ROBERT NESBITT "BOB"TERRELL

09/20/1937--09/28/2000

Submitted by Mrs. Mary TERRELL, newspaper clipping, no dateline or name
 He developed a special beef jerky food for astronauts that is still being used.

He published more than 100 articles and abstracts in food science journals and trade publications.

He had charge of feeding the troops who were federalized during Alabama's civil rights strife in 1963.

A retired consultant to the meat industry, he won an award just this summer for his service.

Dr. Robert N. TERRELL of 2101 Scott St. [Guntersville, AL] died Thursday, Sept. 28, 2000, at First Methodist Church with a private burial following. Visitation was Saturday night at Guntersville Memorial Chapel.

Dr. TERRELL moved to Guntersville in 1993 with his wife, the former Mary (Prissy) DUNSTON, who grew up here. They met while he was in Guntersville visiting the late Tim JORDAN, Jr.

They lived in Auburn, Chicago, Texas, and in Cincinnati before moving here. He had been vice-president of research for Hillshire Farm & Kahn's, a Cincinnati based meat processing company before starting his own consulting company.

He received his BS in animal science from Oklahoma State, his master's in meat science & biochemistry from the University of Tennessee, and a Ph.D. in meat science & food technology from the University of Wisconsin.

He also served in the Army and was the post commissary officer at Ft. McClellan, where he was given the responsibility of feeding the federalized troops during the civil rights problems in 1963. He and his wife had to cut short their honeymoon so he could go back to the base and take on the responsibility of finding 5,000 loaves of bread and everything else it took to feed several thousand troops. His first job out of graduate school was as a meat technologist for the Auburn University Extension Service. He went from there to Chicago where he worked for Griffith Laboratories, a supplier of spices and seasonings to the food industry. Then as a college professor at Texas A & M, he was contacted by NASA to develop a special beef jerky food that the astronauts could use in space.

He made 5 trips to Russia during the 1970s as a consultant to an American company that was building a baby food plant in southern Russia.

He won numerous awards in his field, including one this summer from the American Meat Science Assn. For his work in helping establish meat processing clinics held each year for graduate students in meat science.

He holds three patents for meat processing methods. He is survived by his wife, Mary (Prissy) Terrell, a daughter, Tracy Russell (Mike) of Charlotte NC; a son, David TERRELL of Guntersville; a brother, Dr. William TERRELL of Wichita, KS; and 2 grandchildren.

I seek info on the TERRELLS of Putnam Co. MO. My g-grandfather Samuel TERRELL married Esther BAGLEY 11/01/1866 in Putnam Co. MO. I believe he might have been the son of William TERRELL & Rachel WILLIAMS who m. in Perry Co. OH 10/04/1839. I am trying to find proof of this relationship. Samuel & Esther had 3 children: Charles Washington TERRELL b. 1867; James Tuttle TERRELL b. 1871; and Ada (Addie) TER-

RELL b. 1876. 555 m. Josie Mae TOMLINSON 02/12/1909 at Marcelline, Linn Co. MO. They are my grandparents. If you know anything that will help me, write #516 Aletha Allene Crowley; 13819 Hwy C; Rayville MO 64084 or email to crowgram@cs.com

Want info on ancestors, birth, & death of Maude MASSENGALE d. at Meridian, Lauderdale Co. MS on 1889?; and her spouse, James Alexander TERRAL b. 08/29/1860 in Quitman, Clarke Co. MS; d. at Quitman MS 12/11/1937?; m. 01/16/1885 at Quitman, Clarke, MS. Maude d/o George MASSENGALE & Martha MC GOWAN. Maude d. at early age of flu epidemic along with an infant daughter. I cannot find place of burial although almost sure it was Roselawn Cemetery at Meridian MS. Also need date of birth. #559 Mrs. Maude Terral Lette; 1044 honeydale Rd; Brownsville, TX 78520

Want info on Thomas S. TERRELL b. 02/13/1809, d. Charlotte Co. VA 08/25/1869; and his spouse, Nancy B. LE NEVE b. 09/12/1812, d. Charlotte Co. VA 04/24/1878. This info comes from written family history. Daughter of Thomas & Nancy was Sarah Ann Frances TERRELL, my grandmother, b. 09/24/1840, d. 03/02/1893. #584 Pat Haynsworth; 2253 St. Clair Ave; St Paul MN 55105

