FIRST ELECTRONIC EDITION

Due to failing health I cannot print and mail Terrell Trails to an active membership.

In addition to the aorta problem that I have since 2005, I suffered paralysis from the waist down. I was hospitalized a month before being released with a walker and a wheel chair.

By the grace of GOD, I have recovered to the point that I have not had to use a walker for a month or more. I have not had to use a cane in several weeks, but I never know when I'll be hit with a dizzy spell or some other malady.

This entire volume is being prepared in the fall. I hope to be able to post it to the web site where anyone can download it and print a copy if they so desire.

As long as my health permits, I will provide hard copies for anyone who does not have web access at the rate of $20.00 plus $10.00 S & H.

Note: DAVIS, ANDREW. Andrew Davis applied for revolutionary pension while living in Bledsoe County. He was born Dec. 21, 1756 in the Waxsaw settlement of South Carolina. He was living there when he enlisted Nov. 1, 1775 under Capt. John Barkley, Col. Richardson and Gen. Sumpter, serving two months. He enlisted again and was in Charleston during the battle of Sullivan's Island but was not in the battle. In 1777 he served under Capt. James Pettigrew, Col. Samuel Jack and Col. William Terrell in a regiment which was called the Minute Troops. He served in 1779 under Capt. Robert Davis. He volunteered in a cavalry company in Lincoln County, N.C., under Capt. Samuel Martin. His papers were lost when his house was burned. He knew Andrew Jackson as a boy. He moved from South Carolina to Iredell County, N.C., during the Revolution and subsequently he moved to Rutherford County, Tenn., to Warren County, Tenn., and to Bledsoe County. He then moved to Benton County, Ala., and applied to have his pension transferred to that county. Armstrong, Some Tennessees Heroes of the Revolution, Vol. 2.

I do hereby certify that the Indenture was produced to me as clerk of the County Court aforesaid on the 7th day of March 1805

Which was acknowledged by Edmund TERRELL to be his act and deed and the same has been duly recorded in my office.
Attest: Will IRVINE, clerk

This deed would be in Grantor Deeds, Book E, pg 775 Another deed of interest would be Edmund Terrill and Sally to Eph-

rium MOBERLY, Book N, p 356, 145 acres Station Camp Creek (1819). This would be about the time Edmund and Sally were selling their land and moving on to Lawrence Co IN.

The above deed was sent to me from the COLLIER descendants, Harry COLLIER, who mailed this to me. It just happened to have a deed enclosed, naming our Edmund Terrell/Terrill, that had already been transcribed from records of Madison Co KY. I have changed the format to show names in BOLD letters, and amended one name shown above. The name was typed as Alexander *BATES, and I believe it was actually Alexander BALES, and the L got marked through, making it appear as a T, in lieu of L. Alexander BALES married Sarah STEPHENSON Terrell's sister, Elizabeth STEPHENSON, and believe they all lived close by.

EDMUND TERRILL FACT, FICTION AND FOLKLORE

by Mac Elliott: TwigsNTX@aol.com
September 12, 2000

Where does one start to write an article about their ancestor's, and knock down old historical written histories, that have been told, handed down, printed in various ways, and accepted in part as truths?

Like most "brick walls" in genealogy, one must start at the beginning, and lay a solid foundation, one stone at a time. However, in this case, I must start at the top, and tear down each layer, to get to the bottom, and the truth of Edmund Terrill, and the true story of an Indian slaying, so proclaimed by many descendants of this truly great family.

First of all, I am not a great writer, and would ask forgiveness of my style in laying the ground work of this story. I too had been wrapped up with the vivid story of my ancestor, Edmund Terrill, and the story of his killing, and being scalped in the field of Lawrence Co., IN.

In the writings of these various Histories, there were several thing's that did not fit the profile of the Edmund Terrill I was studying. One of the main things was the telling of the 12 year old daughter being captured by the Indians and carried off to their camp. Secondly, that Sarah Terrill, in 1827, would be a woman in her fifties, and probably would not jump from an upstairs window, without serious bodily injury. In comparing the census, Edmund's will of 12 November 1827, and other data collected, a 12 year old daughter did not seem to fit in the family of Edmund Terrill and wife Sarah "Sally" Stephenson. In 1827, all of Edmund's children were mature adults and married.

Having said that, I do know that each telling of the Indian scalping and killing has been embellished along the way, kind of like the game gossip. I feel quite certain that each descendant that passed along the story, believed with all his/her heart that the story was true, and had been passed down for generations as "tradition". They probably told the story of "Grandma, and Grandpa," as best they remembered it. However, the story is being told in the wrong generation.

