FIRST ELECTRONIC EDITION

Due to failing health I cannot print and mail Terrell Trails to an active membership.

In addition to the aorta problem that I have since 2005, I suffered paralysis from the waist down. I was hospitalized a month before being released with a walker and a wheel chair.

By the grace of GOD, I have recovered to the point that I have not had to use a walker for a month or more. I have not had to use a cane in several weeks, but I never know when I'll be hit with a dizzy spell or some other malady.

This entire volume is being prepared in the fall. I hope to be able to post it to the web site where anyone can download it and print a copy if they so desire.

As long as my health permits, I will provide hard copies for anyone who does not have web access at the rate of $20.00 plus $10.00 S & H.

Generation No. 1

1. William<sup>2</sup> TERRELL (RICHMOND<sup>1</sup>). He married Susanah WATERS.

Child of William TERRELL and Susannah WATERS is:

2. i. Anne<sup>3</sup> TERRELL, d. 1734.

2. Anne<sup>3</sup> TERRELL (WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, RICHMOND<sup>1</sup>)<sup>1</sup> died 1734. She married David LEWIS<sup>1</sup> about 1717, son of John LEWIS. David LEWIS was born 1685, Hanover County, Virginia; died 1779, Albemarle County, Virginia. He moved as a young man to Albemarle County where he established a plantation not far from present-day Charlottesville.

According to the Lewis Genealogy, although it does not say on what authority, "he was a very large man with light hair and blue eyes, of strict integrity, benevolent character, and an exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church." In his old age he often taught school without pay.

There are three stories about David Lewis, none of which have been confirmed, that are two good to pass up. The first is that he went bald early and wore a wig, which he hung on the bedpost at night. But he was subject to frequent nightmares and one night he awoke in the middle of one, thrashing about as he tried to fight off the phantom fiend of his imagination. In the course of his delusion he dislodged the wig, which landed on him. "I have you at last!" he screamed, as he trotted it. The next morning, when he woke up and saw his wig in tatters, he said, "There is fifteen shillings gone!"

In addition to planting, he also ran a mercantile business and one day heard that a ship on which there was a cargo in which he had an interest had foundered. he set off to Norfolk to find out exactly what happened and en route stopped at a house to get some dinner and his horse fed (a common custom in the thinly settled southern colonies). It turned out that he was an old acquaintance of the owner, who insisted that he spend the night, which he reluctantly agreed to. That night a mulatto boy showed him to his room, but took the candle and closed and locked the door behind him. He called for the slave boy to give him the candle, but he refused to open the door, saying "There's a mug under the bed." Lewis checked and, sure enough, he could feel a dead man under the bed. Through a crack in the wall, he could see his host digging what appeared to be a grave. He mused up the bed and waited beside the door for a long time. Finally, the host unlocked it, walked quietly into the room, raised an ax, and plunged it into the bed, where he presumed his guest was sleeping. Lewis fled down the stairs and out of the house and reported the attempted murder to the authorities. The host confessed to having murdered seven other men besides the corpse under the bed.

Finally, having outlived three wives, Lewis was, at the age of ninety-four was about to take a fourth, when, on a hot summer day, he chopped down a tree that had a hawk's nest in it, and then drank a deep drink of cold water. He had a seizure and died.

Captain William TWITTY was born 13 JUL 1761, South Carolina; died 2 FEB 1816, Twitty's Ford, North Carolina. He lived there the rest of his life, farming his land. He served in the American Revolution as a captain, fighting gallantly in the defense of Graham's Fort and at the battle of King's Mountain. He is mentioned in King's Mountain and Its Heroes, by Lyman C. Draper, pp. 145, 146, and 259.

Captain William TWITTY was one of the first settlers in Rutherford County, North Carolina, where he established himself at Twitty's Ford on the Broad River.

Sarah TWITTY, upon her marriage to John MOORE, had a large bed made for her in 1824 from walnut. Simple in design with architectural carved headboard and foot board, the latter containing 14 turned and carved spindles, turned and carved low posts. It is now in the possession of the writer.

