CANADIAN REUNION PLANNED

Hi there Dan,

I was wondering if you would have a list of descendants of Reuben Garrett TERRILL b. 1834 d.1899. In 1872 he married a Marie Antoinette BLAKELY b. 1850 d. 1899. They lived in Deer Lodge County, Montana and raised a large family. One of these children was my grandfather William Reuben TERRILL b.1876 d. 1949.

If people don't want to divulge their names for reasons of privacy I will understand but we are having a family re-union this year in southern Alberta, Canada and I was hoping to be able to contact some relatives for the occasion if I could. Regards, Russell & Connie White, russcon44@shaw.ca

#650 Dr George Terrell Jessup sent a copy of the title page to REMINISCENCES of the EARLY DAYS of FORT WORTH by Capt. J. C. TERRELL, pub. 1906 by Texas Prtg. Co, Ft. Worth. He asked if we have seen this book. I'm sorry to say, I haven't, but if anyone can get us a Xerox copy, I would really appreciate it. DFB

JAMES SWILLEY TERRELL

Submitted by: Nita Welch

Lake Charles American Press, Wednesday, July 11, 1951, p.1, reel #383:

FATHER OF 7 KILLED WHEN HIT BY STUMP

OAKDALE, LA. July 11. James S. TERRELL, 58, of Oakdale, father of seven children, all boys, is dead today from injuries sustained about 12:15pm Tuesday when he was hit by a projecting stump on a passing truck on US 165, two miles north of here. Witnesses said that TERRELL, who worked as a mechanic of J. P. WILLIS, was standing in front of Willis grocery near the highway waiting for the truck to pass so he could cross the road to a car which he was repairing. The projecting stump on the truck, driven by Jimmy ODOM, Oakdale, hit TERRELL, crushing his skull, Allen Parish Sheriff Ralph L. THOMPSON said.

TERRELL was rushed to the Hargrove clinic where he died several minutes later.

Oakdale Policemen Steward STROTHER and Buster WHARTON assisted the sheriff in investigating the accident.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Viola MC DANIEL Terrell; seven sons, James, Olen, Roy, Jesse, Kelly, Earl, and Dewey all of Oakdale; his mother, Mrs. Malissa TERRELL of Glenmora.

Two daughters by a former marriage also survive. Funeral services were to be held at 3pm Wednesday at the West Baptist church at Oakdale with Rev. Frank LAUERENCE, pastor, officiating. Burial was to be in the Oakdale cemetery with the Ardoin funeral home in charge.

(Rapides Parish Conveyence #509299 show two of the sons as having other names: It shows Olen as Nolan and Dewey as Danny. Who knows?)

J. L. TERRELL

Submitted by: Glenda Easter glenda_easter@yahoo.com - Oct 26, 2004

This is to let you all know that my Dad's (Bobby Lee Terrell) brother J. L. TERRELL passed away on Sunday in N. CAROLINA.

He has been in the I.C.U. for a while now. So, please pray for my Dad and the rest of the family as my Dad is taking pretty hard (his brother was 1 year older than him.) He is the one with the children I've never been able to find (2 daughters and a son) I would so love to find them again. I don't have any info. as of yet but will let everyone know as soon as I do.

I don't know what town he lived in but will ask my Dad. Last I heard he hadn't seen the girls in 35-40 years but the son, Gary Wayne Terrell was living in Fla. He is the eldest he has a different mother than the girls. Last I heard they were in the Dallas area but I've tried numerous times to find them but no luck as I'm sure they've married and changed their names. He had given me their birth dates and where they were born at one time but I moved after that and was never able to find the info. that he had sent to me. Thanks everyone.

Love Glenda Terrell Easter

ROBERT FRANK TIRRELL

September 3, 1927 -- April 18, 2003

Robert Frank TIRRELL: With the Lord on April 18, 2003 at age 75.

Born in Denver, Colorado; on 09-03-1927 to Harry Austin TIRRELL, father, and Mary HAMON, mother: Married Beverly Jean MC MAHON on June 14, 1946, and enjoyed 57 years of wedded life. They brought into the world two sons; Donald Dean TIRRELL who married Helen Katherine in Kasilof, Alaska, and Ronald Gene TIRRELL from Lakewood, Colorado, and four grandchildren: Justin Tyler TIRRELL, Jacob Matthew TIRRELL, Amber Marie TIRRELL, and Kaleb Michael TIRRELL, all from Aurora, Colorado.

A veteran of World War II was serving in the U.S. Army with a rank of Corporal. After military service Robert attended Colorado State University and University of Colorado in Fort Collins and Boulder, Colorado. He worked for Stearns-Roger Engineering firm as a Civil and Structural Engineer for 30 years. When he retired from Stearns-Roger, he became a general contractor.

Among his accomplishments, he built five duplexes for rental income. Bob also built his own private residence, and a mountain cabin. He assisted several friends in the construction of their homes. He then retired with his wife Beverly, bought a motor home, and traveled across North America. He flew to Alaska several times to enjoy king salmon and halibut fishing with his son, Donald. He also enjoyed clam digging and flying into remote lakes to fish grayling and rainbow trout in Alaska. Bob enjoyed many sports including deer hunting, pheasant and grouse hunting, golfing, bowling, snow skiing and water-skiing (for which he won several trophies for various events such as jumping, trick skiing, and slalom at several tournaments).

