Dan,
 Going through the Spring 2004 "Terrell Trails" and examining the "James Terrell Descendants" at pp. 1765-1767. The author, Latrell Marie Monk Griffin lists two of James' children as Philemon and Richmond. This is very, very, very unlikely. James' will was written in 1766 in Caroline Co, Va. At that time both Philemon and his brother Richmond were living, yet James' makes no mention of them in his will. If the father of Philemon and Richmond Terrell was "James Terrell," it had to be a different James Terrell than this one.

TERRELL/RICHARDSON/WYNN LINE

My husband's name is Bruce & he connects to the Terrells through his maternal WYNNE/WYNN line. His maternal GGGgrandmother is Mary T RICHARDSON (21 Jun 1798 Georgia - 19 Apr 1845 Crew Lake, Richland Parish, LA; buried New Salem Cemetery, Richland Parish, LA) who married Richmond Williamson WYNN (22 Sep 1789 Greensville Co, VA - 9 August 1858 Crew Lake, Richland Parish, LA; buried New Salem Cemetery, Richland Parish, LA). Richmond's parents were Green WYNNE and Hannah TYUS who married 23 Dec 1785 in Greensville Co, VA. I have dates & children on them & can send you that information. Both Green & Hannah died in Jones Co, GA; Richmond & Mary married there 26 March 1816. I have copies of both marriage licenses.

Mary T. RICHARDSON was the daughter of Joel RICHARDSON (son of Mary TERRELL & Isham RICHARDSON) & Phoebe LANGDON.

I found some interesting information on the RICHARDSON family last year in Early Records of Georgia - Wilkes County Abstracted & compiled by Grace Gillam Davidson (Mrs. John Lee).

Joel died before his father, Isham: Page 139: Wilkes County, Georgia - Minutes of Inferior Court 1799-1801

Page 75 - Feb 24, 1801. Benjamin and Mary RICHARDSON, orphans of Joel RICHARDSON, dec'd. Thomas TERRELL appointed guardian [My Note: Based on this information, Joel died abt 24 Feb 1801. It makes sense that they would have wasted no time appointing a guardian for Mary (b 21 Jun 1798) and her younger brother, Benjamin (born bet Mar 1799 (9 mos after Mary) and Feb 1801 (time guardian was appointed).]

Thomas TERRELL was appointed administrator of Joel RICHARDSON's estate. Phoebe (Joel's widow) remarried Pearce A LEWIS sometime after 1801.

Joel's sister, Elizabeth RICHARDSON Branham, was appointed administrator of her husband, Spencer BRANHAM's, estate 11 Jun 1808.

After father Isham's death, things got very interesting. At some point Thomas TERRELL was replaced as guardian of Benjamin RICHARDSON by Richard WYNNE and Pierce A LEWIS (brother-in-law & step-father of Benjamin) and they filed suit against Benjamin's aunt, Elizabeth RICHARDSON Branham, over Grandpa Isham's will: Page 134 of Early Records of GA:

Page 158 - Richard WYNNE and Pierce A. LEWIS [my note: brother-in-law & step-father respectively of Benjamin], guardians of Benjamin RICHARDSON, vs. Elizabeth Branham, applicant for probate of Isham RICHARDSON's will. Admitted to record. You see, Isham RICHARDSON's will (from Will Book 1818-19) said that the land he lived on would go to his daughter Elizabeth for widowhood, then to her nephew Benjamin (son of Joel), and if Benjamin died without heirs to Elizabeth's son Isham BRANHAM (I wasn't aware of Joel Branham). Isham's will was signed 3 Mar 1810 and probated 4 Jun 1816 (long period before probate but most likely reason will be found below). John RICE, Garland RICE & Peter TERRELLS were testators.