The story of the Indian killing of Edmund Terrill then must be proved to be false, and the correct story told for future generations. I will be praised by some, denied by others, and the family folklore will be crushed. In the interest of truth, and my sharing of the most recent data, the descendants of Edmund Terrill can still hold on to another ancestor, who indeed was the "victim" of an Indian killing.

As Paul Harvey would say, "and now for the rest of the story". As a brief note here, in my studies of the Edmund Terrill families, I was most fortunate to come in contact with David L. Forbes, who, having found my posting of the Edmund Terrill family on a message board, wrote me he had just transcribed an article containing the mention of Edmund Terrill and Sally Stephenson/Stevenson. He was kind enough to send me both the original writings, and his transcribed copy.

His article was taken from Draper Manuscripts, an Interview between Lyman Draper and William Champ on Sept 11 1863, Recorded in Series S., Vol 18, pages 258-275.

This William Champ was born in 1776, and was a young lad in the days of 1792, and gave to his recollection all the details of an Indian killing of Edward Stephenson of Madison Co., KY. This story was so vividly told, one can almost witness the scene and shutter.

There were actually two Indian events told, one being in August of 1791, where Indians tried to enter the home of Edward Stephenson, and our Sally, trying to bar the door, was shot through the body. It goes on to say a silk scarf was drawn through Sally's wound and she soon recovered, even though the ball went completely through her body.

On August 1792, the Indian proved to be Captain Blue Skin, a Shawnee, broke into the house of Edward Stephenson and with a knife, mortally wounded Edward. The story recounts many of the names of Edward's children, including Sally Stephenson, who later married Edmund Terrill, moved away and raised a large family.

The story includes events of one daughter, Jenny, jumping from an upstairs window, the Indians carrying her off, and her brother William who later retrieved her. This same Jenny (Jane) married Moses Turpin, and came to Lawrence/Jackson Co., IN and raised a family.

Edward Stephenson's wife was also shot while in bed, the ball entering below the knee, and upwards to break the thigh bone. She was never to walk again, and lived a few years and moved only by crawling on the ground.

Other children of Edward Stephenson would include Patsy (Martha) Stephenson who later married George Terrill (1795 Madison Co., KY), brother of Edmund. George Terrill and family removed to first Maury Co., TN then later of Gibson Co., TN.

Another daughter, Elizabeth (Betsy) Stephenson married Alexander Bales (1792 Madison Co., KY), and they also came to Lawrence Co., IN. Of the other known children of Edward Stephenson, I might only mention their names in passing, were Edward, William, James, Andrew and Jesse Stephenson.

These facts and documentation can further be discovered in a deed in Madison Co., KY, Book T., p 358, 31 Jul 1830, between James Stephenson and heirs of Edward Stephenson, dec'd, apparently sold 200 acs to James Stephenson on Paint Lick Creek. This deed being signed by George Terrill, Moses Turpin, Jane Turpin, Alexander Bales, Sarah Terrill, Mary Stephenson (*prob wife of Edward), William Noland, Mary Noland, Littleton Edster, Martha Edster, Nancy Stephenson, Jesse Stephenson. The deed also shows In Lawrence Co., IN, appeared before me, Moses and Jane Turpin, Alexander Bales, Sally Terrill, and Mary Stephenson, 31 Jul 1830.

The fact now is Sarah "Sally" Stephenson was the daughter of Edward Stephenson of Madison Co., KY, and not daughter of William Stephenson and Susanna Woods, as reported in The History of Lawrence County, In 1818-1990, Vol, 1, by the Lawrence County Historical and Genealogical Society. This item was furnished to me by Dan Todd, of Lawrence Co IN.

The reported Indian slaying of Edmund Terrill thus belongs to the Terrill descendant's, however they need to go back one generation, into Madison Co., KY, and claim the correct ancestor of Edward Stephenson. One would only need to read the Draper's Manuscript to see the full story unfold, and so many of the same details of that story show up in the written histories of the slaying of Edmund Terrill.

The folklore of the Edmund Terrill slaying may have originated back in 1940, and printed in the National Historical Magazine Vol LXXIV, No 7 & 8 July-August 1940, Whole number 564, page 36, Titled "The Edmund Terrell Tragedy", and written by "Perc" Turner. This article was sent to me by the kindness of Anne Jennings. It seems "Perc" Turner took his story from a great-granddaughter of Edmund Terrill, Mrs. Mary Houshour. Mary was the daughter of Jane Terrill Ramsey, the daughter of Joseph Terrill and Celia Bales, Joseph being the son of Edmund Terrill. Mary Houshour was then the present owner of part of the lands where Edmund Terrill lived. This article is nearly exact to the wordings of the Histories written in Lawrence Co., IN, in later years. This article even gives the 12 year old daughter of Edmund and Sally a name of "Theresa", and further states, after she escaped from the Indians, returned to her mother, grew to womanhood, and married a man named Turpin.

