Interest in T*R*L GEMS Volumes Less than Expected

The most recent black hole in genealogy is the loss of the 1890 census. This volume compiled from 1880 census information and Social Security Death Index information is the best tool we have to cross that black hole.

The initial investment of your funds in preparing 5 copies of each volume in the set was almost $1,000.00. As of Dec. 21 2003, we received only 2 orders. These were for the $20.00 CD-ROM. We are still deeply in the red on this project.

We did not anticipate that you would want to keep these volumes. We did expect some interest with a high number of returns. You may search any volume for only $5.00 plus postage both ways by returning the volume within 3 weeks. If you are having a problem with any T*R*L ancestor who was living between 1880 and 1900, this set is your best chance of gaining leads for further research.

Even if you do not have a computer, your local library does. Most librarians will gladly show you how to use their computer for your research in return for the donation of one of the $20.00 CD-ROM copies. This is your investment. Use it wisely. DFB

TERRELL REUNION

By Kaite Carolyn Dyess Bales:
The 2004 Terrell Reunion is the 2nd Saturday in October...which is: October 9, 2004. It's at Laura Hill in Leesville, Vernon Parish, Louisiana. Please put it in your calendars. This is mainly attended by descendants of William Sylvester TERRELL but all other lines are welcomed.

Highlights from last year: The reunion was GREAT! Mary Lou who is from Lake Charles came and this is the first tiime we have met in real life. It was GREAT!!! There were two sisters there in their 90's. One was 94 years old; the other one 90. Both had good hearing and quick minds and we have benefited so much from their knowledge.

Dr. Tommy JOHNSON was there and he has some updated TERRELL material that he will be putting into print soon.

IDENTITY THEFT SCAMS

Editor's Note: The following is excerpted from one net service provider. Yours may be different so but you are still likely to receive the same type scams.
DFB

Submitted to LEWIS web site by Ray Parks

Urgent Notice read and beware this came from my email provider

Dear NetZero Member, We are writing to warn you of an Internet scam designed to trick you into revealing credit card, passwords, social security numbers and other personal information to individuals who intend to use them for fraudulent purposes.

The scam is known as "phishing" and the communications are sent to appear to look as if they come from reputable companies such as NetZero. The e-mails often instruct you to verify or update your account information by requesting you to reply to their e-mail with your updated information, or by providing you with a link to a website where you may enter your information.

The Federal Trade Commission has issued a warning about these identity theft scams. They suggest the following:

- If you get an e-mail that warns you, with little or no notice, that an account of yours will be shut down unless you reconfirm your billing information, do not reply or click on the link in the e-mail. Instead, contact the company cited in the e-mail using a telephone number or Web site address you know to be genuine. For NetZero, you should contact 866-841-1442. We take security very seriously and will work with law enforcement with the goal of preventing this type of activity.
- Avoid e-mailing personal and financial information.
- Review credit card and bank account statements as soon as you receive them to determine whether there are any unauthorized charges. If there is unauthorized activity, we strongly urgeyou to contact your credit card company immediately to determine what action you should take.

- For more information on how to avoid e-mail scams, please visit the Federal Trade Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/alerts/pishingalrt.htm>
- Remember, when you receive e-mail from an unknown source and suspect it to be spam, avoid clicking on the unsubscribe links, replying to the spam, replying to an address in the spam message, or visiting any link contained within the e-mail. These actions confirm the validity of your e-mail address and may result in more spam.

Please remember that [reputable providers] will never send you an unsolicited e-mail asking you for your password, social security number, mother's maiden name, or driver's license number.

VOLUNTEER FIREMAN SUES MERRYVILLE, [LA] FIRE DISTRICT

Submitted by Kaite Bales

The following article was in the DeRidder Beauregard Daily Paper 07/03/02. Does anyone know this person?

Volunteer fireman sues Merryville, Fire District 1

The Beauregard Parish Fire District No. 1 and the Town of Merryville are among the defendants in a June 28 lawsuit filed by Joshua TERRELL for damages that occurred during a debris clean-up following an October 2001 storm in Merryville.

The petition is filed with the 36th Judicial Court by Terrell, represented by Rex D. Townsley of the Townsley Law Firm in Lake Charles, on behalf of himself and his son Joshua Paul TERRELL and by Terrell's wife, Celeste.

In his petition for damages, Terrell contends that on or about Saturday, Oct. 13, 2001, then Merryville Mayor Margaret Krasso requested assistance from BPDFD No. 1 fire chief Scott Slayter with the post-storm clean-up.

In the suit, Terrell, a volunteer fireman, states that Slayter instructed him to assist with the removal of a tree limb that had fallen across a utility wire.

According to Terrell's petition, Town of Merryville employee Thomas Watson instructed Terrell to climb into the bucket of a backhoe that Watson was operating. The suit says Terrell did as instructed and subsequently was struck by a falling limb, which knocked him out of the bucket, causing him to fall to the ground.

As a result of the accident, the suit states, Terrell received injuries to his left hip, back, and legs, in addition to other serious injuries, "all to his detriment and loss."

The petition states that injuries Terrell sustained due to "the negligent acts of the defendants" have resulted in "physical pain, mental anguish, and impairment in the past and in all probability will cause him physical pain, mental anguish, psychological injuries and loss of future earning capacity."

Celeste and Joshua Paul Terrell, a minor represented by his father, claim each to have suffered "a loss of consortium, services, and society," as a result of the accident.

The petition cites the Town of Merryville as being guilty of the following "non-exclusive acts of negligence":

- Failure to properly secure the construction premises;
- Failure to use reasonable care and caution;
- Failure to instruct town employees and enforce safety measures needed in the cutting and removal of debris/trees that have fallen on utility wires; and
- Failure to provide safety equipment.

The BPDFD No. 1 is similarly cited in the petition for negligence in the following:

- Failure to have proper safety equipment for the crew;
- Failure to properly train and supervise the firemen;
- Failure to warn of the dangers of the removal of debris/trees that have fallen on utility wires; and
- Failure to use reasonable care and caution.

American Alternative Insurance Corporation, liability insurance carrier for the BPDFD No. 1, also is named as a defendant in the petition.

The petition asks the court that "just and reasonable" sums be awarded Terrell and his family, to include court costs and legal interest from date of judicial demand until paid.

Here is an amusing paragraph which appears on T.F.H.S. Newsletter Vol. 23, No. 2, Summer 2000 at page 30. Don Terrill

Note in the list of member of Thetford [England] Methodist Circuit dated August 23rd 1809: "We most earnestly request that our successors will have nothing at all to do with or to say to the weak, the wicked, the abominable and the intolerable Miss Mary Tyrell; nor her sister Ann nor Mrs. Naylor. No mortal knows the trouble they (particularly the first) have caused the preachers. Never rec. one of their hell-inspired letters into your hand and you will avoid trouble. Signed Francis West and John Tarrent."

ARREST OF GENEALOGY SCAM OPERATOR

Submitted by Kaite Carolyn Dyess Bales
"Rec'd the following on my Eastman Newsletter. I know this question has been asked before on some listings and this might help."