He served as team manager for little league football and baseball and was involved in several Boy Scout events. Bob enjoyed the outdoors immensely and taught his two sons to enjoy it too. Bob took his family to Lake Powell, in Utah, many times for exploration of Indian ruins, water-skiing, and bass fishing. Bob especially loved to fly-fish. Bob enjoyed dancing a great deal (jitterbug, etc.) He had a vast number of friends in both Colorado and Florida. He and his wife, Beverly, purchased a home in Tavares, Florida, after approximately 5 years of travel via motor home. There he became involved in about four different boating clubs and prowled, via boat, the Harris Chain of Lakes in the area. He served as Commodore of the Imperial Boat Club from Imperial Terrace, belonged to Aqua-Knots Club, Triangle Boat Club, and Newcomers Boat Club. He thoroughly enjoyed boating and all things involved with it.

One of the songs performed at Bob's Memorial Service was "My Way." It described Bob's philosophy of life completely. He most certainly did it his way.

STEPHANIE GEORGIA MANTERIS TYRELL

March 20, 1949 -- October 27, 2003

Stephanie Georgia MANTERIS Tyrell, beautiful and beloved wife and mother, passed away on Monday, October 27th, 2003 at Cedar Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles at the age of 54. An accomplished artist, songwriter, poet, and record producer, Stephanie was a Cable Ace award winner, Emmy nominee, and lyricist of over 200 songs and poems. Her song "How Do You Talk To An Angel" reached Number One in Billboard's Hot 100 in 1992, and at the time was the most successful song ever written for a television series. Some notable artists who have recorded Stephanie Tyrell lyrics include Ray Charles, Diana Ross and James Ingram. Her lyric of "Remember The Dream", the theme of Black Entertainment Television, was chosen by Coretta Scott King to be sung at the grave of Dr. Martin Luther King on the 25th anniversary of his death in 1993. Her songs and productions have been featured in such notable films as "Father of the Bride", "The Client," "Santa Claus II", "Mystic Pizza", "The Brady Bunch" and the upcoming Jack Nicholson film "Something's Gotta Give"

Her incredible beauty, talent and grace were surpassed only by her remarkable courage and spirit. Stephanie made an indelible impression and was beloved by everyone she met. During her eighteen-month battle with cancer she never once lost her sense of humor and continued to be the guiding force of the family, constantly contributing to the well being of her children and producing two successful albums for her husband Steve from her hospital bed. She fought a most gallant fight against a terrible disease and kept her spirit, humor, grace and dignity intact until the very end. She will always be remembered for her overwhelming beauty, as it emanated from every aspect of her being.

Stephanie is preceded in death by her parents, Tasha and Nick MANTERIS, and mother-in-law Christine Bilao Orlando. She is survived by her husband of 26 years, Steve Bilao TYRELL; children Christina, Lauryn, and Nick TYRELL; sister Connie Christopher; brothers and sisters-in-law Michael and Linda MANTERIS, and Greg and Renea MANTERIS; brothers Dean and Chris MANTERIS; sister-in-law and brother-in-law Roz and Alan Pactor, along with numerous aunts, nieces, nephews and friends. Pallbearers are Vincent KICKERILLO, Charles KIRKPATRICK, Vincent MANDOLA, Greg MANTERIS, Michael MANTERIS, Nick MANTERIS, Alan PACTOR, and Chris PROLER. Honorary pallbearers are Burt Bacharach, Catherine Campise, John Doumanian, Bob Fead, Barbara Hill, Bar- ry Mann, Bob Mann, Nancy Meyers, Jerry Pizzitola, Cheryl Saban, Charles Shyer, and Cynthia Weil.

Friends are invited to visitation with the family from 6 until 9 o'clock in the evening with a Trisagion prayer service at 7 o'clock on Friday, October 31st, 2003 in the Chapel of Geo. H. Lewis & Sons, 1010 Bering Dr. The funeral service will be held on Saturday, November 1st, 2003, at 11:30 in the morning at Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral, 3511 Yoakum Blvd. Interment will follow in Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery.

WELLINGTON TERREL

Submitted by #298 Mrs. Maxine Connell
Page submitted is identified only as Vol. III—19, there was no publication name on the copy. DFB

This gentleman was born in Ozark township, Lawrence County on the 23 day of September, 1846. He is the son of Andrew H. TERREL and Tabitha LILES Terrel, his wife. On the parental (sic, paternal) side, he is of Ohio ancestry. His grandfather, John TERREL was a native of that state and lived there until 1832, when he moved to Missouri. After a few years in this state, he moved further west and settled in Kansas, where he passed the remainder of his life. He died there during the eighties.