I am a descendant of William S. TERRELL. He was my g-grandfather. His son Bazzel was my grandfather. William was born in Georgia in 1816, and my grandfather was born in 1869. Elna Terrell Etheridge EEther8496@cs.com

Listen you guys I have Josiah's marriage record if you need it. I can copy my old Josiah research off to you if you ever want it for whatever it is worth. I also have his War of 1812 paper too. I did that on each of the family members as I was researching. I have a file on each and everyone but it is rather dusty! Anyway, nice my TERRELL website is at <http://www.gate.net/~sigmar/ratcliff/terrell.html> (nothing great) and do come visit me at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~lapointe/> POINTE COUPEE PARISH.... best parish in the state.

Hi, I went to your site and found many of my names in your index, but would like to know how to get more information. I have Hannah TERRELL that married Israel BURNLEY - dau Frances BURNLEY m. George SMITH. Hannah was the dau of Joel TERRELL, but have no wife for him, other siblings, etc. Would like to get this information. These lines eventually connect to my husband's line of KEAHEY. Appreciate your help. Faith Keahey keahey@fiberpipe.net

I found your website through a Terrell inquiry on genforum.com. I found a listing for a Mr. Elijah TERRELL with the page numbers - 164, 167, 169, 530, 553, 594,663 listed by the name.

Please tell me what these pages are to and how I can purchase copies or whatever. I am looking for Elijah W. TERRELL (b: abt 1802 in VA) went to Kentucky and married Elizabeth FRANKS on Dec. 1, 1833 in Caldwell Co., KY. He was my g-g-g-grandfather. We have him and his wife and children in Caldwell county identified but have no date of passing. Do not know if he left KY or died there and the family was too poor to mark his grave. I have a copy of the Union Army discharge for his son, David C. TERRELL (also listed as James A.C. TERRELL, a brother who also enlisted but died in the War). I would gladly share the information I have on this man and his descendents. My mother is a Terrell descended from David C. TERRELL.

Thanks for putting up the website. Gives all of us new hope and help.

According to our THOMPSON family tree, Esther TERREL was born at CT. Farms, NJ now Union, Union NJ. June 30 1753. She married a Jeremiah JAGGERS ( what a bunch of them there are) supposedly born on LI Nov 9 1750. There is no date given for his removal to CT. Farms, but he married Esther in 1775, was a member of the Presbyterian church there and died there Sep. 18 1826 aged 75 years - a farmer.

The THOMPSON tree names only their daughter Charity JAGGERS who married William THOMPSON (of Madison, NJ) Aug 31 1801 and their children. There is another family chart that gives the names of Charity's siblings but no dates.

On a LDS film 0849582 Collection of Essex Co. of NJ Families 1600-1900 I found two cards for Samuel TERRILL b. Milford. CT and d. in Elizabethtown, NJ with a list of his children but almost no definite dates. However the spouse is listed for each of his nine children and his Esther is said to be married to Jeremiah JAGGERS!

One of the cards is supposedly taken from Note Book of Daniel T. CLARK (NJHT Lib) and it says that Samuel married a Mary JONES of LI. It looks like his will ?at July 2 1765 asks his son Nathaniel TERRILL to take care of "my brother Lemuel", widow Mary TERRILL d 1817 age 93. Even with all of this I have not gotten any further. Do you have any suggestions?

Thank you for your time. Everyone has been so kind and I have had great success on several of my other lines as I struggle with recording all I can before my 87th birthday. Sincerely, Margaret C. Hunt McHunt@aol.com

Is there a TERRELL artist? I have a print, signed H F or H T TERRELL of a man dressed in 19c European clothes , possibly an orthodox Jew. The date is 1897. I can't find any Terrell's listed in artist's catalogues in the UK. Do you have any information? Thank you. Harvey Marcovitch Oxford, England

Thanks for the email, have just gone to the Terrell Society Web page. If I read things right, Vol. 3 #3, pg 196 should contain my ancestors Permelia TERRELL who m. Christopher Columbus MC KAY in Marion Co., Al. my decendancy is as follows:

Christopher C. MC KAY m. Permelia TERRELL, Marion Co., Al.

William Milas MC KAY m. Mary Virginia PYRON, Marion Co., Al.

Naomi MC KAY m. Elias ESTILL, Marion Co., Al.

Garlon Clyde ESTILL m. Lois Elizabeth FRENDALE, Walker Co., Al.