SPECIAL EDITION: Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter

The following "Special Edition" is being sent to subscribers of the Plus Edition of Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter:

I have written a number of times about a genealogy-related scam that operates under a variety of names, including GenSeekers.com, GenealogyGiants.com and more. In the July 7 edition of the newsletter, I identified the owner/operator of this "business" as 21-year-old Elias Abodeely of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Since then, I have had conversations with several people in Iowa about this "business."

I can now report that earlier today the Cedar Rapids police department arrested Elias Abodeely for his activities with GenSeekers.com and the other Web sites he operates.

KWWL television in Iowa is now reporting that Cedar Rapids Police have made an arrest after a two year Internet crime investigation. The crimes involved genealogy web sites. Today police arrested Elias Abodeely II of Cedar Rapids.. He faces four charges: 1st degree theft, identity theft, money laundering, and ongoing criminal conduct. Police say they expect to file charges against more suspects.

Details are still developing. Keep an eye on the newsletter Discussion Board at <http://www.eogn.com> for updates. I will also be writing about this in the next newsletter. You can read my earlier article at

PMSEA DATABASE REPORTS

The Personnel Missing - Southeast Asia (PMSEA) Database was originally compiled by the Defense Intelligence Agency's (DIA) POW/MIA Office as an ongoing effort that spanned the course of the War in Indochina. Working closely with the military services and other members of the Intelligence Community, efforts were made to keep the list updated as the losses occurred.

Terrell Trails

Following the end of the war, DIA continued to maintain the database, keeping it updated as progress was made in the accounting effort. When DPMO was formed in 1993, it absorbed DIA's POW/MIA Office and responsibility for the PMSEA database. From this database, DPMO has generated reports in a number of different formats that are intended to assist you with your research.

SOUTH AMERICAN TURLS

Submitted by Brenda TURL - Canada
j.turl@sympatico.ca

I have found the following TURLs from South America. If anyone has them on their family tree, please let me know.

Husband: Peter TURL; Wife: Mary ?; Children: Peter TURL born: 19 Oct 1842, Rio De Janeiro, Rio De Janeiro, Brazil

(My guess is the father (above) of this Peter TURL and maybe his mother, came to Brazil from England. I would certainly like to know where he fits in to establish a link between the TURLs in England the TURLs in Brazil)

Editor's Note: It is probable that they came from UK. They used a single surname, TURL which is common in the United Kingdom and USA.. Brazil was a Spanish colony and most residents there use a dual surname, ie., surname of the MOTHER-surname of the FATHER. I have reworked capitalization below to reflect this custom. We have one member in Brazil descended from TERRELLs who left TX after the Civil War. Maybe he will correct me if I have erred here. DFB

Cristina CLAUSSEN-TURL born/christened: 17 July 1868, Brazil. Death: 17 Feb. 1953 Husband: Frederico LACERDA-TURL; Wife: Henriqueta CLAUSSEN; Children: Alfredo LACERDA TURL; Christened: 12 July 1863, Rio De Janeiro, Brazil; Death: 26 Oct 1951

(Could the Cristina above be a daughter of Frederico and Henriqueta Claussen TURL?)

Husband: Alfredo LACERDA-TURL; Wife: Cristina CLAUSSEN

Children: Ernestina CLAUSSEN TURL (female); Christened: 03 Feb 1896, Teresopolis, Rio De Janeiro, Brazil; Death: 13 July 1976;

SOME DESCENDANTS OF MATTHEW TERREL, SR.

Submitted by Margaret magsheets@earthlink.net
Margaret,

I received this information as well as a short email forwarded to me by Dan Brinson. I have a database on this same family which I acquired through John P. Cramer and other sources. I have improved and added small components to it through my own research; however, I have never been able to figure out Matthew TERREL (grandfather to Matthew TERREL Sr. shown below).

Terrell Trails

I'm sorry I cannot provide the information on the elder Matthew. Do you have or do you need the ancestry on your Matthew TERREL Sr. (below) back to his grandfather. I can provide that. I would need your postal address, since I send paper printouts.

Don C. Terrill (with the Terrell Society of America)

Editor's Note: This information was included with this line, although there is nothing here to indicate any direct connection to Matthew TERREL, Sr. I am publishing it for whatever benefit it may have for you. DFB

From a genealogy book which is in the Massachusetts Genealogy Society library in Worcester MA, USA. - Judy Caldow Ollikkala (whose maternal grandmother was a TERRELL.) Listed as early settlers in America are:

1. Roger TERRILL from Nanzing, Sussex, England, b. ?1586, on the ship "Lion" 14 Sept. 1632, Boston, then to New Haven CT , then to Milford CT, 1639, m. Jane BALDWIN, had large family incl. son Roger TERRILL b. c1638, Milford CT.

[Either someone has confused the facts, or there were two Jane BALDWINs who m. TERRELLs. The only one I have seen documented m. Robert TYRRELL, tailor, in Reading England and was mother of Richmond and William. Without additional supporting data, I must disregard this one. DFB]

2. John TURRELL, of Instow, Devonshire, England, c. 1640, Boston, had son Samuel TURRELL in Boston 1657 (land sale Cross and Hanover Streets, Boston 1711)

3. Daniel TURRELL, blacksmith of Instow, Devonshire, England, c. 1640, Boston, died July 16, 1693

4. Timothy TERRELL from London, England area, 1672 to New Kent Virginia

5. William and Richmond TERRELL, brothers, to St. Paul's Parish, Hanover City, Virginia

6. William THERRELL married to Rebecca SIMPKINS, daughter of Capt. Nicholas SIMPKINS, in Boston, 29 Nov. 1654 by Richard BEL-

LINGHAM, Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony, 1655 to Weymouth MA. William was a Merchant-Tailor, they had four children: Rebecca TURRELL 1656; William THORULL 1658 (age 21 lived in Weymouth); Mary THIRRELL 1661; Gideon TURRELL 1664. William Terrall listed as tailor in New London CT 1662. He died in 1682 in Little River, Albemarle County, Carolina

7. John TERRALL, seaman, New London CT, died Feb. 27, 1712

Generation No. 1

1. Matthew TERREL, born ca1740 in Virginia. He married Mary (Last Name?), born ca1730 in Harrison Co., (Now West) Virginia.

Children of Matthew TERREL and Mary Name?) are:

1-1 Jephthae TERREL, born September 01, 1769 in Harrison Co., (West) Virginia; died December 27, 1817 in Harrison Twp., Champaign Co., Ohio; married Sarah BARNES ca1790 in Harrison Co., (West) Virginia.

1-2 Matthew TERREL, born 1777 in Maryland; died Bet. 1821 - 1824; married Hudley Jane; born 1776 in Maryland; died March 1831.

Mathew TERREL who resided in Champaign County and Logan County, Ohio, I believe to be a brother of Jephthae TERREL. There is nothing to prove it - no available evidence in either county. Jephthae TERREL was a son of Matthew & Marry TERREL, so if Mathew is in fact Jephthae's brother, then he is a Matthew "Jr."

According to the book, Early Vital Records of Ohio, Champaign Col, Ohio, Volumes I through VI, by the Urbana Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, 1973, Mathew does have a gravestone and he is buried in the Halterman Cemetery, Champaign County, Ohio. They are listed in this book as follows:

Mathew TERREL, 1777-1824

Huldy TERRELL, d. March 1821

This information conflicts with data uncovered by researchers in 1990, which indicates a gravestone for Huldy, but nothing for Mathew: Huldy TERRELL, wife of M., 1777-1821

There is a major conflict here with the dates, and research needs to be done to resolve these conflicts.