NOTE: See DAR reference number 8270.

She married Jason Hazard CARSON<sup>3</sup> March 21, 1843, son of Joseph CARSON & Rebecca WILSON.

Jason Hazard CARSON born 10 NOV 1814, Green River Plantation, North Carolina; died 12 JUN 1865, Spartanburg, South Carolina. He was a planter in Polk County, North Carolina. But his marriage to Jane MOORE was bitterly opposed by his father and he moved to Spartanburg. His oldest son was killed in the Civil War, a blow from which he never recovered.

7. vi. Ralph Kennedy CARSON, b. September 01, 1854, Spartanburg, South Carolina; d. March 21, 1922, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Generation No. 7

7. Ralph Kennedy<sup>8</sup> CARSON (JEAN<sup>7</sup> MOORE, SARAH<sup>6</sup> TWITTY, FRANCES RHODES<sup>5</sup> LEWIS, JOHN<sup>4</sup>, ANNE<sup>3</sup> TERRELL, WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, RICHMOND<sup>1</sup>)<sup>5</sup> was born September 01, 1854 in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and died March 21, 1922 in Spartanburg, South Carolina. He married Catherine Bonneau JOHNSON November 25, 1885 in Charleston, South Carolina, daughter of Roberts JOHNSON & Alice SCREVEN.

Ralph Kennedy CARSON was perhaps Spartanburg's most prominent lawyer at the turn of the century and was President of the South Carolina Bar Association. He promoted the C.C. & O. railroad that did much to further the economic prospects of Spartanburg as textile mills moved to the piedmont region at this time. He served as division counsel to that company for a number of years. He was also director of several local textile mills and a founder of the town of Chesnee.

He was born in Spartanburg during a visit there by his parents, but he always regarded Polk County, North Carolina as his boyhood home. He attended Wofford College and read law under John Sharpe Rowland Thomson, a leading lawyer of "Upper Carolina" in the late 19th century.

He was early afflicted with severe rheumatism and needed a cane to get about from a young age. But the physical pain he suffered most of his life did not prevent him from an active law practice, which, conducted with several different partners over the years, flourished. He did much pro bono work and his obituary in the Spartenburg Journal said that "He was a friend of the poor and needy, and it is quite probable that the debts due him for professional services are as much as those he collected."

A lengthy editorial in the Journal on the occasion of his death, recalled his virtues, saying that "His sense of truth was his most highly developed faculty, and he often reveal[ed] it with a flash of wit that left the picture indelibly impressed upon the minds of those who heard it. This characteristic did not contribute to his popularity with some people, but it left none who knew his capacity in this direction without a wholesome respect for his wit, and recognition of his courage." Anyone who knew his daughter Rebecca will recognize how this trait passed down to her.

The editorial ends "So the appearance of wrong or injustice was always a challenge to him and questionable conduct awakened his powers of denunciation. His sympathies were with the people and his contact with them was that of an optimistic friend, who helped many out of difficulties and forgot to charge for his services. Just such a citizen as Mr. Carson will not come into the life of this city again."

Even in an age when prominent citizens who had recently died were routinely extolled, this is praise indeed. He was clearly a remarkable man.

Children of Ralph CARSON and Catherine JOHNSON are:

- i. Alice Screven<sup>9</sup> CARSON.
- ii. Ralph CARSON.
- iii. John H. CARSON.
- iv. Francis Bonneau CARSON.

- vi. Roberts CARSON, b. 1888, Spartanburg, South Carolina.
8. vii. Rebecca Wilson CARSON, b. April 08, 1890, Spartanburg, South Carolina; d. June 17, 1979, North Salem, New York.

Generation No. 8

8. Rebecca Wilson<sup>9</sup> CARSON (RALPH KENNEDY<sup>8</sup>, JEAN<sup>7</sup> MOORE, SARAH<sup>6</sup> TWITTY, FRANCES RHODES<sup>5</sup> LEWIS, JOHN<sup>4</sup>, ANNE<sup>3</sup> TERRELL, WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, RICHMOND<sup>1</sup>) was born April 08, 1890 in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and died June 17, 1979 in North Salem, New York. She married Richard Haden GORDON July 01, 1916 in Spartanburg, South Carolina, son of Richard GORDON & Eleanora CUNNINGHAM.