His son, Andrew H., father of the subject of this sketch, was also born in Ohio, and came to Lawrence County at an early date, was in fact, one of the pioneers of this county. When the Civil War broke out, Andrew H. TERREL enlisted in the Union Army, and did a man's part for the side which he believed to be in the right. After the war, he returned to his Lawrence County farm and followed the occupation of a farmer during life. He was successful in that line and at the time of his death, in 1894, he was the owner of 300 acres of good land. He died at the age of seventy-four years. His wife survived him several years and died at the age of eighty-eight. This couple was the parents of four children: Wellington, of whom we write; Margaret, George, & Wetherston. The parents were members of the Baptist church. Mr. W. TERREL grew up on his father's farm, doing his part of the farm work during the summers and attending the district school during the winters. Mr. Wellington TERREL married in 1869 to Harriet HOLLINGSWORTH, daughter of James HOLLINGSWORTH. By this marriage, he was the father of six children: Elsworth, Ellwood, Alma, Annie, Charles, & Katie. Elsworth married Ada WEST and was the parent of three children: Aword, Wilma, & Austin. Elsworth died September 5, 1913.

Robert Adams TERRELL and Emily LOVE

I am sending as an attachment the family record taken from the bible of Robert Adams TERRELL and Emily LOVE.

The record was transcribed by my aunt, Nina Celeste BEDINGER Askew, great granddaughter of Robert Adams TERRELL. I had the opportunity to examine the bible in her home in the 1970's. Later, she made the transcription and passed a copy along to me. After her death, the bible presumably was passed on to her son or daughter. As indicated by the end notes, part of the record was recorded by family members at the 1913 TERRELL family reunion in Royse, Texas. I have preceded the family record by some biographical information on Robert, his father, James TERRELL and Emily LOVE. It is my hope that you will include this in a future issue of Terrell Trails.

Sincerely, M. S. Bedinger

Robert Adams TERRELL was born to James TERRELL and Penelope Lynch ADAMS on February 22, 1820 in Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co. TN. James TERRELL had served as a Captain in the Mounted Gunmen, Tennessee Volunteers between 1812 and 1815. In 1820 James TERRELL moved his family to Kentucky and then to Boonesville, MO where he died in 1834. Robert's mother took him to Iberville Parish, LA where he received schooling to be a land surveyor. He was appointed Surveyor-General of Louisiana. But by 1838 was following his adventuresome brothers, Christopher (Kit) and George Whitfield TERRELL to the Republic of Texas. Robert served as a secret agent to the Republic of Texas, fought in the Mexican-American War, was in the Santa Fe expedition and fought in the Civil War with the Confederacy in the 12th Texas Cavalry under William H. PARSONS. He married Emily LOVE (1926-1867) daughter of Judge John G. LOVE and Rebecca AXUM, in San Augustine Co., TX on March 26, 1846. They made their home in what is now Kaufman Co., TX where he lived the remainder of his life. The town of Terrell, Kaufman Co., TX was named for him in 1873. "After Emily's death, Robert married Mrs. Nancy Amelia LOVE Ter- rell, widow of Johnathon W. TERRELL and daughter of William LOVE and Nancy KIRK." Johnathon W. Terrell was a distant relative of Robert Adams Terrell." Robert Adams TERRELL died March 8, 1881 and is buried at Oakland Cemetery in TERRELL, which located on land he owned. The following is the transcription from the bible:

TRANSCRIPT of John D. Terrell, Sr.'s Last Will

Courtesy of the Alabama Department of Archives & History

"The State of Alabama Marion County It was the pleasure of the Almighty to bring me into existence, and His goodness- (after a life of many years, Tossed, on all the cross currents – shoals – and troubles of life) has given me some property – I must soon lay down life in that place where all mortals sleep and to do, on the eve of life, what a father should, justice to his wife and children, I make this- before God, as my last will and testament.

I owe but little in this world, when that is paid, It is my wish, that my wife Lydia B. Terrell, Have and enjoy, in her own right, so long as she lives, or remains a widow, the quarter section on which I now live, or in lieu thereof, three hundred and twenty acres of land, where she may choose, among all our Red River lands, and in this event, removed to it, and it improved, to her satisfaction at the expense of my estate, This land, with all the rest of my personal property, I give to her, during her natural life or widowhood.

At her death or marriage, all my property real and personal, shall be equally divided among my children as here directed, That is, according to the honest Judgment, of my three sons, Edward G. Terrell, James Terrell and John D. Terrell, Jr. or a majority of them, that shall rule, my daughter Elizabeth Smith ⁱ will have nothing but five dollars, and whereas my son William H. Terrell is the twin brother of the said Eliza, I do here in her case, associate the said William with his brothers aforesaid ultimately to determine Eliza's case. She is lazy and extravagant. She is careless of her children. Now if she reclaims to the fair duty of a mother, then I put it in the judgment and discretion of my said four sons to apportion to her, or her posterity, at their discretion, an equal share with my other children, but she must reclaim and be an industrious frugal woman before she can have any part of my property but five dollars. That part of my estate, falling to Alpha, Bochim, Ann and Sarah, and to Eliza if any, is here vested to their use during life, at their death, or choice before death, It shall go to the children of their bodies. On the above principle, I give to Sarah, the largest negroe mulatto girl at Garlands ⁱⁱ had of Bluford ⁱⁱⁱ should her name I forget. This is my cool and deliberate act, tis my solemn last will and testament, so I declare and pronounce it. All men Know my hand write, this document shows if I am in sound mind. I ask all legal authorities to accept and order it to record, with as high authenticity as if proven by forty men.

Witness my hand and Seal on the 14th day of March 1841.

J. D. Terrell (seal)

My will, my last will and testament, 14th March 1841

J. D. Terrell

7th January 1842.