Terrell Trails

Mathew appears in the 1820 census of Harrison Twp, Champaign Co., Ohio as follows:

Matthew Terrill 1 Male age 25-45; 1 Female age 26-45; 1 Male age 10-16; 1 Female age 10-16; 1 Female under 10

Written By Mark CAPPELLO

Children of Matthew TERREL and Hudly Jane are:

1-2-1 William TERREL, b. January 5, 1798, Maryland; d. August 12, 1889. Burial: Halterman Cemetery, Adams Twp., Champaign Co., Ohio; Occupation: Farmer; he and brother Alexander had adjoining farms Relationship: Three females occupy household in 1850: Margaret age 23, Rebecca age 12, and Rebecca Wilson age 55. A male, Washington, age 5 is also listed in the census in that household

Generation No. 2

1-1 Jephthae TERREL, born September 01, 1769 in Harrison Co., (West) Virginia; died December 27, 1817 in Harrison Twp., Champaign Co., Ohio. He was the son of Matthew TERREL and Mary (Last Name?). Farmer; operated a water mill south of Spring Hills. He married Sarah BARNES ca1790 in Harrison Co., (West) Virginia. She was born June 27, 1773 in Virginia; died Bet. 1840 - 1850 in Champaign Co., Ohio. Legal: February 1798, Jephtha Terrell vs. John Wilkins, nature of cause not indicated. "Dismissed."

Descendant Erma Vail, writes "The first time we find mention of the Terrells in Harrison County, (West) Virginia is in 1797. We find Matthew THERRILL and Jepthew TIRRIL !! In 1798 - Jephthah TERRILL. In 1799 - Matthew TERRIL and Jepthah TERREL. From then until 1814 - loads of TERRELLs. 1815 on - nothing!!!

From History Of Champaign County, Ohio, 1881: "Jephtha Terrell was born in Virginia in the year 1776. He married Miss Sarah Barnes, of that state, in 18___. They came to this county in 1811, and settled on Buck Creek. On March 2, 1812, they removed to Section 32 in this township, now owned by Timothy Terrell. Of the twelve children born to this couple, but one remains on the homestead."

When the Calland Cemetery in Champaign County was cleared, a gravestone for Jephthae Terrell was uncovered which read, "In memory of Jephthae, son of Matthew & Mary TERREL who died December 27, 1817 aged 48 years, 3 months + 20 days." This gravestone is now in the possession of Mrs. Erma (Wilson) Vail, descendant of Jephthae's son Timothy Terrell."

If the gravestone for Jephthae TERREL is correct, his date of birth was September 1, 1769, and not 1776 as the Champaign County, Ohio history indicated."

"At another time, a party of rangers stopped at the house of Jephtha Terrell. In the evening, the fired off their guns, simultaneously. The neighbors feared that Indians had made an attack on the Terrells, and were much alarmed. Fortunately, their worst fears were not realized, and the mystery was explained on the succeeding day."

The Champaign County history and records mention primarily only Jephtha Terrell and his family; however, it is evident that at least two other Terrell families were there, and they may have been brothers or some other relation to Jephtha. We will assume here that the other two Terrells were brothers. It seems as if the Terrells moved back and forth between Champaign County and next door Logan County as records can be found for some in both places.

SETTLING IN OHIO

The Greenville Treaty Line of 1795 had set the northern boundary of the "White" settlements at the Northern edge of what became Champaign Co (in 1805). If you wish to draw the Greenville Treaty Line on a modern map, begin on the west, at Ft. Recovery, Mercer Co, follow along, SSE to Ft Loramie (Shelby Co) using the Ft Recovery-Minster Rd, then Hewer Road, which angles SSE onto Indian Trail Rd, then take line straight into town of Ft Loramie. Then, go ENE, following Meranda Road in Shelby Co, into Logan Co, crossing thru Lewistown Reservoir (now Indian Lake). In that era, Logan Co was the northernmost part of Champaign Co (until 1818). It then continues on a ENE angle into Tuscarawas Co. Refer to booklet titled Ohio Lands A Short History published by the Auditor of the State of OH, 5th Edition by Burke, 1994 for detailed information on the way OH was divided up for settlement, after the Rev. War.

The territory was dangerous & subject to Indian attack through about 1820 - the War of 1812 was over in 1814, but bands of Native Americans did not take kindly to being rounded up & removed from their lands, and continued to make life perilous for settlers on the fringes of civilization. - Susan Bidwell Williams slw02@sprynet.com 10/18/99 lished that William M. Terrell is the same William M. in both marriages, William M. is listed as married and widowed in 1880 census, so this fits with the marriage dates of these spouses.

She may be the sister of Margaret "Lydia" Hayes, who married William TERREL's brother John TERREL.

Date of Birth: The History of Champaign County, Ohio states that William was born in 1794 in Harrison Co. (now West) Virginia, but records show his father Jephthae did not arrive in that area until about 1798, so William may have been born elsewhere.

Excerpt From The First Twenty-Five Years Of The Kansas Conference Of The Church Of The United Brethren In Christ, by Bernard L. COOK: Henry KUMLER, Hr., in an article in the Religious Telescope mentioned that he had been in Missouri and had contacted one John TERREL, living in Jasper County, Missouri. It seems that Missouri already had a United Brethren conference in the process of formation and John TERREL was one of the preachers in it. John TERREL had mentioned to Kumler a desire "That his brother Josiah in Illinois come and see him" adding "May the Lord grant that some our brethren may come over to Missouri and help us." This article, by Henry KUMLER, appeared in 1852.

From History Of Huntington County (Indiana), Brant & Fuller, Chicago, 1887: Rev. John Terrell, another missionary, blazed his way through the woods from North Manchester, in Wabash County to Slusser neighborhood in Warren Township....and from there soon afterward came to Huntington and organized a church that year.

[From the numbering, it appears either that he may have had 4 children by Margaret "Lydia" HAYES who are not listed. Numbers 1 -4 are missing in the material submitted. DFB]

John TERREL and Lucinda FUSON are:

1-1-3-5. Lydia TERRELL, m. Rutherford WALKER, September 30, 1847, Jasper Co., Missouri. As of 1867, they were living in Tunus Town, Dallas Co., Missouri

1-1-3-6. Verona TERRELL, b. ca1827, Ohio.

1-1-3-7. Thomas C. TERRELL, b. ca1832, Ohio; d. May 26, 1892, Allen Creek, Americus Twp., Lyon Co., Kansas.

1-1-3-8. Darius TERRELL, b. February 15, 1832, Ohio; d. ca1901, Chicago, Illinois.