Edwina Clyde ESTILL m. Rickie Lee LAWRENCE, Wayne Co., In.

I was told years ago that C.C. MC KAY's wife was a TERRELL, but I have never been able to prove it. I was also told that Permelia was an O'REAR by another researcher, but didn't really believe it. Well, guess I need to do a little more investigating. Thanks again for the email. Wendy (Edwina) Lawrence weneslaw@webworks2000.net

Here is what I have on our Jared TERRELLI (have found it spelled Jerred TERRILL)

Jared TERRELL b. abt 1820 KY or IN d. bef. 1870 married 25 April 1837 Jefferson County, Indiana (source IN Marriages web site) Emaline BOYD b. abt. 1818 Ohio d. aft. 1870 (in Wabash Co. IL 1870 census) children:

1. Samuel TERRELL b. abt. 1841 IN may have died during Civil War
2. Boyd TERRELL b. 27 Feb. 1843 IN d. 11 Mar. 1915 Comanche Co. OK married 8 April 1866 Clay City, Clay County, IL Leah Frances JONES b. 29 Dec. 1846 Clay County, IL d. 13 Apr. 1918 Com. Co. OK
3. M. J. TERRELL (possibly Amanda or even Minerva) b. 1846 IN
4. Mary TERRELL b. 1847 IN
5. Matilda TERRELL b. 1850 IN
6. Emaline TERRELL b. 1854 IN
7. Joseph TERRELL b. 1856 IN
8. Elizab. A. TERRELL b. 1859 IL

The approximate birth dates are from a family Bible that belonged to the youngest daughter of their son Boyd TERRELL. According to the 1850 Census of Jennings County, IN Jared was 37 which would have put his year of birth as 1813. At the moment I can't find my copy of the 1860 census page for Olney, Richland Co. Illinois where the listing is Jerred. In the 1870 Census, Round Prairie Pct., Wabash Co. IL Emaline is listed with Minerva, 22, Mary M. 20, Emma 18 and Joseph 14. Boyd and his family are living next door.

Boyd & Leah JONES TERRELL are my husband's great grandparents. They moved to Kaufman Co. Texas around 1877 then to Comanche Co. Indian Territory (OK) in 1902. Their children were:

- William Morris TERRELL b. 1867;
- Charles Jasper TERRELL b. 1869;
- Mary Jane TERRELL, 1870;
- John Wesley TERRELL 1872;

Thomas Edward TERRELL 1876;
Jerry Boyd TERRELL 1877;
Victoria Ludemia TERRELL 1880;
Annie TERRELL 1882;
Joseph Campbell TERRELL 1884 and
Adella Mae TERRELL 1887.

Thomas & Annie died as infants.

I've been looking for Jared and Emaline's parents and siblings for more than 20 years and just cannot find them. Most of my information is on Boyd TERRELL's descendants.

Cleta Terrell cterrell@juno.com

Hi. This is Judy Moody in Lakin KS. I was browsing the genealogy of the my Grandmother. Her father was David Nelson TERRELL born May 9 1862 in Ottumwa (Wapella Co.) Iowa Married Wilhelmina Clara FIENE. They were married on April 13 1897 in Kansas. He died in McDonald Ks Oct 25 1934. They had 7 children. Guy TERRELL, Edna TERRELL, Frieda TERRELL, Hazel TERRELL, Erwin TERRELL, Leland TERRELL, & Lawrence TERRELL. This is sketchy and I do have a little more information. My mother says if it's a TERRELL, especially from Phillips CO. KS or even in Ks we're probably related somehow. So I'm taking the time to e-mail and see what happens. The information I have is from a Mark Joseph CAPPELLO that lived in Waldorf, MD in 1990. He has a list of TERRELLs going back to 1769. Jephthae TERRELL that was born 1 Sept. 1769 in Virginia and m. a Sarah BARNES born 27 June 1773 in Virginia. Doesn't say when they were Married. They died in Champaign Co. Ohio Dec 27 1817. Jephthae was buried in COLLARD cemetery. They weren't sure about Sarah other than she died sometime after 1840. They had 12 children. There's tree that shows the rest of the family from there. Does any of this sound familiar? Judy Moody; PO Box 858; Lakin KS 67860 e-mail judym@pld.com