I appoint Edward G. Terrell,
James Terrell and John D. Terrell Jr. my Executors, to act without Security Witness my hand & seal and year as above.

J. D. Terrell

My Will

My last will

14th March 1841

J. D. Terrell"

¹ She was born in Georgia in 1800, and later married a SMITH. She and her husband lived in Mississippi, before returning home with her three daughters.

¹ The reference here is to John's eldest son, Edward Garland TERRELL. Apparently, slave property belonging to John were loaned out to his son, Edward.

¹ John should have rather written here, "had of Bradford," for according to legal deeds of conveyance written on December 6, 1839, John had purchased several Negroe slaves from a certain Jacob T. BRADFORD of Talladega County, Ala., two of whom were described as mulatto females.

Dan,

Thanks for the reminder, but I'm not going to renew my membership. I'll be 91 in June, so I am cutting back on some of my memberships. Your TERRELL SOCIETY is one of the best!

I'm still looking for my great grandmother, Lucina TERREL who m. Peter MILLS, my great grandfather. She's buried in Franklin Co. OH. She d.
1845. Martha Ryan

Mr. Terrill,

Sorry to keep pestering you! I am really desperate to find my grandmother Bettie TERRELL, as you already know.

I have put together this about my grandmother.
Maybe if you have a lot of TERRELL information,
it will help you.

Name: Bettie Viola TERRELL

Father's name: Henry TERRELL

Mothers name/nickname: Babe TERRELL

County of Residence & State: Marion County &
Fayette County, Alabama (Winfield - Guin Area)

Date of Birth: Approximate years 1865 - 1870

Date of Death: After December 25, 1897 & Before September 1898

Husbands name: William Henry Harrison "Billy Pap" MELTON

Children:

1. Mollie MELTON (listed as Mary on 1900 census of Marion Co, AL) married R. Claude GANN

2. Viola MELTON - born 1885

3. Henry Wiley MELTON - born 1888 never married

4. Emma Mattie MELTON - born 1892 married John Cornelius FRANKS
5. Carl Delmar MELTON - born 1893 my dad, married 1st Rosa Belle JONES and 2nd. Hazel SMITH, my mom
6. John D. Henry Terrell MELTON - born DECEMBER 25, 1897 married Flora SMITH

In the 1880 census of Marion Co, AL John D. MELTON, the last child born to Bettie and William was living with his grandparents John William and Elizabeth FLURRY MELTON.

She died sometime after he was born in Dec. 1897, but before September 1898, because that is when William Henry MELTON remarried to Sallie CONNER.

Can you at least point me in the right direction for more information?

I have looked at the library and searched and can't seem to find anything. It's like she never existed. I am thinking Bettie was probably a nickname and maybe her name could have been something with Elizabeth in it, like Mary Elizabeth Viola TERRELL? I don't know where else or what else to look.

I thought she might have been or lived in Mississippi since it's not that far from Winfield and Guin. Then I thought too she would be from the John Dabney TERRELL family since they only lived at Pikeville and the names are so familiar.

Do you know anyone who might could help me if you don't have the information?

I would very much appreciate it. More than you would know. I would really like to find out where she is buried. Thinking at the old Pikeville - Terrell cemetery between Guin and Hamilton, AL but I found no marker. Do you know if there is a list of names anywhere for that cemetery of people who are buried there?

Sincerely, Karen MELTON Manasco Winfield, AL kmanasco40@yahoo.com

Karen,

I cannot find an exact match for your Bettie Viola TERRELL, but I will give you my best estimate. There was a prominent family living in Marion Co, Ala., and this was the family of John Dabney TERRELL Jr. (b. 1804) who was probate judge for the county for many, many years. One of his sons was Henry Clay TERRELL (b. 10 May 1840 Marion Co Ala.; d. 25 Jan 1873 Pikeville Marion Co Ala.) whose wife was "L.J. ___" (b. 1846 in Ala., no other data).

They were apparently married for only about 6-7 years before he died. I find them together only in the 1870 census (Ala., Marion Co, Pikeville, p. 75). They are shown as having only two children: Mary TERRELL (b. 1867 Ala.) and Ann D. TERRELL (b. 1869). I cannot find the wife or children after the 1870 census. I think this is your match because the only TERRELLs living in Marion Co during the 1870s were the relatives of John Dabney TERRELL Jr. and his former slaves. We must also consider that one of Bettie's children is named John D. Henry TERRELL MELTON, which probably expands to John Dabney Henry Terrell MELTON. I believe you will find answers to your questions in the county records of Marion Co, Ala. - especially if you can find a will or probate for Henry Clay TERRELL.

There is a listing of the TERRELLs buried at the TERRELL Cemetery near Pikesville in "TERRELL Trails" (Fall 1986, Vol. III, No. 3, p. 196). The cemetery is located 6 mi. north of Guin on US-78, approx. 200 yards from US-78 on the south side of a gravel road just south of Pikesville Country Club Road. There is also a Pikesville Cem. located on the opposite side of the road from the TERRELL Cem.

I would like to know if you make the connection because I would like to expand my own knowledge as well.