1-1-3-9. John TERRELL, Jr., b. October 30, 1835, Ohio; d. February 16, 1901, Emporia, Lyon Co., Kansas; Maple Wood Memorial Lawn Cemetery, Lyons Co., Kansas; m. Susan M. HALBERT, August 3, 1882, At Capt. W. Braizer's, Americus Twnshp., Lyons Co., Kansas; b. ca1847; d. January 18, 1904, Hobart, Kiowa Co., Oklahoma. From Emporia Gazette, February 16, 1901, Reprinted In The Americus Greeting, February 21, 1901: John TERREL was killed this afternoon near the junction by Santa Fe passenger train No. 5. Mr. TERREL is a man about 65 years old. He was engaged in picking up coal when he was struck by the train and killed. No one saw the accident but the engineer of the train. Just east of the junction is a curve in the track. The train came around this at a good rate of speed and though the engineer saw the man on the track he was unable to stop the train in time to avoid the accident. TERREL was picking up coal and was stooping over. He neither saw the train nor heard it until it was too late. The train stopped and the conductor and two women climbed off and looked at the man. People near, hearing the engine whistle an alarm and then seeing the train stop, ran to the track. The conductor left the body in charge of these men and went on to the depot. The Santa Fe officers telephoned the sheriff and coronor and they went to the scene of the accident. Mr. TERREL lived at 221 East St. and leaves a wife. He is said to have been a brother-in-law of Lewis POWELL and also of Wm. BUSHMAN. The body was put in charge of an undertaker and taken to his establishment. An examination showed that his face was mashed and broken and both legs crushed. - Emporia Gazette, Feb. 16 The subject of the above sketch was for a long time one of the prosperous farmers living on Allen creek just north of the MAXWELL place. He is a brother of Mrs. J. W. Floyd of this place and has several relative in this vicinity. His brother, Thomas, lived on Allen creek for years and a brother Dariens formerly lived there, but now resides in Oklahoma. John was well known to the old settlers here.

Another obituary adds "about 65 years old and very poor." There was an inquest with a coroner's jury. Engineer JONES and Conductor CAMBRIC Were present for the inquest. Another article adds: Train No. 6, which going west as No. 5, ran over and killed John TERRELL Saturday, stopped yesterday fifteen minutes while his funeral crossed the track. Rev. SELDON conducted the services at the Terrell home. The pall bearers were P.L. DALE, Harvey PARKER Emery DAVIS, Jo. WORKMAN, Frank FRAZIER and Will FRAZIER.

1-1-5. Ruth TERREL; dau of Jephthae TERREL and Sarah BARNES; born 1798 in Harrison Co., (West) Virginia; died Aft. 1870 in Lawrence Co., Missouri Retail Merchant; married William M. CONNELL (Middle initial M. was added via Cox's TERREL Genealogy) January 14, 1818 in Champaign Co., Ohio; born 1780 in Virginia (One record says 1783); died March 15, 1857 in Lawrence Co., Missouri Salem Cemetery, Lawrence County, Missouri. Farmer; lived in Harrison Co., (now West) Virginia; Champaign Co., Ohio; & Lawrence Co., Missouri.

William Connell and Ruth Terrell made their home in Champaign County, Ohio until 1838 when they moved to Lawrence County, Missouri. William was a staunch Republican and served in the War of 1812. He was engaged in several Indian uprisings in Ohio.

William and Ruth sold their land in Ohio on November 1838 for $2,200. In the fall of 1839 they had reached Lawrence County, Missouri and purchased 1,000 acres of land. One abstract shows that part of that land was deeded by John C. EDWARDS, Governor of Missouri, for $1.25 an acre. They built a log cabin on section 16, T28, R27. This is where William died on March 15, 1857. The probate record has a bill for $14.00 presented for lumber and labor making a casket on March 16, 1857 by C. R. PAYTON; WHALEY & MC CHANSE, Mt. Vernon, Missouri. Merchants presented a bill for 10 yards of bleached domestic $3.00, 5 yards of black velvet $4.93, 5 yards of black fringe $1.50, pair of white gloves, pair of black shoes, nails and tacks totaling $14.00. Total cost of the casket was $28.00. Burial was in the Salem Cemetery on March 17, 1857.

William's estate was settled in May 1860. Some of the items mentioned were coffee, sugar, bridle $4.00, shoes $1.70, black silk vest $30.00, silk scarf $1.00, violin $6.00, 10 yards of calico $1.20, ear rings $1.00, 1 bale of cotton $1.40. Other interesting items of value were a 5th of chain $.50, one 4 horse wagon $35.00, one 2 horse wagon $20.00, a bull tongue plow $1.50, a two year old steer $9.00, 9 hogs $13.00, sheep $8.00, one man's saddle $4.00, one clay Bank horse $62.50. William C. PENNINGTON, husband of William and Ruth's daughter Synthia, was administrator of the estate, with a bond of $6,000, signed by Sion PENNINGTON, John CONNELL and George ALLISON.

A few years before William's death, life of the prairie took its toll on their marriage, and on October 19, 1855, Ruth filed for divorce in Lawrence County, Missouri. She went on to make her home with her children. In 1870 she was residing in the household of her son John. This is the last known record of her. It is believed that she died in Lawrence County, Missouri, and the exact date is unknown. Her burial place is also unknown, and it is thought that she is buried in the Salem Cemetery along with her husband.

A story is told by Albert Austin CONNELL, great-grandson of Joshua CONNELL, that five of William and Ruth's sons (Joseph W., James, Joshua, Caleb, and Asa) formed a wagon train and moved to Hamilton County, Texas. They camped at Center Point in Hamilton County, and one of them travelled to Austin, Texas and petitioned the Governor for a league of land to be divided among the brothers. This land stayed in the CONNELL name until 1931. Script from the General Land Office gives Asa entitlement to 1,280 acres of land for his service in the Civil War. He bought land for $3.00 per acre.

From Portrait and Biographical Album of Jackson, Jefferson, and Potawatomie Counties, Kansas, 1890: Rev. Josiah TERREL. The first man to settle upon the present site of Perry (Kansas) deserves more than a passing mention; and especially so in this case, as the subject of this notice was one worthy of all respect. As a pioneer preacher of Kansas he saw much hardship and privation, being the third minister of the United Brethren denomination to settle in the State.

He was born in Virginia Aug. 23, 1804, and when a child of seven years was taken by his parents to Champaign County, Ohio, they settling there in 1811. He was the sixth in a family of thirteen children and was reared on the frontier, obtaining his education mostly around the evening fireside, and being fond of books, thus acquired a very good fund of general knowledge.

The subject of this notice was the son of Enoch TERREL, a native of Wales, who in emigrating to America was accompanied by his father, then a hale and hearty old man, whose age numbered one hundred years. He lived four years thereafter and was then gathered to his fathers. Enoch TERREL, locating in Virginia, followed farming there until 1811, then removed with his family to Champaign County, Ohio, settling among the Indians in the wilderness.

Editor's Note: Unless the writer of this article confused the name of Josiah's father with that of Josiah's brother, Enoch, we may have found a clue to the name and origin of the father of the senior Matthew TERREL. It is possible that the father of the original Matthew TERREL was Enoch TERREL from Wales! DFB

He engaged in farming and milling and became well-to-do, at the same time exerting no small influence in his community. A part of the old mill which he operated is still standing almost the only relic of a bygone age. He served as an officer in the War of 1812, and at one time while in the service was nearly frozen to death. He was for many years a leading member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and finally died in 1817, from the effects of an injury received in his mill.