Do you have any further info on Mrs Eliza IVEY Terrill; 756 and her husband John TERRILL? They married in 1826 in Redruth, Cornwall, UK. Thanks!
Susan pjsing@bellsouth.net

My name is Jason R. TERRELL and I recently found the Terrell Society web page. I am interested in joining, but would like to know if you have any information on or members from the line of John TERRELL & Elizabeth Graves DOWNING from Franklin County and later Hall County, Ga. Since Elizabeth was half-Cherokee, most of their descendants migrated to Indian Territory in the 1830s. I descend from one of their sons, Moses TERRELL. I've been researching the descendants of John & Elizabeth for many years and would be happy to contribute information to the greater Terrell library, if you think that there are others who would benefit. I'll send along an application and dues soon. Many thanks, Jason Terrell; email: Tenkiller@aol.com

My name is Betty Frances Smith Collins, descendant of Dr. William Daingerfield SMITH and Julia Louisa TERRELL. One of their children, Edwin Bathurst SMITH 3rd, m. Catherine Carey MONCURE. Their only son (to my knowledge) was Edwin Bathurst SMITH 4th m Annie Lucy SMITH. (Smith was her maiden name also) . From Edwin 4th and Annie Lucy was my grandfather,(an only child) Alfred Anthony SMITH m Johnnie Ruth THURMAN. From them were 3 sons (eldest being my father) Robert Anthony SMITH. Then me, Betty, and then my children. I hope this is of help on the site.
Betty Smith Collins; Oklahoma, USA email - wingedattitude@hotmail.com

For many years now, my family has been trying to locate the parents (and siblings) of my great-grandfather. Henry TERRELL was born in June 1823 in Indiana; died in May of 1873, close to Huron, Lawrence Co., IN. The family has always known that his family was originally from North Carolina. He married Rachel JOHNSON in Lawrence Co., Indiana in the 1840's. My maternal grandfather, Levi TERRELL, was Henry and Rachel's youngest child, and was born in September of 1862. Rachel JOHNSON's parents were John JOHNSON and Sarah BARNES. Sarah's father was Jehu BARNES, and her mother was Lurannah TEAGUE. These people and many Teagues, Barnes, and Johnsons show up in the Burke Co.,NC census of 1820, most on the same page! AND, there are just two TERRELL's that show up in Burke Co. and are ALSO on the same page. They are William & Solomon TERRELL. There have been rumors for years that Henry's dad could have been William, but no real proof; nor do we know who his mother was. Henry and Rachel named their very first child, Solomon, and he died at five years of age. My family had also heard that the name Solomon had been in the family in the past. I have a strong hunch that the Solomon in the census is Henry's grandfather, who may have later moved to Kentucky and died there, as there is no record on the Indiana census in the early 1800's of a Solomon living in the area Henry was born, but there were several William's. If anyone has any clues at all about these TERRELL'S, please let me know !! Thanks, Penny Gardner; 59045 Beech Rd; Mishawaka, Indiana 46544; USA; E-mail: pfgard@juno.com

I am researching the BURFORD family. I have my line pretty well down back through the Reverend Daniel BURFORD ((1750-1820). I have strong suspicions that his father was Philip BURFORD and his mother was Mildred TERRELL. He also had a son by the name of Philip Terrell BURFORD who married a Rebecca CLARK/CLACK. This seems to all agree with your BURFORD entry on pages 509 and 552 of Volumes 1 through 10 of Terrell Trails. How would I go about getting copies of these pages? More than willing to pay the cost and mailing. Will be more than happy to share my research with you. Appreciate any help you can give. Thanks Gil Gilliland RGilill369@aol.com

Editor's Note: I responded to the above message. FYI, all back issues of TERRELL TRAILS are available. They are listed on the LENDING LIBRARY Order Form on the web page and on the copy mailed with each issue of TRAILS. DFB

I am a new member of the Society and would like to know if anyone has found the family in Kentucky of Robert TERRELL (1817-1891). He was married in 1836 in Garrard County, KY to Martha Ann STRANGE, daughter of Washington STRANGE. They both died in Crawford County, Illinois and are buried in FORD Cemetery there. My family originated from England so I have been told. I have been told my family goes back to Sir William TERRELL from England. But at the moment I am trying to find my Great-grandfather who's name was Pascal TERRELL who lived in Nelson County, Ky He was married to Sarah SHIELDS, and they married in 1882. They had a son, my Grandfather Prentis TERRELL in 1885. He married Mary Fanny LEWIS, They lived in Spencer Co. Kentucky. They both passed away in 1956. They had 11 Children, who's names were" William Vernon, Effie, Bessie, Amos Edward, Otis, Robert, Eva Mae, Pascal Cecil, Viola, Virginia , and Sarah. If you could help me in anyway I would appreciate it very much. gail/dark-moon WLittleSquaw@aol.com