Don C. Terrill

Editor's Note: Trails, p. 196 contains listing for only one MELTON; Kenneth G. May 12, 1919—July 6, 1936. There is no MELTON listed in the Pikeville Cemetery list. DFB

I am going to apply to the Sons of the American Revolution and I have found out that Edmund TERRILL (1740-1784) is an American Patriot. I've found some online info about his ancestors, but wanted to check with you to see if you had accurate research on him and his forefathers. Any information would be appreciated. Thanks alot! Jer-ry Halstead HENCH1@aol.com

I found Edmund referenced in D.A.R. applications 39637, 39638, 76552, and 94394. Revolutionary War records at the National Archives show that Edmond enlisted as a Private in WASHINGTON's Army on 27 Jan 1777 for 3 yrs. He served in Capt. John GILLISON's Co, 10th Va. Regt. (later 6th Va. Regt.) from Jun 1777 to Nov 1778 and Capt. John STEED's Co, 2d Va. Bde. from Dec 1779 to about Mar 1780. He was promoted to Sergeant about Jul 1777, wherein his pay went from 6 and 2/3 dollars a month to 8 dollars a month. In Sep 1778 his pay went to 10 dollars a month. Muster rolls show him at the following places: Valley Forge (Mar-May 1778), White Plains (Jul-Aug 1778), Camp Robinson's Farm (Sep 1778), Camp Middlebrook (Oct 1778 - Apr 1779), Camp Smith Clove (May-Jun 1779), Camp Ramepan (Jul-Sep 1779), and Camp Haverstraw (Oct 1779). Shown also as Edmond TERRILL, Edmond TERREL, Edmund TERREL, Edmond TERRALL, Edmund TERRELL and Edmund TERRILL.

The file shows also that in Apr-May 1915 Mrs. B. Sappington of Walter, Okla., wrote and asked for data on Edward TERRILL. In Jun-Jul 1915 Mrs. Walter Thomas of Blakely, Ga., wrote and asked for data on Edmund Terrell. [This clan uses the spelling TERRILL.]

A note: During this time the 10th Va. Regt. Was commanded by Col. Edward STEVENS, later by Maj. Samuel HAWES, later by Col. John GREEN. The 6th Va. Regt. was commanded by Col. William RUSSELL, later by Col. John GREEN. The 2d Va. Bde. was commanded by Col. FEBIGER.

In addition, Dicken says that Edmund TERRILL was a captain in the Culpeper militia 1779-1780).

I have Edmund's ancestry back to England, if you want it. Just furnish me a postal address.

My information indicates that Margaret "Peggy" WILLIS was the daughter of Col. John WILLIS (1709-1762) and Elizabeth PLUNKETT. John Willis was the son of William WILLIS (d. 1717) and Sarah ___.
Don C. TERRILL

The former Gov. of Arkansas Thomas Jefferson TERRAL is from my bunch of Terral's. Does anyone know which bunch his wife belonged to? Eu- la TERRELL b. 07-24-1898 d.12-30-1987. Did he marry a cousin? Beverly Casper, WY

I presume you mean Thomas Jefferson TERRAL (b. 1879 La.; d. 1846 Ark.). He married Eula O. TERRAL (b. 1891 Ark.; d. 1987 Ark.). They shared common great-grandparents: Edward Young TERRAL (1765-1833) and Artalissa STEPHENS (1768-1811).

Don C. Terrill

Hi Don,

Annie O. TERRELL, her dad Leroy, his Samuel L., William A., Jonathan, then William.

I was wondering if I could get some information on Edward Young TERRAL's line. I don't have any on him. I will be glad to share my line with you. I have read several postings on Terrals in Ark. but I had not connected them to my TERRELL's till today. Thank you, Mitzi Franks franks@myweb.net
Mitzi,

Neither I nor any other researcher has successfully been able to take this line any further back than William TERRAL who appears from nowhere into S.C. in 1737, settling Marlboro County, S.C. I speculate he might be a transplanted New Jersey or New England Terral, but I don't have a particle of evidence to prove it.

William A. TERRELL (b. 3/18/1844 in Henrico County, VA - d. Aft. 1918 in Chattanooga, TN) enlisted as a Private with Lt. CLAPTON in the Confederate Army on August 26, 1862, in Stevensberg,(Culpepper County) Virginia. He was assigned to Company F, 3rd Regiment Virginia Cavalry. He served under Captain Jones R. CHRIS-TIAN, Colonel T H OWENS, and General J E B

STUART. He fought in the battles of Fredricksburg, Chancellorville, Spotsylvania Court House and all battles in which Stuarts Cavalry was engaged until he was captured at Spotsylvania. He was captured after being hit in the temple of his head with a minnie ball and suffering a sabre cut on his head on May 8, 1864, at Spotsylvania. He was first sent to the Lincoln Hospital in Washington DC on May 12, 1864, and then transferred to the 1st Division USA General Hospital at Alexandria, Virginia on May 16, 1864, where he was diagnosed with a contusion on his right temple. The records of that admission list him being 20 years old. He was transferred as a Prisoner of War to Elmira, New York on July 23, 1864. He was received at Elmira, NY on July 25, 1864 from the Old Capital Prison in Washington DC where he had been since July 11, 1864. He was transferred for Exchange on March 10, 1865, as the War came to a close. He was paroled and never made to take the oath of allegiance to the United States of America. On November 27, 1917 when he applied for his military pension, his wife had already died and his widowed daughter who was 38 years old and her two children ages 9 and 11 (Frances and Jim) lived with him in Chattanooga. His daughter had been supporting him for the past five years when he applied for his pension. He had moved to Chattanooga in 1887.