Josiah TERREL assisted his father in farming and milling until his death and remained with his mother until reaching his majority. He was then married to Miss Sara PROVAULT, a native of Ohio, and of German descent. Soon afterward they removed to a farm in Indiana where Mr. TERREL was converted to religion in a singular manner while hauling a load of hay. Within three days he began exhorting and in 1834 was licensed to preach in the United Brethren Church, leaving his farm to do so. He preached at Nauvoo, Ill., in the temple after the Mormons had left and was instrumental in rousing the people against the followers of Joe SMITH, denouncing them from the pulpit. At Nauvoo his first wife died. He possessed a fine intellect and aside from being a successful public speaker, was straightforward in his dealings and conscientious in his life.

Mr. TERREL's life was often threatened on account of his out-spoken doctrines. Later, in Missouri and Kansas, he became Presiding Elder. At one time his jurisdiction extended nearly over the whole State of Illinois. In the meantime he lived at Blandinsville, until 1853, and was there a second time married to Miss Mary MAYHEW. This lady was born in Ohio and was the daughter of Laban MAYHEW, a native of Kentucky, who moved first to Southern Ohio, then back to his native State and finally to McDonough County, Ill., where he engaged in farming until his death; he was of French descent.

In the spring of 1853 we find Josiah TERREL in Missouri and for two years thereafter he was established at Carthage, officiating as a missionary sent by the Illinois Conference. Later he was County Superintendent of Jasper and Barton counties, and was also Postmaster. He secured eighty acres of land, but gave most of his attention to his clerical duties. Through him the Western Conference was organized and the first meeting thereafter held at his house was presided over by Bishop BRIGHT. He came to Kansas as a missionary and first established a church at Mound City, preaching the first sermon at Ft. Scott, also organizing a church there. He was elected Presiding Elder for eight years, then having suffered a stroke of paralysis retired from the ministry. In 1864 he purchased property in Lecompton and he had other property which he had accumulated while traveling around. His wife was an excellent manager and attended to the farm in his absence.

The Lane University at Lecompton while not organized by him was established largely through the instrumentality of Mr. TERREL. He started in the drug business in that place, conducting it successfully and was also Postmaster.

In 1866 he removed to Perry and was the first man to engage in the drug business there. He also organized a United Brethren Church, throwing his own house open for religious meetings of all kinds. From 1878 he live retired from active business.

The second wife of Mr. TERREL died in Perry in December 1867, at the age of forty eight years, and he was a third time married to Mrs. Minerva McBride. This lady was born in New York State and is still living, making her home in California with one of her daughters. Mr. TERREL spent the last three years with his daughter, Josephine, Mrs. J. R. Pendroy, and departed this life Sept. 14, 1887. His remains were laid to rest in the Perry cemetery, which he had assisted in purchasing and laying out. He passed away honored and revered and his name will be held in kindly remembrance for many years to come. Politically, Mr. TERREL was a sound Republican and preached the abolition of slavery from the pulpit. Of the first marriage of Mr. TERREL there were born seven children, viz:

Enoch, William, Rebecca, John, Josiah, Sarah, Benjamin. The boys, with the exception of the last mentioned, who died at the age of two years, all served as soldiers in the Union Army. Of the second marriage there were born two children only: Josephine, (Mrs. J. R. Pendroy) a sketch of whom will be found elsewhere in this volume, and Mary, (Mrs. Gilfillin) of Perry.

From The Religious Telescope, Dayton Ohio, November 16, 1887:

"....converted in Fulton County, Indiana, in 1841, receiving license in 1842, like a meteor blazing and burning, he swept Ohio, northern Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and into Kansas charge with electric fire from above. His words fell upon his audiences like thunderbolts, often prostrating fifty or one hundred in the same services. In preaching Christ and him crucified he found his highest delight as long as he was able; therefore, we cheerfully adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That in the departure of Father Terrell we have lost a veteran in the ministry - a man called of God to preach, and who acquitted himself well.

2. While we would ever keep our brother with us, yet we meekly submit to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

3. We will keep in our hearts and prayers the dear children and friends Father Terrell has left behind, and pray that they and we may meet him in heaven.

From Our Heroes, Or United Brethren Home Missionaries by W. M. WEEKLEY and H. H. FOUT, United Brethren Missionary Society, U.B. Building, Dayton Ohio, 1908:

Josiah TERRELL moved to Kansas from southern Missouri in 1856, and joined himself to the handful of workers already on the ground. While preaching in Missouri he suffered many indignities at the hands of the Church's opposers, being threatened more than once with mob violence. But, like many of his contemporaries, he had given himself to the cause of human freedom, and to the work of the Church, and proposed to carry out the program at all hazard.

His chivalry knew no fear; his zeal for the kingdom know no languor. Serving as presiding elder in Kansas for years he became well know and was loved by all the churches.

Though his support was pitifully small, and his privations manifold, he always took a hopeful view of things, and believed most implicitly in a sustaining and over-ruling Providence. One illustration will serve to show the true spirit of the man. One day, when traveling in company with missionary CARDWELL, his horse mired as he entered a stream, and fell in the ice-cold water. The rider, however, with rare presence of mind, kept in the saddle, and when the horse finally came to his feet again, shouted at the top of his voice, "Glory to God for salvation." After riding many miles farther in his we clothes, in the face of a cold March wind, he preached with great power to a crowded house.

It may not be out of place, in this connection to give, briefly, the history of a church bell with which this pioneer had to do. While it may have but little relation to the general purpose of this book, it will, without doubt, interest the reader, as it has in it a touch both of the romantic and the pathetic.

On his way from General Conference in 1849, he purchased a bell in Cincinnati for a certain church in Illinois, and as he could get it for half-price paid for it himself. When the bell was put up he had a note made in the quarterly conference record to the effect that the property was his, and should be so recognized, until paid for. After a while the preaching-place was dropped, the church sold, and a lawsuit instituted by certain parties to secure the bell. While the trial was in progress the real owner rode into town, and, hearing of what was going on, at once looked up the old quarterly-conference minutes, presented them to the court, and demanded the property, which was awarded him without hesitation. It 1854 he moved the bell in his wagon to Missouri, later to Mound City, Kansas, and finally to Lecompton, when he sold it to the Presbyterians for ninety dollars.

Terrell Trails

A few years passed and these people gave up their appointment here, and built in the town of Perry, north of the Kaw River, a mile and a half distant. Being in need of a bell they decided to transfer to the new church the one they had left in Lecompton, and accordingly sent for it. But the citizens of the little burg refused most positively to see it moved. They had paid for it, they said, and proposed to keep it. Nothing more was said for a time. Finally, the Fourth of July came around. The people of Lecompton were patriotic, and all went out to a grove a mile or two away to celebrate. Upon returning home in the evening they were greatly surprised to hear the clear tones of their venerable bell ringing out from the cupola of the Perry Presbyterian Church, it having been carried away in their absence, and without their knowledge.

This was not all. Father Terrell, in his last years moved to Perry and died there; and this same bell called the people to his funeral, which was conducted by Dr. G. M. HUFFMAN (pastor at Lecompton) and tolled a solemn requiem as the procession started toward the place of burial.

ORGANIZATION OF THE KANSAS CONFERENCE

On the 30th of October, 1857, Bishop David Edwards organized the Kansas Conference in a sod house owned by S. S. SNYDER. Other helpers, who will be noticed later, had come in by this time. Five ministers besides the Bishop and two laymen were present. The church membership was about two hundred.