Dan I have a new email address since your last news letter came out I've had several letters on J I TERRELL but none that are any connection. I have found out his name my be John I or Joseph Isaac. Would you please put my new e mail in your next letter? dmhall@easilink.com thanks Merlene M.. Hall 435 789 1576

Thank you for your response. I do not believe that she is one of the Phobes listed. My Phoebe is shown as Phoebe or Phebe TERRIL, born in 1811, in Ontario. She married Garret VAN WICKLIN. I can't seem to link her with anyone. My address is: Marg Graham-Trottman; 67 Jocelyn Street; Port Hope, Ontario CANADA L1A 2G4; (905) 885-5715 marfra.trottman@sympatico.ca

Thank you for your response. Joseph TYRRELL that I am looking for was born in Nebraska to Adof Ted S. TYRRELL and Sarah DAILEY Tyrrell. He married Mary HAXTON at Furnas Co. Nebraska in 1904, had a daughter to that marriage, Marie. Joseph was suppose to have died early and mother and daughter moved to California. Any information would be helpful. Thanks again, Lynne Mayhew elfm@mindspring.com

I am looking for Ruben TERRELL's parents and ancestors. The only information that I have is that he married Catherine GAINES on March 28, 1803 in Orange County, VA.

1 Ruben TERRELL (? - ?) m. Catherine Kitty GAINES (1780 - ?)

2 Gradison TERRELL (1805 - 1887) m. Martha Ann Elizabeth ELLIS (1816 - ?)

3 Robert Wesley TERRELL 1837 m. Elisa Jane HUFFMAN 1860 - 1935

4 Joseph Aubrey TERRELL 1890 m. Nannie BORDERS 1906 -

5 Anna Faye TERRELL 1937 m. Willard Sebren STONE 1924 - 1977

6 Kevin J STONE 1959 -

Thanks in advance for your help.

What a nice surprise. My first try on the net at looking for my family. My name is James David TERRELL, son of Andrew Jackson TERRELL, Jr., grandson of Andrew Jackson TERRELL. My grandfather and father (both deceased) lived in Quannah, Texas. That's as far back as I know. I do know that I have relatives in the Haskell, Texas and Lubbock, Texas areas. Beyond that I'm clueless. Can you give me some quick advice on where to go from here? Thanks. Dave Terrell dterrell@terrellcomplaw.com

TERRELL BIOGRAPHIES

From: PJ_Achramowicz@spe.sony.com
Hi Dan: Just passing along some stuff. regards, Patricia

TERRAL, John H. D., clergyman, missionary, was born Aug. 1, 1858, in Paulding, Miss. He received his education in the Summerville institute of Gholson, Miss.; was mayor of Spanish Fork, Texas, in 1885; and since that time has been a missionary, and identified with the methodist episcopal church south. He founded the town of Terral, I. T., where he is also a successful merchant, and prominent in public affairs. Thomas William Herringshaw, Encyclopedia of American Biography, p.920

TERRELL, John A., physician, public official, was born in 1850 in Auburn Mills, Va. He received his education at the university of Maryland; and graduated in medicine from the Baltimore Medical college. He is one of the leading physicians of the south, and has a large practice in his native city; has been justice of the peace, postmaster, and filled various other public positions of trust. Thomas William Herringshaw, Encyclopedia of American Biography, p.920

TERRELL, William, agriculturist, state legislator, congressman, was born in 1778 in Fairfax county, Va. He was frequently a member of the Georgia legislature; and was a representative in congress from Georgia from 1817 to 1821. In 1853 he made a donation of twenty thousand dollars for the establishment of an agricultural professorship in the university of Georgia, which professorship bears his name. He died July 4, 1855, in Sparta, Ga. Thomas William Herringshaw, Encyclopedia of American Biography, p.920

TERRILL, William Rufus, soldier, was born April 21, 1834, in Covington, Va. He was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1862, and was killed in the battle of Perryville in the same year. He died Oct. 8, 1862, near Perryville, Ky.