So, we come full circle, and parts of all the Histories are true, with the great exception, it was not Edmund Terrill that was killed by the Indians, but it was the father of Sarah Stephenson Terrill, Edward Stephenson.

I would dearly love to include here the re-typed articles mentioned above, however, due to copyright laws, I will have to leave this to the reader to obtain copies of the original written articles and histories.

Special appreciation goes to so many kind folks, other's, not mentioned above, who have shared their family information with me. Without the exchange and sharing of items, this story might never have come to my attention.

Sincerely, Mac Elaine Elliott

Descendant of Edmund Terrill and Sarah Stephenson, though their daughter Jane Jincy" Terrill who married Joseph Henderson.

LIBERTY COUNTY GA TERRELLS

EDITOR'S NOTE: This item is included here, not because of the TERRELL information, but for the enlightenment of our readers about life in the south almost 100 years ago. DFB

Mr. Terrill,

While looking for my Terrell family, I came across these names also, and thought you might be interested in reading this. At this time I do not know who the parents of the Martin Terrill, shown below, are. As far as I know, he is not in my line.

There may be other references to the terrill/terrell family within the book's pages, it is a large book and i have not read it in it's entirety, however Martin Terrell - also shown as Terrill, see above - was the only one found in the Index)

SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY A History of Liberty County, Georgia - By Robert Long Groover

One Day in April 1917

There was a general air of excitement in Hinesville as the dawn broke over Liberty County on the morning of April 5, 1917. Word had been received that the Liberty Independent Troop, after several delays, would return home that night aboard the Flemington, Hinesville & Western Railroad train. Headlines in the Savannah Moming News that day read:

SENATE VOTES 82 to 6 FOR WAR - ACTION BY HOUSE EXPECTED TODAY - GERMAN AGENTS ACTIVE IN SOUTH - TRAIN 2 MILLION MEN IN 2 YEARS

In Savannah, Georgia, that day there was Keith vaudeville at the Bijou Theater. A film "The Hidden Door" at the Aradia Theater, and another film "The Perils Of Our Girl Reporters" at the New Colonial Theater. B.H. Levy, Brothers & Company was advertising "pinch-back, belted effect, patch pockets, snug-fitting, English suits for men" at $15 each; a Dodge sedan cost $1,200; eggs were 15 cents a dozen; sugar was two pounds for 15 cents, and a Victrola console sold for $300.

General Robert E. Lee's daughter was visiting friends in Savannah, Georgia, that day, and in Hinesville, Roland Brewton and his wife, the former Maude Hines, had just celebrated their second wedding anniversary. Laura Martin Frazer was in Hinesville that day to organize the Liberty County Chapter of the American Red Cross. It was duly organized, and she became its first president.

The Hinesville Ice Company, owned and operated by Henry Lowe, sold sacked ice for 50 cents per 100 pounds. J. B. Morgan had just moved his barber shop from upstairs in the Way building on courthouse square to another location just down the street, and was now in business as the Johnson-Morgan Barber Shop.

By eight in the morning, every store in Hinesville was open for business, and S. B. Brewton, an attorney, had arrived in his snappy red buggy pulled by a sleek little horse, from his home on North Main Street to his office in a miniature home with front porch on courthouse square.

So much rain had fallen earlier in the month that people were unable to travel the road two miles outside of town to Martin Terrill's modern grist mill, and took their corn to be ground into meal and grits to a small mill powered by an old Model-T engine, and operated by Bill Way almost inside of town.

By eleven o'clock, housewives had gone themselves or sent one of their children, to fetch clear water from "the spring" just below courthouse square to be used in making iced tea for the noon meal. Charlie Dasher had not yet opened his cafe in Hinesville, so there was no restaurant where visitors might take the noon meal. Some of them ate in the hotel dining rooms, others bought sardines and crackers in one of the stores, and lucky visitors went home with friends or relatives residing in Hinesville for the noon meal.

By mid-afternoon, Hinesville was crowded with horses, mules, wagons, and buggies. Visitors shopped in the stores, took care of legal matters in the courthouse, stood around and exchanged gossip, or just sat on the courthouse grounds and waited. By the middle of the afternoon the temperature was nearly 90 degrees.