The following appointments were made: S. S. SNYDER, presiding elder, Tecumseh; W. H. CARDWELL; Big Springs, A. M. THORNTON; Lawrence, S. KRETZINGER; Prairie City, J. S. GINGERICH; Upper Neosho, G. PERKINS; Lower Neosho, A. Bixler; Fort Scott, J. TERRELL; Ossawotamie, W. HUFFMAN.

From The History Of The Church Of The United Brethren In Christ, Vol. II, by John LAWRENCE, Published at the United Brethren Printing Establishment, Sowers & King Publishers, Dayton, Ohio, 1861:

(A camp meeting near Joseph TERRELL's farm, 1841) Among the persons awakened at this meeting was Josiah TERRELL, a man of considerable note in his neighborhood. Being one of Satan's recruiting officers; he delighted in sports of various kinds, played the violin well, and loved the dance.

Drawn to the camp-meeting by curiosity, he was awakened, went forward to the altar, invited the attention of the people, and there made a public confession of his sinful life - expressed his determination to be a Christian, and then knelt as a penitent at the mourner's bench. While he spake, every eye was filled with tears; and after he knelt, his plaintive voice, pleading for mercy, could be distinctly heard above all other voices. But he did not find peace at the meeting. He requested Bro. LAMB, on the evening after the meeting closed, to preach at his house, which he did.

During the meeting Mr. TERREL arose, confessed how he had been attached to the fiddle, and had taught his children and neighbors to dance, asked forgiveness of all, and then deliberately taking down the offending instrument of music, he cast it into the fire. Soon after he found salvation, and began to preach; and, we may add, he proved himself a chosen vessel of the Lord.

The Lord of the harvest now began more rapidly to multiply the laborers in this widening field. At a quarterly conference held on St. Joseph circuit, in 1842, William DAVIS, the presiding elder, organized a missionary movement which operated very favorably for the cause. Three men, Joseph TERREL, Josiah TERREL, and T. J. BABCOKE, had obtained license to preach; and Mr. DAVIS informed them that he wished to employ them all as missionaries. He told them frankly that there was no missionary money to pay them - that they must depend upon the small sums given them by the people, looking for their principal reward in the world to come. They all consented, on these terms, to travel. BABCOKE was sent toward Middleburg, Joseph TERREL toward Huntington, and Josiah to the region about Leesburg. Each of these missionaries, sent out from the quarterly conference by the presiding elder, was successful in planting the church in the new fields named.

A servant, Elizabeth ALLEN, 36, is listed as a member of the household in the Census of 1870 (Indiana, Fulton Co., Rochester Twp.)

From Kingman Atlas, Excerpts Regarding Henry Township, Fulton County, Indiana:

"...the real history of the township begins with the advent of those who were its pioneers in the true sense - who left homes in the older States and come here to clear farms and establish homes in the heart of the wilderness.

Josiah TERRELL, Joseph TERRELL, William BIDDLE and Caleb STRADLEY, with their families were the first who came with this end in view. They located here in February, 1836, and during the same year were joined by others who identified themselves with the township in its earliest civilization, and with the improvements of later years. These settlers engaged at once in the usual labors of the pioneer, and before long their presence was attested by many substantial improvements in the way of cleared fields and growing crops, though as yet their dwellings were the log cabins so universally characteristic of early days."

From The Union Spy Newspaper, Rochester, Fulton County, Indiana April 18, 1872:

Some two or three weeks ago Joseph TERRELL, a well-to-do-farmer, residing near Green Oaks, this County, eloped with a Mrs. WHEEDON, the wife of one of his farm tenants. Terrell brought his own wife to town, and giving her $2,000, bade her a final adieu. Mrs. Terrell is now living in the corporation, we understand. Her late spouse was something of a preacher....as to what branch of the church he belonged, we are not informed.

WHEEDON, the lawful husband of the frail woman, died since his wife's departure, and was buried last Sunday. He was a drinking, shiftless fellow, and was frequently in jail on account of his bacchanalian propensities. It is said that Terrell used to bring his tenant to town, get him drunk, and then drive home alone and console Mrs. Wheedon. (Note: Joseph was about 64 years old at the time of this article.)

From The History Of The Church Of The United Brethren In Christ, Vol. II, By John Lawrence, Printed at the United Brethren Printing Establishment, Sowers & King Publishers, Dayton, Ohio, 1861:

In 1834 WHEEDON, who, with his wife, was a member of the United Brethren church, emigrated to Fulton Co., Ind. For thirty miles of the way they surveyed and cut their own road through the wilderness. In the forests of Fulton county, with little society except Indians, who were numerous, they erected a family altar. Often did they speak of the happiness of other years, and pray that a minister of their own church might come to their neighborhood. The autumn after their arrival, "we heard," writes Mr. TERREL, "that four families had camped on the creek, about a mile from where we resided. I went to visit them; and the first person I saw was an aged lady on her knees, with both hands lifted up in prayer. With joy I hastened home to inform my wife." These persons proved to be Methodists; and soon a prayer meeting was started at Mr. T.'s house. In the fall of 1839 John TALBERT, as before stated, opened a mission in Fulton and adjoining counties. "One day," writes Mr. TERREL, "while plowing in my field, about twenty rods from the road, I saw a man riding along, who looked so much like a United Brethren minister, that I started toward him to hail him; but thinking I might be mistaken, I returned to my plow. The stranger passed on to the next house; and thinking, perhaps that the family he had passed were Brethren, made inquiry, and as a matter of course soon returned. He formed, at TERREL's, a class eight members. This was the first society planted in a region of country extending one hundred and fifty miles, north and south.

These incidents are related to show how great, often, are the religious wants of the pioneers of the church, how much they appreciate religious society, and especially the visits of their own ministers, and how greatly the morality of the country is indebted to them for the interest which they manifest in establishing institutions of Christianity.

But to return to our narrative; in the autumn of 1840 a camp-meeting was held near Joseph TERREL's, during which not less than fifty conversions to God occurred. Only eight tents were erected on the ground.

In August, 1841, another camp-meeting was held, on the same ground, which was, confessedly, one of the most powerful meetings ever held in that country. The ground was surrounded with tents, and a great number of people assembled. One incident occurred which deserves special notice. (See file of Josiah TERREL)

Children of Joseph TERREL and Caroline HANDLEY are:

1-1-10-1. Ellit TERRELL, b. ca1831, Champaign Co., Ohio. One record says E. Terrell is "male". 1850 Census lists Ellit Terrell as "female", but also erroneously lists David Terrell as "female." Handwritten record of census gives the impression that the dot of the i slipped to make a letter t.

FAMILY OR FAMILIES OF JAMES TERRELL BORN BEFORE 1723

By Dr. Tommy Johnson

Several years ago the late Marguerite MONK Young called me and said she wanted a family genealogy on the WHITTINGTONS solved. Someone had told her to contact me since I had a reputation as a detective genealogist.

She wanted to know what WHITTINGTON family was Mary Polly WHITTINGTON who married her ancestor and that of my wife Liz, Richard WHITTINGTON, married April, 1798. This was a case of a WHITTINGTON marrying a WHITTINGTON.

