged her responsibility to her Master.

NOTES:

Lute MURROW attended grade school at the Walnut Grove school (southwest of the Greensburg corner on highway 281). Early in their married life, Grandpa and Grandma lived on a farm six miles east of Avard. My dad and my aunt Jean were both born on the farm, delivered by the local country doctor, Dr. D. B. Ensor.

Grandpa served in the US Army in World War I. He took basic training at Camp Logan, TX, where he was trained to be a cook. His "School of Military Courtesy" card is shown below. I also have the certificate he received upon completion of the cooking school at Camp Logan.

Grandpa was a farmer northwest of Alva before purchasing a grocery business in Alva (my dad attended first grade at the Longfellow school in Alva and they lived a block west of the school); in 1929, they moved to Cherokee and operated a produce house for Swift and Co; shortly after that, they moved to Dacoma, where they opened Murrow's Produce Company, buying and selling cream, poultry, and eggs. Dad had begun second grade in Cherokee, but finished the second semester in Dacoma.

In 1938, Lute became part owner in Smith and Murrow Grocery Co.; in 1945, it became the Jot 'Em Down Store, a family-owned business operated by Lute and Dean. On June 7, 1947, they opened a state-of-the-art refrigeration plant and the business became known as Murrow's Grocery and Locker. In Dacoma's early days, the building that eventually became Murrow's Grocery and Locker was the town's original skating rink.

In 1956, Lute was elected to the Oklahoma House of Representatives, serving Woods County and later, Woods and Woodward Counties (after redistricting). He served for ten years, until his health began to decline. A "Lute Murrow Appreciation Dinner" was held at Northwestern State College in Alva in the spring of 1966 to honor his years of service. Governor Henry BELLMON was the speaker for the occasion.

Mildred was active in the family business, too, putting in long hours at the store, then running the household as well. Many people still remember that she was one of the finest cooks in town, and her gardens (both flower and vegetable) were extraordinary visionary and culinary displays. Like many people, she canned and froze vegetables at their peak during the summer, so we enjoyed her garden produce year-round. Many of my favorite memories of her - we were best friends, practically - involve gardening, cooking, fishing, hunting for the "perfect" Christmas tree, and hanging wallpaper! She was a "rockhound" and liked to collect unique rocks for her flower beds. She and Grandpa loved life and the living of it - and they lived it to the fullest.

She and Grandpa were active in the Dacoma Church of God, including stints on the board, the trustees, teaching Sunday School - and they were part of the group of local citizens and church members who helped build the church's new physical plant in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

After retirement, Grandpa maintained a very large vegetable garden and sold his produce locally - and they gave much of it to friends and neighbors. After a couple of emergency situations, they moved to Alva in order to be nearer their doctor and the hospital. They lived adjacent to the Church of God in Alva and transferred their membership there. They remained active in church as long as their health allowed them to.

NOTES:

Mom and Dad both graduated with the class of 1940 at Dacoma High School in Dacoma, OK. They both attended college at Northwestern State Teachers College, as it was named then. Dad had been one of Dacoma's star basketball players and was selected to play for the Rangers. He enlisted in the Navy in 1942 and was discharged in 1945. They lived for awhile in Hutchinson KS, where Dad was stationed at the U.S. Naval Air Station. He served a tour of duty in the Panama Canal Zone before the war ended.

After being discharged from the Navy, the folks returned to Dacoma and Dad joined his parents in the family business, Murrow's Grocery and Locker Plant. The new plant opened in 1947, the year my brother was born. He and I both graduated from DHS, Randy in 1965 and me in 1967. Dad was the butcher for the locker plant, was involved in farming, and became first the substitute and then the regular mail carrier for the Dacoma Post Office. While we lived in Dacoma, our family belonged to the Church of God.

When my brother and I were both in college, our family moved to Alva; we lived at 814 Apache Drive on the west side of town. When the Dacoma postal route was consolidated into the Alva office, Dad was transferred to the Enid Post Office and they eventually moved to Enid (4214 Pin Oak in the Seven Pines addition on Enid's west side). They ultimately returned to Alva and lived at 1017 Flynn Ave.