Not long after seven the Flemington, Hinesville & Western Railroad train chugged away from its depot on North Main Street for its last run of the day to McIntosh. It returned in about an hour with a string of coaches, freight and cattle cars, and members of the Liberty Independent Troop with their baggage, organizational gear, equipment, and mounts they acquired from a remount station at Macon, Georgia. They turned in the mounts they acquired in Texas before departing the Mexican border.

The troops detained at the National Guard Armory beside the railroad tracks, secured their equipment, gear, and mounts, and lantern-lit wagons and buggies could be seen long after night-fall carrying the troops home. Some of them resided in adjoining counties and did not arrive home until near daybreak.

WELLS FAMILIES - The genealogical record of these families begins with Thomas and Alice Wells who emigrated from Connecticut in 1635. They were members of a colony of Quakers who came to America seeking religious freedom. They had a son, Thomas Wells Jr.. who married and had a son, Joseph Wells, who married and migrated with other Quakers to North Carolina.

A DIRT ROAD

What's mainly wrong with society today, is that too many Dirt Roads have been paved.

There's not a problem in America today, crime, drugs, education, divorce, delinquency, that wouldn't be remedied if we just had more Dirt Roads, because Dirt Roads give character.

People that live at the end of Dirt Roads learn early on that life is a bumpy ride. That it can jar you right down to your teeth sometimes, but it's worth it, if at the end is home...a loving spouse, happy kids, and a dog.

We wouldn't have near the trouble with our educational system if our kids got their exercise walking a Dirt Road with other kids, from whom they learn how to get along.

There was less crime in our streets before they were paved, criminals didn't walk two dusty miles to rob or rape, if they knew they'd be welcomed by 5 barking dogs and a double barrel shotgun. And there were no drive-by shootings.

Our values were better when our roads were worse! People did not worship their cars more than their kids, and motorists were more courteous, they didn't tailgate by riding the bumper or the guy in front would choke you with dust and bust your windshield with rocks. Dirt Roads taught patience.

Dirt Roads were environmentally friendly. You didn't hop in your car for a quart of milk; you walked to the barn for your milk. For your mail, you walked to the mailbox.

What if it rained and the Dirt Road got washed out? That was the best part, then you stayed home and had some family time, roasted marshmallows and popped popcorn and pony rides on Daddy's shoulders...and you learned how to make prettier quilts than anybody.

At the end of Dirt Roads, you soon learned that bad words tasted like soap. Most paved roads lead to trouble. Dirt Roads more likely lead to a fishing creek or a swimming hole.

At the end of a Dirt Road, the only time we even locked our car was in August, because if we didn't some neighbor would fill it with too much zucchini.

At the end of a Dirt Road, there was always extra springtime income, from when city dudes would get stuck, you'd have to hitch up a team and pull them out.

Usually you got a dollar ...always you got a new friend... at the end of a Dirt Road.

Paul Harvey

Weather Predicting

This story is from a U.S. Forest Service source. Let's chalk one up for exact science!

The Indians asked their Chief in autumn, if the winter was going to be cold or not. Not really knowing an answer, the chief replies that the winter was going to be cold and that the members of the village were to collect wood to be prepared.

Being a good leader, he then went to the next phone booth and called the National Weather Service and asked, "Is this winter to be cold?"

The man on the phone responded, "This winter is going to be quite cold indeed."

So the Chief went back to speed up his people to collect even more wood to be prepared. A week later he called the National Weather Service again, "Is it going to be a very cold winter?"

"Yes," the man replied, "it's going to be a very cold winter."

So the Chief goes back to his people and orders them to go and find every scrap of wood they can find. Two weeks later he calls the National Weather Service again: "Are you absolutely sure, that the winter is going to be very cold?"

"Absolutely," the man replies, "the Indians are collecting wood like crazy!"

"Not for fame or reward, not for place or rank, not lured by ambition or goaded by necessity; but in simple obedience to duty as they understood it; these men suffered all, sacrificed all, dared all, - and died." --Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim (inscription on Confederate soldiers monument, Arlington National Cemetery)

Did your relative disappear during 1861-1865. Know he was enlisted but cannot find out about him. Check the POW records for union prisons.

"The most amazing thing in the world is the indifference of most of us to what happens to the rest of us."

".... people will forget what you said ... .... people will forget what you did ... .... but people will never forget how you made them feel..."

How long has it been since you checked your records. Many times what did not seem to fit then will fit into your research later.

Deo Vindice = God our Vindicator. Appears on The Great Seal of The Confederacy, UDC medals of Honor and UDC iron grave markers, just to mention a few.