She sent me copies of all her research on the WHITTINGTON family. After completely reading all her materials, I called her with shocking news. Richard had married his niece, Mary Polly WHITTINGTON daughter of his brother Cornelius to which Marguerite quipped--that explains why WHITTINGTONs are still marrying 1st and 2nd cousins--they are all nuts. ☺

Now for solving a mystery about James TERRELL born before 1723.

After thoroughly searching through many posting on James on the internet, my opinion is that he had three wives.

1st he married Elizabeth ? and had Philemon and Richmond--they were both Revolutionary War Veterans and constantly moved and traveled together. In the data on them nothing is mentioned of other close siblings.

The reason: after Elizabeth died he married 2nd Mary Margaret WATKINS and had several children--Philemon and Richmond are not listed as Margaret's children.

Material on the internet states that James married 3rd Mary THOMAS--no children listed.

James TERRELL's parents are William TERRELL and Martha Susanna WATERS.

As stated previously the above is my opinion after review of data. It is hoped that this will help many TERRELL researchers.

Some TERRELL researchers do not agree with my information. Let me stress this is my opinion and is not written in concrete.

Hello Don,

I will list below my ancestor and my mailing address. I will gladly send you a self addressed envelope if you would like for any information on my g-great-grandfather.

Thank you so much for keeping all of our information where new researchers like myself can sort of take a look back to the life that gave us life.

By the way, if you would want a copy for your records, I have a picture of Monroe TERRELL (my g-great-grandfather) that my great uncle gave me recently. I also have my great-grand parents marriage license, Daniel Marion SMITH and Mary Lee TERRELL.

William James TERRELL b. ca1855; Married: Susan STRAHAN; they had 7 children, the oldest son: Monroe TERRELL; Married: Emma JONES Sept. 2, 1897.

They had only three children that I know of, the youngest was Mary Lee TERRELL b. April 24, 1901. Married: Daniel Marion SMITH. They had 10 children, including my grandfather Luther Allen SMITH. His younger brother Recy is who gave me the picture and story of Monroe. He told me that Monroe died at a young age while "target shooting" out back. He says that he and a neighbor were out shooting or trying out a new rifle and a bullet ricocheted off of a fence post a hit him in the head and he didn't live but a few days after that. He remembers his father telling him the story but wasn't sure of Monroes age.

Marilyn,

I think I found you a match. It is not a perfect match, but it is pretty good. I found your William James TERRELL in the 1880 census of Water Holes, Marion Co, Miss. (p. 314D) listed as follows:William TERRELL Self M M W 25 MS Farmer MS MSSusan TERRELL Wife F M W 20 MS Keeping House MS MS Monroe TERRELL Son M S W 5 MS MS MSBlair [Blair?]TERRELL Son M S W 2 MS MS MSI had previously been unable to match this William with any family group. However, I knew from a consolidated list of Mississippi marriages that Monroe TERRELL married Emma JONES in Marion Co, Miss., On 2 Sep 1897.

Terrell Trails

Now comes your information that William's full name is William James TERRELL.

In my database I have two persons named William James TERRELL. One is born in 1846, Tenn.; the other in 1846 Miss. But for the date of birth, the Mississippi TERRELL seems to match your man.

He is William James TERRELL, b. 1846, son of James Monroe TERRELL (b. 1820) and Nancy JAMISON (b. 1824). His brothers and sisters are: Mary E. TERRELL (b. 1844, Miss.), George M. TERRELL (b. 1844, Miss.), Julia E. TERRELL (b. 1849, Miss.); Angeline Clemenus TERRELL (b. 1853, Miss.); John P. TERRELL (b. 1853, Miss.); Thomas Philemon TERRELL (b. 1853, Miss.; d. 1915, Miss.); Plummer B. TERRELL (b. 1858, Miss.), and Amelia Lisa TERRELL (b. 1864, Miss.)

James' parents are found in 1850 Marion Co, Miss. (James is in household), 1860 Harrison Co, Miss. (James is in household), 1870 Washington Parish, LA. (James is not in household), and 1880 Washington Parish, La. (James is not in household).

The persuasive linkage is:

- (a) the identical names William James TERRELL
- (b) carrying forward the name Monore
- (c) location: James apparently still had ties to Marion Co, Miss.

I believe that the birth date for my cataloged James (1846) is correct, since "William James TERRELL" clearly appears in the 1850 census. The question to be resolved is: is the 1855 birth date shown in the 1880 census correct? Is it supported by other evidence or other census records? Census ages are full of errors.

If this man is a match, I have the ancestry of James Monroe TERRELL back many generations.

Don,

I think you have found my William TERRELL. I know that you are right about the census ages, I have found several errors myself. I have the same census information that you have from Marion Co.,MS. plus a little more.

William James TERRELL is also listed in the 1900 census with 5 children in 1900 in Marion Co. William James TERRELL m. Susan STRAHAN Their children are Monroe TERRELL b. April 1876, Dolphus Blair TERRELL b. 1878, Gerramiah TERRELL b. unknown, Mary TERRELL b. July 1888, Plummer TERRELL b. 1891, Zander TERRELL b. 1894 and Julie TERRELL b. unknown. I received this information between my family members and Susan Strahan's g-granddaughter.

As you know, Monroe married Emma JONES in 1897. They had three children that I know of. Edna TERRELL b. unknown, Wyley TERRELL b. May 1898 and Mary Lee TERRELL b. April 24, 1901, my mothers name sake. Emma did remarry after Monroe died and his name was JENKINS. Mary Lee TERRELL married Daniel Marion SMITH on September 28, 1913. Mary Lee d. July 12, 1987. I only remember visiting her a few times in my childhood. She is buried in Pleasant Home Cemetery in Lamar Co., MS. You'll not find this information on the net anywhere but I know this because she is buried in the same cemetery as much of my family. In fact, in March my mothers mother passed away and I visited her grave and placed flowers there...so I know this is correct. The reason I say this is because my great-grandfather Daniel SMITH is buried in the Allen Cemetery in Harrison Co., MS. they had an estranged marriage for many years. In fact, I have yet to be able to find out for sure if they ever divorced but they lived the last half of their lives apart.

Anyhow, they had 10 children. Unfortunately most of them had passed away when I started this search and much of the dates are lost, for now. There children were Luther Allen SMITH (my grand father) b. March 4, 1914, d. March 20, 1993 and is buried in Woodland Baptist Cemetery in Springfield, LA.

I only have one other date but the rest are as follows, my grand father was the oldest child. Stella SMITH, Ruby SMITH, Velma SMITH, Howard SMITH, Catheline SMITH, Virgil SMITH, H.L. SMITH, Recy SMITH b. February 11, 1937, and Thomas SMITH. I am so excited to be able to get any information on Williams ancestors and yes you are right, its amazing how the "family name" like Monroe will come down through generations.

Thank you again so much for help in closing some of the gaps I have found. I will be very thankful for anything you can send me.

Terrell Trails

Marilyn, The information you found in the 1900 census regarding William TERRELL of Marion Co, Miss., confirms that this is the same man as I list in my database. The connection becomes extremely probable because he named his own child Plummer TERRELL (b. 1891). This would be the namesake of his brother younger Plummer B. TERRELL (b. 1858) (still living with his parents in 1880). I have linked a database of more than 40,000 TERRELLs/Terrills and their descendants (by various surnames). Among the TERRELL/Terrill surnames, "Plummer" is unique to Plummer B. TERRELL (b. 1858). This makes the link a near-certainty.