ALEXANDER TERRELL

From: Mary Beth Majesty; mydesire2@juno.com
My cousin is having our TERRELL line researched. They have come across a couple of articles while in the Chester County Historical Society, PA on Alexander TERRELL b. 2 Jan 1807 and d. 9 Feb 1888. One is from the Oxford Press 11-1-1876 titled

An Eccentric Educator. "...

Prof Alex. TERREL, a native and for many years a resident of London, Britain township (which is in Chester Co.)

Prof. Terrel is one of the most erudite men of the day, but his singular retiring disposition rendered him comparatively unknown outside of his immediate neighborhood. He has for many years resided in a small log house, dilapidated and forlorn, with a single loft-like bed room, on the second floor and scantily furnished with rude furniture. Here in this retirees place has this learned recluse lived with his wife and held communion with nature and his books; here has he taught for nearly forth years, instructing some of his pupils through the broad range of the science - astronomy, geology, botany, mathematics, navigation, engineering, history, the languages and various other studies. ...

Mathematics was his great hobby, but he gave great attention to history, geology, botany, etc. He was an assiduous Bible reader having read the scriptures through two or three times yearly, translating into some several languages as he read. ...

At one time an effort was made by Newark College (that would be Newark, DE) to withdraw Prof. from his retirement by the offer of a professorship.. but he preferred the retirement of his secluded home.

He had not left his home for so great distance for 30 years, until last August, when he was prevailed upon to visit the Centennial Exposition, with which he was greatly pleased.

His nephew Dr. ASHTON and Dr. Samuel SMITH, of Piqua, Ohio, after much persuasion, prevailed upon him to remove to Ohio.

Mrs. TERRELL(Mia Jane/Mary Jane/Mira STREET), the life companion of this remarkable character, is a woman of excellent mind and endowments. She is a sister of the celebrated painter, Robert STREET, of Philadelphia and was herself possessed of considerable artistic talent, which in former years she exercised to a considerable extent...

I'll end that piece there, if you want a copy I can e-mail one or snail mail it. Let me know.

NEXT

A memoriam sketch of Alexander TERRELL prepared by his friend and pupil Dr. S. D. SMITH...

Alexander TERRELL born Jan 2, 1807 and departed this life Feb 9, 1888, aged 81 years 1 month and 7 days. He was a native of the state of Delaware and was born on the landed estate that extended over into the States of Pennsylvania and MD, and upon which the historic stone was planted by Charles MASON and Jeremiah DIXON when Mason and Dixon Line was established.

Being the youngest of a family of seven, of whom his sister, Mrs .Ashton...

Although delicate and shrinking as a child, he early manifested an extraordinary aptitude for learning, having mastered without seeming effort, all the branches in the schools of his day, when but a mere boy, at the age of twelve years, without the assistance of a teacher he thoroughly mastered a large treatise on (I can't read, possibly plaric?) trigonometry and surveying and copied it into a book, with the neatness and accuracy that would have done credit to one of mature years.

Having exhausted all the available means at hand, an opportunity offered through a Mr. MONTGOMERY, a graduate and professor of mathematics in the Dublin University of Ireland, who owing to convivial habits was deposed and came to American and was engaged to teach in the Academy of Newark, Delaware, then the great educational center of a large area including several States thus the way opened for the gratification four friend's thirst for knowledge and well did he improve his advantages. A strong attachment very soon sprung up between the warm-hearted and erratic teacher and the youthful and retiring schoolboy.

Before his teens were past the field of mathematics had been mastered including the Differential Calculus, as well as a very liberal classical foundation laid in Latin, Greek, Hebrew about this time the gifted and cultured MONTGOMERY succumbed to his inebriate habits, and soon we find Mr. TERRELL in the West, visiting friends, where he remained for years teaching in this vicinity and in the adjoining State of Indiana.

Tiring of the west he returned East, where for years he was a recluse almost unknown to his most inmate friends, so fully enthralled was he in books and particular in the study of natural history of which he was most passionately fond and which he mastered not only in part but as a whole....

This memorial goes on about Mrs. TERRELL then to a poem. If you should want a copy of this, I think because it is hand written and very light, I should snail mail it.