The last I've found was found on page 279 of Early Records of GA: "RICHARDSON, Isham, dec'd. Richmond WYNNE, Pierce A LEWIS, gdn of Benj. RICHARDSON, Elizabeth and Isham Branham applicants for proof of Isham RICHARDSON's will. Interrogatories to Thos TERRELL who lives out of the county [my note: uncle & original guardian of Mary T & Benjamin]: Do you know the parties in this case? Do you know anything relating to the last will of Isham RICHARDSON? Have you heard Mrs. Elizabeth Branham the applicant acknowledge she procured the making of the will by undue influence? Alex. POPE atty for the caveators, John BURCH atty for the applicants waives the usual ten days and asks that the case be called at once. Dec 26, 1810."

I'm writing to Wilkes Co to see what they can give me on this matter.

At any rate, and to throw more at you (sorry guys), Phoebe Langdon RICHARDSON & Pearce A LEWIS had children and one of the daughters married a sister of Richmond Williamson WYNN (who married Mary T RICHARDSON). So we've got 1/2 sisters marrying brothers.

Anyhow, here's information on the descendants of Mary T RICHARDSON & Richmond Williamson WYNN. If you'd like more on Richmond's siblings or the children of Pearce A LEWIS & Phoebe LANGDON Richardson let me know. This will take you down to Bruce's grandparents Lisa Franklin; Rosepine, LA; phoenix@wnonline.net

Dear May,
You sent to me a letter which said:

Conway, AR
August 31, 2002

Dear Don,
You answered a request about James L. TERRELL on Dec. 2000 by my daughter Janie Heffington. You verified a 1850 census I had found on Oren TERRELL family he states he was from Ga. and wife Nancy CRUMP from Mo. I have found her parents are Richard CRUMP and Sarah SMITH; they came from Ky. To Mo. CA1819, had a large family. I found them in 1820 Calloway Co, Mo. census. I have found no other record of her with family line. I have wondered if they dropped her for marrying an Indian?

I have been to Batesville, AR, to check their Old Hickory Museum. I found in 1815 were 15 families came and settled in Goodie Creek along White River on Oil Trough later called Rosie. Oren did not come with them until later. He came with Essix CAPSTRAW from Rutherford Co, No. Carolina. He went to an Indian village and married Elizabeth a Cherokee Indian chief's daughter. He was in Livingston Co, Ky., in 1799. In 1802 he & wife were granted 800 acres of land in Livingston Co, Ky., Certificate No. 435 & 436. They had a son William & a daughter Payton TUCKER married. He was appointed guardian of William in 1823 when Capshow's wife died. He died in 1827. Wm. PUD-DLEY & DODD family; John WATT & Samuel WATT he died in Lawrence Co, AR, 1817. These families seem to have married into Indian families.

1. I found in Lawrence Co, AR, Deed Book B 1817-25 where on Nov 1817 Oren spoke of a military discharge on July 25, 1805. Is there some way you could track this and found more of Oren TERRELL for us?

2. I found their Marriage Recorded 1808-1835 Nov 22, 1821. I could not get a copy of the marriage license as they stated at that time these records were lost.

3. Found in 1822 Land Grant in Craighead Co. for Orren TERRILL for serving in Army of U.S. Sharon Rimmer, my niece, found where President James MONROE granted this. Could you also trace this military service record to see if home state and parents are recorded anywhere?

4. I found a story of Land Case 1825 that included a lot of the families that were living in area of Independence Co, AR. Oren & Nancy were in the list of inheritance. I found in Springfield, MO, library last fall a "History of Calloway Co., MO. There were DUDDLEYS, WATTS, & TERRELL there at same time as CRUMPS. I have also found a James A. TERRELL, b. 1792, in Orange Co, N.C., married to Susannah MIDDLEBROOK, b. 1795, in Va. He died in Washington Co, Mo. I have wondered if it could have been James in the 1830 census. They state a daughter Martha Ann b. 1832 in Mo.

5. I have found tax records though 1850 for Oren, but no death or cemetery record. Found Hiram's family record 1860; have wondered about the 2 born in AR. Oren's Nancy would have been 23 and his son Hiram. Census states Hiram is from Ohio. I have been there trying to trace a lot of TERRELLS that have come from Ohio, coming westward. Some come through Ky.