William A. TERRELL, age 35, is found in Spencer, Powhatan Co., VA in the 1880 census living with his wife Mary J. TERRELL, age 40, on a farm. Both his mother and father and her mother and father were born in Virginia. She was a BRACKETT before she married TERRELL as her son J(ames) Wilson BRACKETT, age 24, and his wife Mary A(ugusta WATKINS) Brackett, age 22, are living with them on the farm.

While I have not yet been able to connect this TERRELL with the larger Virginia TERRELL clans descended from Richmond TERRELL and Timothy TERRILL, here are my views on his ancestry.

Researcher Len TERRELL of Loganville, Ga., says that William's son Herbert is Herbert Alexander TERRELL (1872-1930). I deduce that William's full name is William Alexander TER-RELL.

William is found in the Powhatan Co, Va., census of 1870 (p. 462). He is too young to be listed at head-of-household in the 1860 census; however, the best fit from that census is William TER-RELL (age 16), son of C. M. TERRELL (age 40, female) in Richmond, Henrico Co, Va. (p.881). C.
M. TERRELL is actually (Mrs.) Clarissa M.
TERRELL, wife (and widow) of Alexander M.
TERRELL (age 37, Va.)(1850 Va., Henrico Co, p.
540). Clarissa is probably the former Clarissa DICKERSON (see "TERRELL Trails," Fall 1991, p. 481). I have not been able to determine the ancestry of Alexander M. TERRELL.

Don C. Terrill

I am Donald Wayne TERRILL Jr Son of Donald Wayne TERRILL Sr (Milton FL) Santa Rosa Co son of James Elliott TERRILL (Milton FL) Santa Rosa Co son of James Monroe TERRILL born 1
Nov 1859 in KY or TN son of James Harrison
TERRILL (Todd Co KY)

Do you have any information that would be helpful to me?

Donnie dterrill.osmonics@attglobal.net

Donnie, Unfortunately, I cannot determine the parents of James Harrison TERRILL of Todd Co, Ky. I suspect that his father was named Edmund based on (a) the fact that he named one of his sons Edmund and (b) a reason stated below.

I feel quite certain that James Harrison TER-RILL is descended from Timothy TERRILL who was born in 1656 on Bread Street, All Hallows, London, England, and immigrated to New Kent Co, Va., around 1690. His son Robert TERRILL (1697-1786) moved to Orange Co, Va., and established a TERRILL clan, some of which is still there to day. The early 19th century migration pattern for the majority of this clan was from Virginia to Kentucky to Missouri. This clan is distinguished from the largest southern Terrell clan (descendants of Richmond Terrell [b. 1624]) by the spelling
"TERRILL" rather than "Terrell."

One of Robert's children was Edmund TERRILL (1739-1784), and this name is found frequently among Edmund's descendants and sometimes among the descendants of Edmund's brothers. In fact, I have 20 Edmund (or Edmond) TERRILLS among the 18th and 19th century clan. Unfortunately, none of them are likely candidates as the father of your James Harrison TERRILL and his brother John TERRILL.

Here is my raw data on James Harrison TER-RILL. See if this matches your information. James [b. Va.] is found in the 1850 census, Ky., Todd Co, p. 235 with his wife Elizabeth. Immediately next to James is John TERRILL and wife Ann. John is two years younger than James. James is in 1860 census (J.P. TERRILL), Ky., Todd Co, pp. 760-761. Everyone is identified only with first initials, which makes a match-up difficult. John is no longer a neighbor.

In 1870 census, Ky., Todd Co, p. 469, James is apparently dead, and Elizabeth is the head of the household. Two sons are listed John N. TER-RELL (age 12, b. 1858) and James TERRELL (age 19, b. 1851).

In 1880 census, Ky., Todd Co, p. 267, Elizabeth is still listed as head of household. Two sons are listed as James H. TERRIL (age 22, b. 1858) and John M. TERRIL (age 20, b. 1860). One of these is "James Monroe TERRILL".

As you can see, census data can be a mess. The 1870/1880 census suggests that the correct name was John Monroe TERRILL, but you may have a more accurate source (family Bible, for example).

I wish I could give you solid ancestry data, but there are unknown branches of the early Timothy

Terrell Trails

TERRILL clan. I feel about 99% certain that your branch is part of that clan, but I cannot make a fit. Don C. TERRILL (with the TERRILL Society of America)

Thank you so much for your time. If Elizabeth was Elizabeth TANDY then there is a fit. Thanks again! Donnie

So glad to hear from you. Have been wondering who Absolom was and if I would ever find out who he is/was

Have been carrying his census around with me for years in my Terrell notebook.

I descend from Sarah TERRELL Terrell Lowe. Sarah m. her cousin Samuel TERRELL. at age 16; he was 21. Do not know what happened to Samuel. She then married Thomas Jefferson LOWE a Union Soldier. They lived in Coosa Co Al (Equality)

Richmond TERRELL was living close to George W. TERRELL. It is "Possible" Richmond was kin to George W.?