Generation 1 - Randall Bruce MURROW

(1a) Randall Bruce MURROW; Born 13 May 1947, Alva, Woods Co., OK; Died 20 Dec 1969, near Vinita, OK; Buried in Alva, OK, Alva Municipal Cemetery. Randy never married

Randy graduated from Dacoma High School in 1965 and from Northwestern Oklahoma State University in 1969. He attended law school at the American University in Washington DC, and was killed in an automobile accident early on the morning of 20 Dec 1969 enroute to Alva to attend his brother's wedding (which was postponed to 27 Dec 1969). He was moving back to Oklahoma and was transferring to the University of Oklahoma Law School at the time of his death.

The Randy MURROW Memorial Scholarship, established by NWOSU faculty members upon learning of his death, has assisted dozens of NWOSU students and has memorialized other members of the MURROW family, including Aaron Luther and Mildred Myrtle MURROW (Randy's paternal grandparents), Samuel S. Riggs (uncle), and Dolores MURROW (his mother).

Randy was an extraordinary singer and was quite a Bible scholar - in fact, he could preach a sermon with the best of them (sometimes in seriousness, sometimes in jest while mimicking certain gospel preachers), talents which he put to use in our church in Dacoma.

One of his passions was photography. His "good" camera was a Kodak Instamatic 500 (which is still in my collection of cameras -- and for which, unfortunately, Kodak has stopped producing film).

He was active in FFA in high school and raised champion New Hampshire hogs. He was an active debater in college and excelled in public speaking. He was the first Northwestern student elected to two successive terms as the President of the Student Senate. He was an ardent Republican and campaigned hard for the election of A. L. "Lute" MURROW, our grandfather, as state representative for Woods and Woodward counties in the 1960s. On many occasions, he and some of his friends were selected as pages at the state capital. In his college years, Randy campaigned hard for the election of Richard M. Nixon to the U. S. presidency. He didn't live to see the Watergate affair drag itself out over the next several years.

Randy wrote his autobiography as an assignment for one of Zelma Snyder's classes. It is dated 26 February 1964, the spring semester of his junior year in high school. I discovered the document when I was going through some of my grandmother's belongings in October 2000. Randy's autobiography, Mein Kampf (My Struggle) -- Randy was a student of history and had recently read Hitler's autobiography by the same title.

While attending American University, Randy worked as a night guard at the U.S. Capitol in Washington. When I visited him in August 1969, he took me on a "tour" of the capitol building that the typical tourist never got to see!

Mein Kampf (My Struggle)

Autobiography by Randall Bruce MURROW, 26 Feb 1964

(Spring semester of junior year in Dacoma High School)

Earlier Years

On the day of May 13, 1947, in a maternity ward, in a hospital, in the medium-sized town of Alva, Oklahoma, a child was born. This child was not much different from many others that were born. He weighed nine pounds ten and one-half ounces and was, fortunately, a boy. After a few days he was transferred to the home of his parents sixteen miles south in the small town of Dacoma where his momentous journey of life began. I know, because I was that child.

Probably my first major accomplishment was talking, which I learned between the ages of one and two years. I loved to talk on the telephone and would simply tell the operator that I wanted my "momma" or "my grand-ma." Needless to say, I was always connected with whomever I wanted.

Another art which I acquired soon after learning to walk was the art of "roaming." I was always a sort of "outdoors-man" and many were the times that I'd toddle up to "Grand-ma's" house in my small T-shirt and diapers.

As a "toddler" I did some out-of-state traveling too. I went several times with my grand-parents to Missouri, and would describe "Me-mels" (windmills), "Ewy-ewy-ells" (oil wells), and other interesting things as the car rolled along. In Missouri we'd visit my Great Aunt and my Great Grandparents. I was the only one of her fifteen great grandchildren that my Great Grandmother ever saw while she was alive. I can still remember how she liked to cook on a wood stove and how I loved to eat "Bumatas" (tomatos) in her garden.

Of course, like any small tad, I occasionally had "accidents" and I'll never forget the day that the whole town searched frantically for me after one of those "accidents" while I hid in an old car, near Ray Morse's garage.

My favorite haunt was my Grand-pa's grocery store where I and my ever-present companion, Friskey, spent many happy hours together. I ate candy and drank pop and she ate meat scraps and chewed on bones for, you see, Friskey was my dog.