IRA NATHAN TERRILL in Oklahoma

Submitted & © 2000 by: Donald L. TERRILL

This is the sequel to CONVICTED UNDER HIS OWN LAW IN LAST ISSUE

Ira Nathan TERRILL, (1853-1921), a geologist, inventor and poet from Wichita, Kansas participated in the opening of the Unassigned Lands, (the Oklahoma Land Rush) on April 22, 1889. On June 27, 1889 he homesteaded 70 acres southwest of the present city of Stillwater, Oklahoma on the north bank of the Cimarron River on a ford at Wild Horse Creek. TERRILL had been a member of "Payne's Boomers" a group led by David L. PAYNE and William L. COUCH which early on pushed for the opening of unoccupied Oklahoma lands, which were then extensively used by cattle companies. He was with Couch's party when they established a settlement at Stillwater and were subsequently removed back to Kansas by federal troops in 1884.

A leader of the Farmer's Alliance in the Populist Party, TERRILL was elected, on August 5, 1890, to the First Oklahoma Territorial Legislature for the 1890-91 term. Oklahoma historian Marion Tuttle ROCK said of TERRILL, " His Herculean blows in defense of the peoples rights made him one of the prominent members of the first legislature. He was brave and fearless in the defense of any and all principles that he conceived to be just, and whether in the majority or minority was a matter of supreme indifference to him." Tradition has it that TERRILL sponsored the Oklahoma homicide law under which he became the first person to be tried and convicted. It was his vigorous support of the Occupying Claimants Act that incurred the lasting vengeance of lawyers, land speculators and cattlemen who viciously preyed upon the property of those who lost homesteads in court cases over 'soonerism.' A 'sooner,' who had been in the territory thirty days prior to the opening was ineligible by federal law to homestead. Such homesteaders lost their land and improvements which was auctioned off to the highest bidder. TERRILL's law required that the losing homesteader be paid for his improvements from the auction proceeds. Land speculators, shyster lawyers and cattlemen were the primary instigators of 'sooner' claims and were generally the only ones with the means to buy and profit from the disputed land. They frequently resorted to hiring professional witnesses to testify that homesteaders were sooners whether or not they actually were. History records that the practice of perjury was notorious, and a December 1889 issue of the GUTHRIE NEWS said: "This business of filing contests for blood money -- for it can be nothing else -- deserves the severest condemnation and the most thorough exposure." The requirement to reimburse the homesteader's for their improvements reduced profits and the fact that TERRILL helped many homesteaders dispute the sooner charges gained him numerous political enemies among the speculators, lawyers and cattlemen.

George M. EMBREE (EMBREY) from Texas, known only to be a large man over 200 pounds and under 40 years of age, reputed to be a ne'er-do-well even though his family were apparently industrious and well-liked homesteaders in the area, served as a professional witness for the land speculators, lawyers and cattlemen. He reportedly testified in a number of sooner cases and quickly ran afoul of TERRILL, even apparently threatening to kill him on several occasions.

On January 3, 1891 Ira N. TERRILL, with his brother David Bliss TERRILL, was in the Land Office, on the federal acre, in Guthrie, Oklahoma. He had gone there either to commute his own homestead by paying $1.25 an acre or to help another party contest a sooner charge. EMBREE was reportedly in a nearby saloon when he was told TERRILL was in town and egged on by some of his benefactor lawyers and speculators went to the land office to challenge TERRILL. Some reports indicate he intended to question TERRILL's right to prove up on his homestead. The two met as TERRILL was leaving the land office. Both men were armed as was the custom of the day, a gunfight ensued, EMBREE was killed and TERRILL wounded in the right arm or hand.

There were varying accounts of the fatal encounter. TERRILL maintained he had acted in self defense and several witnesses agreed with him. The Perkins, OKLAHOMA BEE newspaper of the day said, "Had TERRILL been a leading Republican or Democrat, they would have handled his case with gloves, and gross misconduct in the jury room while his case was being considered would have been ample grounds for a new trial. But TERRILL was a Populist, and it makes all the difference in the world." No concise records can be found but some accounts indicate that a trial was held in Guthrie that resulted in a hung jury, 10 for conviction and two for acquittal, but some of TERRILL's descendents adamantly maintained that he was apparently first tried in Payne County (Stillwater or Perkins ?) and a jury acquitted him. In actions that led to his lifelong claims of double jeopardy, as well as self defense, he apparently was tried again in Logan County (Guthrie ?) and was eventually sentenced from Noble County (Perry ?) to twelve years for manslaughter in the first degree. These last two locations possibly being temporarily designated as Federal District Courts as the shooting took place on the federal acre at the Guthrie Land Office, a fact which deprived local courts of any authority in the matter and there were no federal courts in the Territory at the time. Oklahoma had no prison during that period so he was eventually incarcerated, under a contract with its warden, at the Kansas State Penitentiary in Lansing.