I have the ancestry of William James TERRELL back a few generations. If you would like a printout of this information, please provide me a postal address. There is no cost, this is my hobby.

If there is any additional information or detail on the descendants of William James TERRELL that you would like to share, I would be happy to add it to my database.

Hi Don,

My name is Judy TERRELL Day. I am trying to connect an ancestor to Edmund TERRELL of VA. My father's name was Paul E. TERRELL, b. 9/16/1913 in Monroe Co., IN; his father was Harvey Ephraim TERRELL, b. 2/15/1886, Clay Co., IL; his father's name was James William TERRELL, b. 2/1/1851, Greene Co., IN; his father's name was William Washington TERRELL, b. 2/4/1819 in Greene Co., IN; his father's name was John TERRELL, b. 9/2/1796 in VA. Do you have anything on this John that goes back further? I am very hopeful! Judith TERRELL Day

1840 census, Ind., Greene Co, p. 226: TERRELL, John

1850 census, Ind., Greene Co, Richland, p. 320: John TERREL (farmer), b. Va.

1860 census, Ind., Greene co, Richland, p. 734: John TERRELL (farmer), b. Va.

I found other family members at the following locations:

1870 Ind., Greene Co, pp. 404-405

1880 Ind., Greene Co, p. 140C

Frankly, I could not identify William Washington TERRELL in the 1850 census (unless his age is mistakenly listed as 22 [b. 1828], nor in 1860 or 1870. I found James William TERRELL (I think) in 1880 married to Alice __, but could not find his father William. (1880 Ind., Greene Co, Richland, p. 140C).

Other researchers have concluded that John senior was married to Margaret WORKMAN. I have never been able to link him with any degree of certainty to the Terrells in my 40,000-person linked database of families.

You think that he may have been the son of Edmund TERRELL. I have 12 Edmund Terrells (descended from Richmond TERRELL), and none of them qualify (by life span) to be the father of John. On the other hand I have 20 Edmund TERRILLs (descended from Timothy TERRILL), and one of them may qualify (as reported by Dicken in her 1952 book, p. 48): Edmund TERRILL (b. ca. 1756; d. Ky.) Son of John TERRILL and Elizabeth Ann TOWLES. Edmund is known to have had a son named John, of whom nothing is known. There is a nice casual relationship suggested by this limited information, but the proof (if it exists) must be found by someone searching Kentucky and Greene Co, Ind., county records.

Meanwhile, I can provide you with names and last-known addresses of three other researchers who are tracing various components of this family:

I'm sorry that I cannot provide more information, but John TERRELL/TERRILL and Margaret WORKMAN are one of my unsolved mysteries.

Don C. TERRILL

My name is Jo Beth BAYLOR Wetch. I signed up to the TERRELL web site because my mother was a TERRELL. Her name was Madge TERRELL Baylor. Her father was Clayburn H. TERRELL. My Great Grandfather's name was Claburn Hubbard TERRELL who married Mabel Alice Parsons PIERSON in Gonzales TX. My Great Grandfather had quite a few siblings whose names were the twins Edmund TERRELL, Jr.(Neb) and Rigdon TERRELL (Fats), a sister Rosa TERRELL Haimer; a sister Mary A. (Bagley) *Aunt Duty, a sister named Edith? who my grandfather thought died at birth, Claire A. TERRELL Embrey; a sister Beatrice "Batsy" TERRELL Bagby. They were from the San Antonio, Texas area. I look forward to hearing from you. Jo Beth Wetch baylor01@hotmail.com

Hi there Don,

I have just been reading Rootsweb forum and you seem to have your hands on a fact or four. Could I ask you a bit of a query. My line goes up through George Hicks TERRILL b: Nov 22,1830 Redruth CON. His father was Thomas TERRILL b: Feb 28, 1808 Redruth CON, sp: Mary WILLIAMS. Now I do not have much in the way of support data for Thos & Mary. I have mobs of IGI gear which has a number of doubtful links. But in particular I am interested here in Thomas's son James b: Feb 26, 1833, and James Hicks TERRILL b: Jul 4 1835. Another sibling George Hicks TERRILL married and left for here Australia Aug 2, 1854, then supposedly Thomas and spouse and James ?? went to the States, James maybe died while swimming in the Ohio river ?. I can only be vague about the happenings in the States as it only reaches me per mouth.

Don, can you fill in some of the cracks please. It seems that to trace a family line there in the States is assured of plenty of databases being available, but here in Aus or it seems in Cornwall for that matter, well things are a lot different. All the best for your own research and to your family, David C Terrill, Goldcoast, Aust. dcterrill@bigpond.com

David,

I have assembled a transcript of the U.S. census records of every Terrell/Terrill (etc.) who appears in the Southern states, plus Ohio and Indiana, for the years 1790 through 1880. I am presently working on 1900. (1890 was lost in a Washington DC fire in the 1920s.)

I have searched this data for the years 1860, 1870, and 1880 for Thomas and James Terrill, as you have described them. I found only one doubtful candidate, as follows:

Year 1860, Benton, Polk County, Tennessee, p. 200/461

James Terrill, age 27, mine laborer, b. England

J. C. TERRELL 1861 - 1945 blacksmith

J. E. (Bob) TERRELL 1897 - no death date body donated to science

Becky,

I believe this is Jasper TERRELL gravesite. Sonja & I plan to go by on the way to the reunion to check it out. Sonja just don't know it yet. LOL Glenda T. Easter

Becky,

I know this has to be the gravesites of my g-grandparents Jasper & Della, her maiden name was OWSLEY. I also know that my g-great-grandfather died in 1945. What I'm not sure of is the initials J. E. for Bob. I'm not sure what they stand for, I just know that they called him uncle Bob and I know that he died after 1971 as he owned a headstone business and made the one for my grandfather Joseph. Uncle Bob lived in Longview, Texas. We went there to pick up the headstone for my grandfather who died in 1971. My Dad says that he thought that he had been cremated. I will see if I can find out what J.E. stands for. I am sure it is him though. Thanks so much for checking this out, it really means a lot to me. Glenda Terrell Easter

PARKDALE CEMETERY - ASHLEY COUNTY,

Ashley County is neighboring county of Union, which at the present day is between Ashley and Columbia County where Village Cemetery is. In 1850, Columbia County didn't exist. It was either part of Union County or Lafayette County which, at this date, is the next one over from Columbia.
Wonder if this could possibly have been a first wife of Jasper's, since the locations are relative.

Editor's Note: The first question that crossed my mind; "How reliable is your information that shows
James as the husband of Elizabeth, and/or that James was deceased?"

Another possibility: Elizabeth m. James and had all or part of the children, he died. She then m. William (who may have been a brother of James, or no relation) and may, or may not have had additional children. If she m. William after coming to WI, marriage records there may solve the mystery. DFB

CARD OF THANKS

I thank each and everyone who called, sent card, emailed, or otherwise expressed your sympathies in the loss of my wife, Brenda. Each of you is like immediate family because of the personal correspondence and other communications we have exchanged over the past 20 years.

The officers and I thank you for your continued support. Without you, the Society would have ceased to exist long ago.

Sincerely,