I can also remember the old Church of God which stood on the corner west of the store. We had Sunday School in the basement and my first Sunday School teacher was Gladys Smith.

I first attended public school in the old red-brick building in the room which is now the typing room [the southeastern room on the first floor of the old school building]. I can still recall how we used to line up to march into our classes and how at noon and recess we'd "turn, rise, and pass." It was during the first few weeks of school, that I encountered one of my life's most memorable experiences. One day during the morning recess, a group of us were playing on the merry-go-round just south of the building. I, along with several other boys, was in the middle doing the pushing when my pantleg became entangled on a bolt and I was literally "wrapped" around the center pole of the merry-go-round.

I can remember how the kids all crowded around as Leonard [Leonard MURROW, the school custodian] pulled me out from under the iron monster that had broken my leg. I spent nearly a month in the hospital and another two and a half months at home in a cast which made me immoveable from the waist down. However, I was kept well-informed during my absence from school. Almost every evening Mrs. McCray would come by the house and help me with my lessons and tell me how my friends were getting along at school. I received hundreds of cards which I still have and also many flowers, toys, and other gifts. On Halloween, my classmates in the first and second grades put on their costumes and paid me a surprise visit at my home. Eventually, though, I went back to school in a wheel chair and then, later, on crutches. Needless to say, it was an experience I shall never forget.

But not all of school was hardships, there have been many pleasant experiences, too.

In the first and second grades I can recall parties, easter-egg hunts and train trips to Avard. I can still remember the games we used to play on the playground. Terry Budy was always the "captain of the Texas Rangers" and Marilyn Mae Bland was the "leader of the Indians." In the winter there were snowball fights and snow-forts. In the spring and fall there were games like Red Rover, Blackman, and Cowboys and Indians. One outstanding memory is the many Christmas operettas that we put on. Once, as Santa Claus, I started to come through the chimney and ripped off my beard with my knee.

I can also recall my teachers in the earlier grades. First there was Mrs. McCray, then Mrs. Leslie, and Miss Nusser. I will always remember these teachers and the help they gave me.

The "In-Between" Years

The "in-between" years began the year that I entered the sixth grade. Our teacher was Ray Haltom, a newcomer to the school staff.

I can recall many activities in these particular years. I went to stock shows and judging trips and went to serve as a page in the State Legislature after my grandfather's election to the House of Representatives. I went on many Boy Scout trips, but the one I especially remember was a hike down Lake Creek and Eagle Chief to the Carmen highway. Those along were Dale Ross, Frank and Bill Hickman, Newton Baker, Larry Long, Danny Rolfe, Skippy Polson, and our Scoutmaster, Rev. Marvin Polson. It was the longest hike I've ever taken and to top it off we ran out of water and I raked a wasp nest off on my back.

I can also recall the most enjoyable class party I ever went on. It was in the sixth grade and Haltom was our sponsor. We went to Cleo Springs in the back of a truck owned by Mr. Merlin Budy. On the way home it began to pour down rain, and after the truck got stuck cross-ways in the road, the soaked occupants took refuge at Glenn Baker's house until our parents arrived to rescue us.

Many other things took place during these years but one thing stands out to me as the greatest. On August 12, 1961 I gave my heart to Jesus Christ and accepted him as my personal savior. I'll never forget that revival and the thrill of seeing many of my friends saved. Since that time I've had troubles and failures and have felt many times like giving up, but just lately I am beginning to realize that the things of the world aren't so great after all. [Mrs. Zelma Snyder, Randy's teacher for this assignment, added this comment -- "You will realize this more and more as time goes on, Randy."]

Teen-ager

One of my first memories as a teenager is that of my eighth grade graduation. We were all pretty proud as we marched down the aisle that night. But that night was more than pride. It was the beginning of one of life's greatest journeys, high school.

Some of the best memories of life are woven into these past three years; memories such as freshman initiation, ball games, stock shows, judging contests, working in the concession stand and selling magazine subscriptions; memories of writing themes, putting on plays and racing to lunch.