Have been trying to find kin to Absolom also

Thanks for e-mail

Do you have Amanzar TIRRELL in your database? He and his family lived in Tahoka, Lynn Co. TX in the late 1800s to early 1900s. He may be buried in the Tahoka Cemetery. His wife, name unknown, is buried at Chamberlain Cemetery, Kingsville, Kleberg Co. TX. Would appreciate your checking your database. Thanks. B Lucas

A name like that would be hard to forget. It is not in my database. My most recent Texas census (so far) is 1880. No likely name found there. A spelling of "Tirrell" is either a New Englander or a recent English immigrant. In any case my area of research is Southern (Virginia roots) Terrells (etc.). Don

Re: John TERRELL of Hall Co, Ga., 1830
I found your query in the Fall 2002 edition of "Terrell Trails" (p. 1591). It is my opinion that this person is John D. TERRELL (b. 1806 Ga.; d. 1860-1870 Banks Co, Ga.) who married Lucinda DODD (b. 1810 Ga.; d. after 1880 Banks Co, Ga.) on 24 Feb 1835 in Hall Co, Ga.

Subj: James A. TERREL

I found your query in the Fall 2002 edition of "Terrell Trails" (p. 1591). While I don't have James' ancestry, I discovered him while I was going through Mexican War pension files ("Old War Pension File") at the National Archives. I know only that James' parents were William TERREL (b. Conn.) and Ester SMITH (b. 1802, Conn.) If you will furnish your postal address, I can mail you a summary sheet of the information I found in his pension file.

I believe also that I still have a (undated) clipping of a newspaper article about him that appeared about 1900 and includes a photograph of old James in his U.S. Army uniform of the Mexican War period. By the way, according to his pension application he got diarrhea in the Army in 1847 and suffered with it for 59 years until he died in 1906. Don C. Terrill Dan: Here is a query I received from England. I couldn't do much for him. Perhaps you'd like to use it as a query. His letter was handwritten, but I have transcribed it. Since he also enclosed two charts, I am sending you the paper copies by U.S. Mail.

Dear Mr. Terrill,

I hope you will forgive my presumption in writing to you, but your name has been given me by Arthur TYRRELL, Researcher Coordinator of the TYRRELL F.H.S.

I am trying to trace my mother's family roots in the U.S.A. I enclose a small section of family tree.

My great-great-grandfather John Sillie TYRRELL was born in the U.S.A. according to his son's marriage record certificate, but apart from the fact that his wife's name was Letitia SENIOR (same source) I know nothing more of him.

His son, Joseph Daniel TYRRELL, was born in Canada but trained at Cleveland Homeopathic Medical College, graduating in 1880. His first marriage was to a lady called MAC DONALD in about 1880. They had two children, William and Maisie. William was born on 6 June 1882 at Port Rowan, Ontario, according to records at the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ontario, but was not registered in Ontario. I do not know when or where Maisie was born, but I think it was in about 1886, nor do I know when their mother died. I think it possible that the TYRRELL-Macdonald marriage and the births of William and Maisie may have taken place in, or near, Cleveland, Ohio, because Joseph Daniel TYRRELL apparently practiced in Ohio until 1887 when he moved to Toronto. Perhaps the death of his first wife (which occurred before 1891) prompted the move; and perhaps he concealed the fact that his son was born in the U.S.A. so that he could qualify for a commission in the Canadian Armed Forces.

I enclose details of the family and notes on Joseph Daniel TYRRELL.

I wondered if you had any records or, or could suggest where I might find records of:

1. John Sillie TYRRELL and Letitia SENIOR.
 2. The marriage of Joseph Daniel TYRRELL and Miss MAC DONALD.
 3. The births of William and Maisie TYRRELL (note that William did not assume the record name "Grant" until after his father's second marriage in 1891).
 4. The death of Mrs. TYRRELL (née Macdonald).
- I will, of course, refund any expenses etc., quite apart from being most grateful for a reply.
- Yours sincerely, Graham Purves

Dear Mr. Purves,

I received your 15 October letter regarding the search for the ancestors of John Sillie TYRRELL. My own area of concentration is Southern Terrells (etc.). I have no helpful information there. I have also several published and unpublished genealogies of other North American Terrell clans, but they all relate to Terrells who arrived in the 18th century and earlier. This even includes a book on the Michigan Terrills; however, they were, in fact, descended from Roger Terrill a 17th century immigrant to Connecticut.

I have self-researched census record transcripts on Terrells found in U.S. census records from 1790 thru 1880 (now working on 1900), but these include only Southern Terrells.

I do have at my home a transcript of the entire U.S. Census of 1880 (50 million persons) on 55 CDs, so I searched Ohio for Joseph Daniel TYRRELL. I wanted to see if he identified his father as U.S.-born. I could not find any likely persons. I then searched the entire United States with no better luck.

Every census misses some persons. Over the years they became more and more thorough. 1880 was pretty good, but not perfect. Nevertheless, Joseph cannot be found.

Birth and death records are state rather than federal records; however, Ohio did not begin recording births until 1908 and deaths until 1937. Marriage records are earlier, but are maintained by the individual counties. The Ohio Genealogical Society may know of a privately-prepared index of marriage records (to identify the county). Their address is 713 S. Main St., Mansfield, OH 44907-1644.

