TERRELL QUAKERS BY BELL

Excerpted by Mr. James M. Allen Jr.
jmaxall@worldnet.att.net

"I came across a book, Our Quaker Friends of Ye Olden Times, published back in 1905, that contained a fair amount of material relating to TERRELLS."

Editor's Note: Quakers recorded their vital statistics in the minutes of their monthly meetings and in many cases ignored the public marriage books. Therefore, these events may not be recorded anywhere else. DFB

TERRELL Trails

Photocopy of census that appears to have been taken 2nd June 1870 at Covington, LA, household 26, family 26 lists one Adeline TERRELL as head of a large household as follows.

ARMSTRONG, Monroe 10 m mu b. LA.

ARMSTRONG, Angels 8 m mu b. LA.

ARMSTRONG, Harry 6 m mu b. LA.

Editor's Note: *Question marks were penned in red. If Adeline HOSMER Terrell was not born in MA, this may not be her in spite of one STAPLES & the BAGLEYS in her household, but it appears unlikely. The state was written carefully, and completely with long "ss" which looks like "fs." I have no doubt that someone told the census taker that she was b. in MA. We have no way of determining if she gave the information, or if someone else in the household gave it for her. Without that information, it is impossible to determine the credibility of this entry. I am including the following to shed some light on some of the above census entries as well as to preserve a bit of the customs of the era. DFB

***Mr. J. O. Stamps* wrote, "Elijah TERRELL had a brother (John, I believe is his name). Evidently Lucinda A. TERRELL is his daughter, she married Samuel B. STAPLES in 1848. Here is a poem written by Lucinda A. Staples, nee, Lucinda A. TERRELL to Sarah Delphine D. PENN (my grandmother) prior to her marriage to Col. Wm. David LARKIN 12/25/1849. It seems that brides to be had a 'book,' friends would write 'poetry' in it. The 'book' was in my grandmother's file, when she died Feb. 1906."

"FORGET ME NOT

Forget not – ah! forget not me.

When evening shades descend!

For then my thoughts still turn to thee,

My fondly cherished friend.

As in those days of guileless [guileless] youth

When this was deemed our test of truth.

And now the twilight never falls.

Upon our dreary earth

But to my heart it still recalls,

Those days of hope and mirth

When filled with youth, and winged with glee,

Months flow like hours -- to thee and me.

Your dear Cousin

Lucinda A. Staples. Covington, June 26, 1849."

D. WOOLDRIDGE, M.G. Her middle name appears to be "Arsanne" on this record. Marriage record is signed S. G. STAPLES & A. A. TERRELL. It appears that both could sign their names because their handwriting is different and also each is different from the clerk, K. KIRKLAND, who wrote the record. Witnesses were: Wm. ADELINE'S OBITUARY

TIMES PICAYUNE NEW ORLEANS, LA. SEPT. 2nd, 1902

Mrs. Adeline A. Staples

The Regretted death of a grand old Southern Lady

Mrs. Adeline A. Staples died yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter Mrs. R. S. Case, on Carondelet near Euterpre Street. Although having reached her seventy-third year, Mrs. Staples was remarkably strong and hale, and gave promise of many more years of life, but a sudden and fatal illness overtook her three days ago, and deprived a loving family of it's venerable and devoted member.

Mrs. Staples was one of those sweet-tempered, kind, and charitable ladies whose number is now so rare, who kept intact in this prosaic epoch the commendable traits of past generations, -- the beautiful sentiments of altruism, that impelled to deeds of charity and benevolence not only when family and friends were concerned, but also in regard to deserving subjects of sympathy and help, even when outside of the intimate circle.

Mrs. Staples lived the life of the true Christian, and was esteemed by all who had occasion to enjoy her acquaintance.

She was for many years a resident of Ocean Springs and was related to several of the best families in Miss. and La. She leaves several daughters among whom are Mrs. Capt. June Poitevent and Mrs. R. S. Case. The Funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The remains being taken to Ocean Springs for burial.

TERRELL LAND PATENTS on File at the U.S. Bureau of Land Management for Those States to Which Virginia Terrells Migrated

The following records are in the public domain and were gathered by me as a byproduct of researching Virginia Terrells and their descendants. These are records of persons who purchased or homesteaded U.S. Government lands with direct transfer from the government. The original records (including scanned images of the certificates) are available on line at the web site of the U.S. Bureau of Land Management. Private or state land transactions are in county records, and are not found in this database. Spelling is the same as used in the BLM index. If a different spelling or name is used on the certificate, this is noted in quotes under the name. Because of my particular focus, I have included only those states where Virginia Terrells are known to have migrated during the first half of the 19th century.