But the greatest memories of life are found in friends. I am thankful for many things but I am most thankful for my friends; old friends like Dale, Terry and Newton; new friends like Terry Doty; grown-up friends like teachers, relatives, and friends of my parents or grandparents; and, of course, the greatest friend of all, Jesus Christ, and it is with His help that life can be sweet and it is with His help that the future will be brighter.

GENEALOGY? ASK DAN!

Q. On pages 399-400 of Terrell Trails it says that Wyatt Monroe was the son of Joseph & Tabitha HILTON TERRELL. On page 1186 it says that he was not. All of the sources that I have show that he was their son. Wyatt Monroe was my great-grand Father. Please let me know which is correct. Thanks. Hank Terrell #469

A. Hank, I'm not sure how that happened. Both works: Terrells of Lancaster SC on p. 397-400+ and the Terrells in Alabama County Records on page 1186 were authored by our president Don C. Terrill. I'm sending him a copy of this along with your original message.

The only reason I can see is that the reference to the family of Joseph on page 399-400 which was done earlier lists Wyatt Monroe TERRELL and the list of heirs from Alabama Records lists West Maddox TERRELL age 12 in 1838. The initials, W. M. would fit either of these names and could easily be confused in cases where only initials were listed. However, in both of these works, the names are spelled out.

I can't lay my hands on a copy of the Alabama work at the moment, but I don't believe I misquoted it.

Dan

In the Wills & Estates Book listed at p. 1186 Terrell Trails Wyatt Monroe Maddox TERRELL is identified as "West Maddox TERRELL." This could be a name miscopied by the clerk of the court, or handwriting misinterpreted by the researcher. It also raises the question of which name is correct? Probably Wyatt. In the 1880 census he is "Wyatt TERRELL." In 1850 and 1870 and 1900 he is "Monroe TERRELL." In marriage records he is "Wyatt Monroe TERRELL," and in Confederate records he is "W. M. TERRELL." Don Terrill

TOMBSTONE PROTECTION

Submitted by Dean Taylor to some rootsweb.com mailing lists

It is said there is nothing new under the sun, but I saw something yesterday, though it may not be new, it is certainly new to me. I'll try to describe it for you.

While walking through an old cemetery here in Harvey County, KS, I ran across five headstones, broken from their bases. The people who are keeping the cemetery, in very good condition I might add, have built wooden forms the thickness of the various broken stones, laid the stones flat at the head of the grave with the wooden forms around them (with about a 6 inch space all around the stones) and poured concrete into the forms flush with the face of the stones. The ones that were in two or three or more pieces, were put together and once coated, all you see are the break lines but they can't be moved.

The stones appear to have been cleaned with mild detergent and a brush. Once dried, it appears that they have poured a coating of either automotive clear coat, or the hard acrylic clear coating found in hobby shops. The end result is a stone too heavy to steal, a coating to protect the face of the stone and the preservation of information for years to come.

This may not be new, but it is novel and certainly crucial to genealogy researchers in the years to come. Just thought I would share this with the list, in hopes that it will generate some protection across the nation for the many broken or damaged stones.

Q. I would like to ask you to define the connection between my husband's ancestor Timothe TER-RILL b 1656 & Immigrant Richmond TERRILL b 1624- is it one of nephew to uncle?

I know you have told me that my husband's Timothe-& Elizabeth (FOSTER)-TERRILL are not now believed to be direct descendants of Richmond TERRELL. Thanks so much for helping me to define this relationship properly. I also would love to know where the TERRILL spelling starts and the TERRELL spelling stops on this family. I do know that TERRILL is the correct Orange Co. spelling

A. Trails, p. 1012 article by John M. TYRRILL (645) of TFHS began definition of the family as:

1. Robert TYRROLD & Agnes of Hagbourne in the county of Berkshire, will proved 13 Aug. 1545. Named children: William, 2.David, Richard, and 2A. Avery.

2. David TURROLDE, above of West Hagbourne (executor of Robert TYRROLD), fathered William and Elenor TYRROLD. His will proved 15th Jan 1577/8.

3. Willyam TYRROLD, son of David yoeman of West Hagbourne, m. Elizabeth & fathered Fran-cys, Davy and "Robart" [Robert] below. His will proved 9th Oct 1587

4. Robert TORRELL who m. Jane BALDWIN and fathered among others Robert, Richmond, & William. His will dated 1643. Robert traded between England and Virginia. William became a merchant in London. Robert stayed with William when he was in London. Richmond claimed land for paying passage of Robert several times and a William one time. Some have assumed the William was his brother, but to the best of my knowledge, that has not been documented.