I have examined the index for back issues of our "Terrell Trails" newsletter, but could not find a match. However, I am sending a transcript of your letter to Mr. Dan Brinson, our newsletter editor. He has an on-line copy of the index, and his edition includes the most recent issues. Perhaps he can find a match which would add more information. I may also run a query to a future edition to see if anyone has data.

I'm sorry that I could not add anything to your search.

Sincerely, Don C. Terrill

THERRELL GRAVE

I just returned from a trip to SC and found this person's grave, took a picture and now can't seem to fit it in my data; does anyone know whose son this is, or grandson:

David C.THERRELL born 1855, died 1933, and James Henry THERRELL 1915 -, both buried at Hopewell Bapt.Cemetery, Lancaster Co, SC;

thanks for your help, Eleonore Crespo

Hi I've been looking for my Great Grand Dad John I. TERRELL born 24 July 1824 we believe in licking Co. Ohio anything we would to get on his parents. #536 Merlene M. Hall 241 North 850 West; Vernal UT 84078-3843-dmhall @easilink.com

Mr. Terrill, I happened to come across the Terrell genealogy site for the first time and noticed your name associated with several entries. I wonder if you might have any information concerning Robert TERRELL and his wife Elizabeth who lived in Greene Co., Indiana. Robert was born around 1819 and died on May 21, 1863 at Vicksburg, MS. Elizabeth is buried in the Owensburg, IN Cemetery. Their three children were George, Leonard and Elizabeth Caroline.

I don't have any information prior to Robert other than the fact that he was born in Kentucky. I'm fortunate to have the Civil War letters that belonged to Robert and George which they sent back to Elizabeth. Any information you could provide me with would be greatly appreciated. (gggrandson of Robert) S. Max Terrell 303 S. Gabbert St.; Monticello, AR 71655-4927 mterrell@ccc-cable.net

Max, I checked my extensive database but could not find a match. I also could not find Robert or his family in the 1850 or 1860 census of Indiana. I found Leonard in the 1880 census of Owensburgh, Greene Co, Ind. (p. 172D). In that census, Leonard says that his mother was born in Kentucky, but he does not know the birthplace of his father. Nearby (p. 171A) there is a George TERRELL (m. Louisa). If this is Leonard's brother, he says that the father was born in Kentucky. In his household is his mother Elizabeth.

The Kentucky Terrells come from two clans:

a. The descendants of Richmond TERRELL (New Kent Co, Va.) whose descendants went all over the place. They all (except my branch) seem to use the spelling "TERRELL."

b. The descendants of Timothy TERRILL whose immediate descendants settled in Orange Co, Va., and spread from there primarily to Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri. They all seem to use the spelling "TERRILL."

I checked to see if I had any Robert TERRILLS who are born and then disappear from the genealogical map. I came up only with Robert TERRILL, b. 1 Apr 1815 at Paint Lick, Garrard Co, Ky.; son of John Terrill and Sarah HENDERSON. Nothing further is known about him.

On the "TERRELL" side (descendants of Richmond Terrell), there were no equivalent "lost" Robert Terrells.

I'm sorry that I cannot offer more help. Robert and Elizabeth seem to have successfully dodged the census taker. Perhaps the wills, probate (orphans court), and deed records of Greene Co, Ind., may contain some gems. Don C. Terrill

I would like to hear from anyone who has information on the TERRELLs of Spotsylvania Co. Virginia. I am particularly searching for the family of Julian and John TERRELL. Julian was married to Sarah Jane KING of Orange County. Family history also states that this TERRELL group is related to the DUVALS of Spotsylvania County. Family lived within a 5 mile radius of the Spotsylvania Court House. Jim Crews

Jim, I just found on www.familysearch.org a Julian TERRELL listed on the 1880 Census in Livingston, Spotsylvania, VA. His race is listed a mulatto. He was 17 years of age on census so birth was abt 1863. Head of household was his grandfather John TERRELL.

A TERRELL Cousin Paul Anderson

Hi Paul;

Thank you for the reply. According to history, the Julian I am seeking info on may have been 1/8 Indian or Black.

He married a dark complexion Indian woman named Sarah Jane King who may have had some black blood.

The date seems to be good. Do you have any details on the grandfather, John TERRELL. I was told, that anyone who had any trace of "colored" blood in those days, was listed as mulatto, no matter if it was Indian or Black.

The first child of my Julian was born in 1883; William Hutson TERRELL. The 4th child, Alfred J. TERRELL was my grandfather. Julian had 13 children. He became the owner of a large farm which he worked until he died.

Any details you may have would be appreciated.

ⁱ She was born in Georgia in 1800, and later married a Smith. She and her husband lived in Mississippi, before returning home with her three daughters.

ⁱⁱ The reference here is to John's eldest son, Edward Garland Terrell. Apparently, slave property belonging to John were loaned out to his son, Edward.

ⁱⁱⁱ John should have rather written here, "had of Bradford," for according to legal deeds of conveyance written on December 6, 1839, John had purchased several Negroe slaves from a certain Jacob T. Bradford of Talladega County, Ala., two of whom were described as mulatto females.