6. Found James TERRELL in 1870 census of Ind., Co. Have his record of marriage to our Nancy Jane RINNER (b. 1851) in 1871 in Jefferson Co, AR. My mother, daughter of Emma & Joseph BATTLES, stated James TERRELL worked in mines and died of lung disease in 1880 – buried Old Texan. Your letter arrived while I was recovering from an illness, and starting to catch up on deferred personal affairs and research.

Since I cannot recall what information I furnished to Janie in December 2000, I shall try to start over.

First, regarding James A. TERRILL who married Susannah Middlebrook, I cannot discover any connection between him and Oren. It is my best estimation that this James appears in the 1830 census of Orange Co, Va. (p. 331) rather than 1830 Missouri, since his son William (b. 1838) was born in Orange Co, and his daughter Nancy Jane (b. 1840) was born in Washington Co, Mo. His daughter Martha Ann TERRILL married Hamilton TERRILL (a 2nd cousin), and as of 1880 they were both still living in Macdonald Co, Mo. I have to tell you that my census index for the 1830 census does not show a James TERRELL in Missouri; however, indexes are filled with flaws because of the difficulty of reading the handwriting on the census pages.

Oren TERRELL is one of my (many) unsolved mysteries. "Orin" or "Orren" is a unique name among my Southern TERRELLS; whereas, Robert Wilson Tirrell in his 1969 book "The Tirrell Tirrill-TERRILL Tyrrell Book" documents three Massachusetts TERRILLs named "Orrin" (none of whom match your man). On www.GenCircles.com I found An Orrin H. TERRILL (wife unk.) whose grandfather was from Connecticut and who was the father of William Peet TERRILL (b. 1822, m. 1843 in Canada)(LDS shows Orrin born in Conn.) – probably unrelated to yours. LDS has another Orren TER-

Cemetery, Guy, AR. I was very fortunate to have James' Family Bible given to me before my mother of 99½ died last of June 2001.

7. I'm sorry I have been so long about thanking you for your help so far in our family search. I am almost 77. Eight years ago tomorrow I lost all my stomach with a rare fast cancer. So far, my yearly test comes free of cancer. My health is good now, but I tire real easy. I have enjoyed what time I have to search for my roots. Sharon Rimmer & I share "TERRELL Trails," also Emma Dicken's genealogy. Her email srimmer@teworks.net. You may answer to her.

RELL born in N.Y. (1839). This is a strong hint that Oren has New England roots.

My first discovery of Oren is in the reconstructed 1820 census of Arkansas. In that patchwork document he appears in Independence Co, Ark., in 1818; and he appears in Lawrence Co, Ark., in 1821. This is interesting, since Independence Co wasn't created until 23 Oct 1820 (in part from Lawrence Co).

"Orren TERRILL" was granted 160 acres of land in Craighead Co, Ark., on 29 Apr 1822 under the Scrip-Warrant Act of 6 May 1812 (2 Stat. 728), document #25113. The certificate says "for service as Pvt. In Capt. Wilkonson's Company of the 24th Regt. of Infantry." All U.S. Government land grants are made in the name of the President, and someone signs for him. The discharge date of 1805 (which you provided) seemed unrealistic, since Orren would have to enlist at age 14 or younger. Only musicians could enlist that young.

I searched Revolutionary War records but did not find Oren. I searched "Compiled Service records of Volunteer Soldiers who Served from 1784 to 1811" (National Archives) and did not find him (these were activated militia soldiers).

I searched "Registers of Enlistments in the United States Army 1798-1914" (National Archives Record Group M233) – these are Regular Army enlistments. And, I found him. This is the data: TERRILL, Orrin (probably the correct spelling of his name), rank Private, 24th U.S. Infantry Regiment commanded by Capt Williamson (Spool 12, 1798 to 17 May 1815).