5. Richmond came to the colony of Virginia.

2A. Avery son of Robert & Agnes TYRROLD (1545 will) of Hagbourne will proved 27 May 1584 named his son 2B Robert as executor.

2B. Robert m. Elienor named her plus sons William, Avery, Robert; daughters Elizabeth & Mary in his will dated May 1592. He did not name 3B. Timothie but we do not know when Robert died. Timothie was obviously born after May 1592 and possibly even posthumously.

2C. Timothie TIRRELL citizen and leatherseller of London will proved 11th. August 1856 named brothers, Robert, William, & Avery and his sister Mary Waller who also benefited from the will of her brother William. This leaves little room for doubt that Timothie was a son of Robert & Elienor. Timothie did not name his wife, but left 1500 pounds "to the child that my wife now goes with if a son or 1,000 pounds if a daughter." The parish registers of All Hallows record the baptisms of 3 sons to Timothy & Dorothy TYRRELL. Avery 28 Aug 1647; William 25 Aug 1650 buried 9 Oct 1651; and Timothy 5 Dec. 1856. Avery is not named in his father's will so it is assumed that he died before 1656. Although not positively proven, it is highly probable that 2D. Timothy born posthumously in 1656 is the one who m. Elizabeth FOSTER in the colony of Virginia. Don Terrill has observed that none of their known descendants named a son Richmond, thus eliminating him as a brother of Richmond and a son of Robert of Reading.

The relationship is as follows:

Robert TYRROLD of Hagbourne common ancestor

- 2. David 2A. Avery brothers
- 3. Wilyam ... 2B Robert first cousins.
- 4. Robert 2C Timothie second cousins.
- 5. Richmond 2d. Timothy third cousins. DFB

EPILOGUE OF TERRELL ORIGINS

Source: Terrell Genealogy by Robert Wilson Therrell, MASOG Library, Southbridge St., Worcester MA

Submitted by Judy Caldwell Ollikkala, whose grandmother was Ellen (Ella) Mary TERRELL of Mass. email: 71431.2534@compuserve.com

The name TIREL dates to 950AD. Ralf (Raoul) de TIREL was son of Gautier I (Walter) of Valois, Vexin and Amiens, France, the third of five sons.

Ralf's mother was Adele (Adelaide), daughter of Folques I, Count of Anjou. Ralf married the daughter of Seigner de Guernanville, they had 2 sons, Hilduin, Sire de Tirel and Folques de Tirel.

Folques (Fulke) de Tirel (title was Sire and Dean of Evreaux) married Lady Orielda, daughter of Richard I, 3rd Duke of Normandy, they had 10 children.

Their youngest son Gautier I (Walter) de TIREL accompanied his relative William the Conqueror to England in 1066. From this Walter, all Tirels, of all spellings, at least 23 different spellings, are presumed to descend.

The name TIREL is now extinct in France but continues in England, Ireland, and America.

There are at least three explanations for the origin of the name.

One is the old French spelling of "Terre" meaning "land" or "high ground". The original estates were in Vexin on high ground at a place now known as "Triel de Seine" (a simple reversal of letters), near the conflux of the Oise and Seine Rivers, very near Pointoise.

The second explanation is "Tirer", to draw pulling a bow-string. The family was famous for archers. Walt TIREL was a famous archer, blamed for the death of King William (Rufus) II of England, killed by an arrow when stag hunting with Walter TIREL in the Forest of Avon. This story is in Walter Scott's "Ivanhoe" and Costain's "The Conqueror". Also known as "The Little Tower", of Anglo-Norman origin, founded at Norman invasion by Sir Walter TYRELL.

Sources: A Geneological History of Tyrrells (Irish house) by Joseph Henry TYRRELL

Maison de Tyrel by M. D'Arcy, French version

The name of Tirell is inscribed in Battle Abbey, erected by William the Conqueror on the Battlefield of Hastings to honor those knights who accompanied him on his conquest against England.