Richard Haden GORDON as born 30 DEC 1881 at Nashville, Tennessee; d. 4 AUG 1978 North Salem, New York. He left Nashville at the age of sixteen and came to New York. He got a job as a runner on Wall Street, working for the firm of DeCoppet and Doremus. During his early days in New York he roomed with another Wall Street runner, Douglas FAIRBANKS, Sr., who later became one of the first Hollywood superstars. In my possession are two letters from Fairbanks asking his former roommate for an extension on a ten dollar loan.

While working for DeCoppet and Doremus, Richard Gordon also attended New York University Law School. He was the class valedictorian in 1906, the only time in the history of the school that the valedictorian attended the night sessions. He was admitted to the bar that year and remained a member until his death, but never practiced law.

He bought a seat on the New York Stock Exchange in 1911 and became a partner of DeCoppet in 1913. He would remain active on the Street until only a few years before his death in 1978 at the age of ninety-six.

By the late 1920's he was senior partner of DeCoppet, a post he would hold until 1940. During the 1930's, his friend Margaret Rudkin asked him to lend her $5000 to allow her to go into the bread business. He had the greatest doubts regarding the prospects of the business and did not want a friend to be in the position of owing him a large sum of money that she could not repay. So he offered instead to invest the $5000 in return for ten percent of the stock. She readily accepted. Twenty years later the firm, Pepperidge Farm, was sold to Campbell Soup for $27,000,000.

In 1940 he withdrew from active management of Decoppet and in 1944 became a limited partner of Merrill Lynch. He would remain associated with the firm the rest of his life.

Although he always regretted his lack of formal education, he was widely and deeply read in both history and literature. He and his wife traveled all over the world. An honest and honorable man, he is remembered by all who had the privilege to know him with the greatest respect and affection.

Children of Rebecca CARSON & Richard GORDON are:

- i. Katherine Carson<sup>10</sup> GORDON, b. May 24, 1917, New York City.
9. ii. Richard Haden GORDON, b. March 30, 1919, New York City; d. November 1977, Honolulu, Hawaii.
- iii. Ralph Carson GORDON, b. June 25, 1921; d. 1990, Martinique, French West Indies.
- iv. Eleanora Cunningham GORDON, b. April 27, 1924, New York City.

Generation No. 9

9. Richard Haden<sup>10</sup> GORDON (REBECCA WILSON<sup>9</sup> CARSON, RALPH KENNEDY<sup>8</sup>, JEAN<sup>7</sup> MOORE, SARAH<sup>6</sup> TWITTY, FRANCES RHODES<sup>5</sup> LEWIS, JOHN<sup>4</sup>, ANNE<sup>3</sup> TERRELL, WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, RICHMOND<sup>1</sup>) was born March 30, 1919 in New York City, and died November 1977 in Honolulu, Hawaii. He married Mary Alricks STEELE March 31, 1942 in New York City, daughter of John STEELE & Katharine LYMAN.

Mary STEELE's life was, to a large extent, dominated by an ultimately losing battle with alcoholism. Possessed of great beauty, wit, and charm, she won the hearts of almost everyone, including many who were shrewd judges of character. But she lacked an ability to see her own virtues or to depend on her own talents, which were many. This led to an increasing dependence on alcohol to obtain self-esteem, and her physical intolerance for it led directly to her death at age forty-five.

Mary Steele attended the Chapin School in New York. In 1939, the year she graduated, the city's society columnists named her "debutante of the year," and she both endured and enjoyed an avalanche of publicity. Her year in the limelight has been preserved in a scrap book that was assembled by her mother. It is in my possession, a fascinating glimpse into a vanished world.