Terrell Trails

At time of enlistment he was a farmer, blue eyes, fair hair, fair complexion, and born in Ohio Co, Va. He enlisted 4 April 1814 for the war. He was discharged at St. Louis on 24 Jul 1815 when his term expired. There is reference to a pension case; but I have personally examined all of the original copies of TERRELL (etc.) War of 1812 pension applications, and did not find him. From St. Louis, we can imagine him beginning his Western adventure.

Next we find him as "Orron TERRILL" in the 1830 census of Independence Co, Ark. Also in this county are James Terrel and Hiram Terril. I cannot tell if these are neighbors; however, Orrin will name one of sons Hiram.

Next we find him as "Orin TERRELL" in the 1840 census of Christian, Izard Co, Ark. Izard Co was formed from Independence co on 27 Oct 1825. Living nearby (next census page) is Hiram TERRELL also living in Christian. This suggests that Hiram is his father or brother. Unfortunately, my 40,000+ person database does not include a suitable "Hiram" (wrong dates or wrong place).

Finally, the 1850 census of Christian, Independence Co, Ark. (p. 368) lists him as follows:

779 779	Oren TERRELL	59 M W Farmer	Ga.
	Nancy	" 42 F	Mo.
	Sarah	" 15 F	Ark.
	Hiram	" 8 M	Ark.
	Elizabeth	"4 F	Ark.
	James	" 1 M	Ark.
	Martha Westmoreland	27F	Ark.
	William Bailey	8 M	Ark.
	Elizabeth Westmoreland	6/12 F	Ark.

Hiram is gone. But – ahah! – a very likely Hiram TERRELL shows up in Caldwell Co, Ky. (p. 390), as follows:

739 739	Hiram TERRILL	53 M W Farmer	Va.
	Nancy	" 25 F	Ky.
	Levi	" 16 M Farmer	Ark.
	James	" 13 M	Ark.
	Nancy	" 8 F	Ark.
	Sarah A.	" 2 F	Ky.
	Happee B.	" 1 F	Ky.

Is there a family connection? "Hiram" is a very uncommon name among Southern TERRELLs. It is much more common among Northern TERRELLs. An interesting speculation; however, there is an important (but not fatal) disconnect: Oren says he was born in 1791 in Georgia; and Hiram says he was born in 1793 in Virginia. (I went back and took another look at the 1850 hand census entry for Oren, and it very clearly says "Ga.") I've seen some odd migration patterns, but this would be the first Georgia-to-Virginia migration I've encountered. I think the census clerk mis-recorded "Va." as "Ga." Unfortunately, the old scraps of paper that we rely upon for this information are filled with inaccuracies.

In 1860 this same Hiram is back in Independence Co, Ark.; and now he says that he was born in Ohio. I wish he would make up his mind.

I could not find son James in 1870 Independence Co, Ark., (or anywhere else). There is a James TERRELL living there (p. 30) (age 25 v. age 21) married to Sarah A. ___ (b. 1829). The same is true for 1880. The afore-mentioned James is there (now married to "Adoline," b. 1828), and he is a farmer. Neither could I find Nancy Jane TERRELL.

If Nancy Jane TERRELL survived to 1900, I certainly could not find her in Arkansas.

Now, let us drop back. If Orrin is from Ohio Co, Va. (W.Va.), born ca. 1791, who are his parents? The 1787 Virginia state census of Ohio Co shows Jarrett TERRELL with two males in the household. The reconstructed 1790 Va. census shows no TERRELLs in Ohio Co. The 1810 Va. census shows Daniel, Daniel, Eli and Abner TERRELL. 1820 shows only Daniel. 1830 shows Daniel and Aos (Amos) TERRELL. 1840 shows Daniel and Jeret TERRILL.

Daniel Terril is known to me. He is from New Jersey, and he and his wife Jane settled in Ohio Co in 1794 or earlier. He died in 1847, but in the 1850 census his sons Daniel Jr. and Jeremiah are still living in the county. No "Orrin" or "Hiram" documented in this family.