The name of Walter Tirelde is in the Doomsday Book, a record of land holdings compiled by William the Conqueror in 1070 for purposes of taxation, he was among the largest landowners of that time. The family retained their possessions for 700 years. Knighthood was passed down to the head of the house for 600 years.

Hugh, son of Walter, settled in Ireland with large landholdings. He was the "greatest fighter Ireland ever had since Brian Boru".

Tirels took part in the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Crusades. Sir Walter I in the 1096 Siege of Jerusalem, Sir Hugh in 1146, and Hugh, son of Sir Hugh in 1190.

The Coat of Arms is a Ralf and Hildurn shield "Vair". There is a different Coat of Arms for Walter and the two Hughs'. The English ancestral Tyrrell home is Thornton Manor, Bucks, 1519 to 1755 and by descendants to 1894, now an Episcopal Convent of Jesus and Mary.

Other homes mentioned are Thorne in Yorkshire, and Thornton Hall, Buckinghamshire near Wendover and Lees.

Listed as early settlers in America are:

- 1) Roger TERRILL from Nanzing, Sussex, England, b. ?1586, on the ship Lion 14 Sept. 1632, Boston, then to New Haven CT, then to Milford CT, 1639, m. Jane Baldwin [sic, error, Roger M. Abigail UFFORD]; Robert of Reading m. Jane BALDWIN, DFB], had large family incl. son Roger TERRILL b. c1638, Milford CT
 - 2) John TURRELL, of Instow, Devonshire, England, c.1640, Boston, had son Samuel TURRELL in Boston 1657 (land sale Cross and Hanover Streets, Boston 1711)
 - 3) Daniel TURRELL, blacksmith of Instow, Devonshire, England, c. 1640, Boston, died July 16, 1693
 - 4) Timothy TERRELLs from London, England area, 1672 to New Kent Virginia
 - 5) William and Richmond TERRELL, brothers, to St. Paul's Parish, Hanover City, Virginia [Richmond's brother William remained in England, a merchant in London. There is some doubt that he came to Virginia. The William who m. Susannah was probably either son of Richmond or son of William of London. DFB]
 - 6) William THERRELL married to Rebecca SIMPKINS, daughter of Capt. Nicholas SIMPKINS, in Boston, 29 Nov. 1654 by Richard BELLINGHAM, Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony, 1655 to Weymouth MA. William was a Merchant-Tailor, they had four children. He died in 1682 in Little River, Albemarle County, Carolina Children -- Rebecca TURELL 1656; William THORULL 1658 (age 21 lived in Weymouth); Mary THIRRELL 1661; Gideon TURRELL 1664

This TERRILL family has direct connections to both Pres. James MADISON and Pres. Zachary TAYLOR:

The TERRILL DAR connection to Dr. Charles TAYLOR, Revolutionary War Surgeon, was established by my late mother in- law who was a DAR Vice- Regent, Charles was a 1st cousin, once removed of both Presidents.

My husband's ancestor, Sarah Martha Taylor Moore {as above}, is the link.

Her parents were Major William Catlett MOORE (1802-1864) and his wife Matilda Rachel TAYLOR (c 1804-1875) of Orange Co., VA

Matilda Rachel TAYLOR was the daughter of Dr. Charles TAYLOR (1755-1821) and his wife Sarah CONWAY (1759-1820) of Orange Co., VA
Dr. Charles TAYLOR was the son of Col. George TAYLOR (1711-1792) & Rachel GIBSON (1717-1761)

George TAYLOR was the brother of Frances Thompson TAYLOR who, with her husband Ambrose MADISON Sr., were the GP's of Pres. James Madison though their son James MADISON Sr. b 1723

George TAYLOR was also the brother of Zachary TAYLOR, Sr., who, with his wife Elizabeth LEE, were the Grandparents of Pres. Zachary TAYLOR through their son Col. Richard Lee TAYLOR b 1742

Hope this helps.

LARGER ISSUES

We have published 30 pages in each issue of Trails this year. That is an increase of 50% over what we had published for several previous years.

The added cost of printing the larger issue does not appear to have endangered our prospects for continuing indefinitely.

Therefore, we will continue to publish 30 pages in each issue in 2002.

We hope you have enjoyed this improvement and will continue to support us in 2002 and thereafter.