TERRILL spent his entire time in prison filing appeals on numerous grounds for release, (including the legality of Kansas imprisoning him,) and in 1905 agreed to an insanity plea with the statement. "I'm crazy to think I will ever get justice from this system." A few months later (Oklahoma ?) Governor Frank FRANTZ pardoned him.

In 1907 TERRILL published a three act play, A PURGATORY MADE OF PARADISE, A Tragedy Depicting Early Day Scenes in Oklahoma. The gunfight in Guthrie is depicted in the play. Few copies of this and other of TERRILL's works remain but in 1961-62, Dr. B. B. CHAPMAN of the History Department of Oklahoma State University at Stillwater (whose predecessor Oklahoma A and M College TERRILL helped establish while in the legislature) made an extensive study of TERRILL's history and published a book named after and including the play. The 1966 winter edition of OLD WEST magazine carried an article Ira TERRILL - Lawbreaker, Madman or Political Scapegoat? by Paul T. NOLAN. This appears to be a romanticized, factually questionable depiction of the events at Guthrie which draws on some of Chapman's research.

Ira N. TERRILL spent the remainder of his life lecturing on prison reform and prospecting for oil and minerals throughout Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas.

During that period he established the town of Terlton, on the Cimarron River, west of present day Tulsa, Oklahoma. He died on October 14, 1921 at the home of a daughter May Agnes (TERRILL) James in Wichita Falls, Texas and is buried in Columbus, Kansas.

Some information, either family history or memories, in the above was obtained from children of Ira N. TERRILL:

Cora Bell (TERRILL) Taylor ( 1886 - 1960 )

Henry George TERRILL (1888 - 1973)

Charles Curtis TERRILL ( 1893 - 1975 )

Ira Nathan was the 7th child of Ira Curtis TERRILL (1820-1883) and Martha Maria BINGHAM (1822-1904) who were married 7 April 1842 at Mt. Vernon, Knox County, Ohio. The children and their years of birth were:

Cordellia TERRILL 1843

Henry Curtis TERRILL 1844

David Bliss TERRILL 1846

Vesta Elvira TERRILL 1847

Ester Elizabeth TERRILL 1849

Phebe TERRILL 1851

Ira Nathan TERRILL 1853

John Horton TERRILL 1855

Daniel Knowles TERRILL 1856

Edna Victoria TERRILL 1857

Hannah TERRILL 1860

It is unknown how many of the children survived into adulthood.

TERRILL Case

A case of importance to the Territory at large has been the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Ira N. TERRILL in the Supreme Court of Kansas. This case involves the question of the right of Oklahoma Territory to imprison its convicts beyond its territorial boundaries. By virtue of an Act of congress, Oklahoma is authorized to enter into a contract with the proper authorities of any other state or territory for the care, custody and maintenance of persons convicted of crime by the courts of this Territory. By virtue of this power, a contract was entered into with the Warden of the State Penitentiary at Lansing, Kansas. There are several grounds alleged, and raised by TERRILL, demanding his release. The most difficult question raised by him is whether the contract with the Warden of the State Penitentiary of Kansas is legal, because of the fact, that the Warden has never been authorized by the proper authorities of Kansas to enter into a contract of this character. Another point raised by him is whether one state or territory may confine its prisoners convicted within its limits beyond its borders.

This case was before the full bench of the Supreme Court of Kansas, July 1902, and was submitted on briefs and oral argument. No decision has, as yet, been handed down by that Court. I am informed that TERRILL intends to sue out a writ of habeas corpus from the Supreme Court of the United States, if he fails in this case.

daughter, Amelia TERREL; a son, Thomas
SPANE; and two granddaughters named ROB-ERSONE. I did not see anything to prove that the granddaughters belong to Amelia. He did not name a deceased mother for the granddaughters, but that does not prove none existed. It is equally possible that they are married daughters of Thomas SPANE.
Whatever kept Thomas SPANE from being named executor died with Frederick SPANE. DFB