Her marriage to Richard GORDON was not a success and they were divorced in 1948. After the end of her marriage she worked for Oscar Hammerstein II as his personal assistant and secretary until the end of his life and was present at the creation of some of the most famous Broadway musicals ever written. She married his brother, whom she had known earlier, but that marriage also ended in divorce in 1958.

Her last marriage, to Goodwin DILLEN, another alcoholic, was troubled by her increasing illness. She bought a house in Westmoreland, New Hampshire, and was living there when her final illness began and she was taken to Boston for better, but still unavailing, medical care.

It is rare for an historian to find an epitaph personally selected by someone. But Mary Steele chose hers, although to be sure unconsciously, and it illustrates at one and the same time both the cause of her tragedy and the unfathomable mystery of her self-destruction. On the end paper of a copy of Samuel HOF-FENSTEIN's Poems in Praise of Practically Nothing, beneath the author's inscription to her--for they were good friends--she wrote in her own hand a quote from another of his books of verse, Pencil in the Air.

Everywhere I go

And spoil everything.

Children of Richard GORDON and Mary STEELE are:

- i. Richard Haden<sup>11</sup> GORDON, b. Medford, Oregon; d. November 1995, Taos, New Mexico.
- ii. John Steele GORDON, b. May 07, 1944, New York City.

100 YEARS AGO IN THE USA

Submitted by: Joan Hoskins <johos@bellsouth.net

The average life expectancy in the United States was forty-seven.

- Only 14 percent of the homes in the United States had a bathtub.
- Only 8 percent of the homes had a telephone. A three-minute call from Denver to New York City cost eleven dollars.
- There were only 8,000 cars in the US and only 144 miles of paved roads.
- The maximum speed limit in most cities was ten mph.
- Alabama, Mississippi, Iowa, and Tennessee were each more heavily populated than California. With a mere 1.4 million residents, California was only the twenty-first most populous state in the Union.
- The tallest structure in the world was the Eiffel Tower.

- The average wage in the U.S. was twenty-two cents an hour. The average U.S. worker made between $200 and $400 per year. A competent accountant could expect to earn $2000 per year, a dentist $2500 per year, a veterinarian between $1500 and $4000 per year, and a mechanical engineer about $5000 per year.
- More than 95 percent of all births in the United States took place at home.
- Ninety percent of all U.S. physicians had no college education. Instead, they attended medical schools, many of which were condemned in the press and > by the government as "substandard."
- Sugar cost four cents a pound. Eggs were fourteen cents a dozen. Coffee cost fifteen cents a pound.
- Most women only washed their hair once a month and used borax or egg yolks for shampoo.
- Canada passed a law prohibiting poor people from entering the country for any reason, either as travelers or immigrants.
- The five leading causes of death in the U.S. were:
  - Pneumonia and influenza
  - Tuberculosis
  - Diarrhea
  - Heart disease
  - Stroke
- The American flag had 45 stars. Arizona, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Hawaii, and Alaska hadn't been admitted to the Union yet.
- Drive-by-shootings -- in which teenage boys galloped down the street on horses and started randomly shooting at houses, carriages, or anything else that caught their fancy -- were an ongoing problem in Denver and other cities in the West.
- The population of Las Vegas, Nevada was thirty. The remote desert community was inhabited by only a handful of ranchers and their families.
- Plutonium, insulin, and antibiotics hadn't been discovered yet. Scotch tape, crossword puzzles, canned beer, and iced tea hadn't been invented.
- There was no Mother's Day or Father's Day.
- One in ten U.S. adults couldn't read or write. Only 6 percent of all Americans had graduated from high school.
- Marijuana, heroin, and morphine were all available over the counter at corner drugstores. According to one pharmacist, "Heroin clears the complexion, gives buoyancy to the mind, regulates the stomach and the bowels, and is, in fact, a perfect guardian of health."
- Coca-Cola contained cocaine instead of caffeine.
- Punch card data processing had recently been developed, and early predecessors of the modern computer were used for the first time by the government to help compile the 1900 census.
- Eighteen percent of households in the United States had at least one full-time servant or domestic.
- There were about 230 reported murders in the U.S. annually.