Terrell Trails

However, there is yet a second New England family that has some attachment to Ohio Co, Va. (W.Va.). A researcher (whose name I did not record since I am not researching or reconstructing New England families) says that Jared T. TERRILL (b. 25 Dec 1757, Waterbury, New Haven, Conn.; d. 1832-36, Middle Grave Creek, Marshall Co, Va. [W.Va.]) who married Sarah Margaret ___ (b. 1761, Waterbury, Conn.), son of Moses TERRILL and Susannah BARNES of Waterbury, Conn. (Roger TERRILL clan). Settled in Marshall Co, Va. (W.Va.) which adjoins Ohio Co. His son Amos (Aos) is in the 1830 census of Ohio Co, Va. Bruce W. Tyrrell, in his 1995 book Roger and Abigail (Ufford) TERRILL and Some Descendants, 1632-1993, shows Jared TERRILL (a Revolutionary Soldier) as having only one child: Jared Daniel TERRILL (b. ca. 1780)(pp. 71-72). This son seems to still be in Marshall Co in 1850 (p. 328), along with his own sons Amos (p. 245) and Sherman (p. 259). I tend to think the Orrin may be an undocumented child of Jared TERRILL. The book's author does not suggest that Jared had no other children than Jared Daniel TERRILL.

I'm afraid this is as far as I can take you with the information available to me. I suggest you search the surviving records of Ohio and Marshall Counties, West Virginia.

From your letter it is not clear to me who married Elizabeth, the Cherokee Indian. If it was Orrin, by 1850 he is married to Nancy, who is "white." The family probably would have shunned an Indian wife, but Uncle Sam would have counted her in the census if she was living outside the Indian nation or reservation. No suitable "Elizabeth TERRELL" in the 1850 census of Arkansas.

Indians, especially mixed blood, living off the reservation were provided a strong incentive to register and declare their ancestry to the Dawes Commission of the U.S. Government between 1898 and 1914 and divide about $4 million in Indian trust money. Most of them registered during 1902-1903. I have examined those applications (both "accepted" and "rejected") at the National Archives (Record Group 75, Series 53A), and none of them refer to Oren TER-

RELL. Several TERRELL families (including mine) have stories about an Indian maiden in the ancestry, and most of them turn out to be imaginary. In my case, my great-grandfather was the source of this whopper. He thought it was funny to string his kids along with this story. It was believed by three generations until my research in 1987-88 disproved it.

Sincerely,
Don C. TERRILL
(with the TERRELL Society of America)

RICHARD GRAY TERRELL and JESSE HILL TERRELL

Written by Great Granddaughter, Betty Terrell Owens

BeTER_77@aol.com

December 2003

Richard Gray TERRELL was born in the Hillsboro area, less than ten miles from El Dorado in Union County, Arkansas. He was born 15 December 1862, (ref: death certificate), or in 1863 (date on gravestone, Cemetery Records Smith Co. TX Vol. III, Southwest Quarter, page 197; 1900 census of Smith Co. TX). His father was Thomas C. Terrell, and his mother was Sarah Ellen TATUM Terrell. Richard Gray Terrell was enumerated on the 1880 census of Union Co. AR. He married Lula GIVENS, 23 January 1883, in Smith County, TX, and 2nd Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" HILL on 3 April 1898 in Smith County, TX.

Family tradition is that Richard's mother sent him out one night to get some coal oil, and he did not return until twenty years later with some coal oil in hand. (Source: Douglas Terrell). His daughter, Eunice HOPSON said he "left home to see the world." Perhaps he had heard family stories about his maternal great grandmother, Rachel WALKER VARDEMAN who died in Rusk County Texas in 1854, and his three VARDEMAN uncles who had served as Texas Rangers, and these stories caused him to head for Texas. (one source: Remembering

Douglas Terrell said he was told that when Richard returned to his old home in Arkansas, he gave a signal "Rebel type yell" used as a password during the Civil War at the lane to his home, and a black man there said "It's Master Dick, he's come home." Richard's mother was not on the 1880 census. Twins were born to her in 1874. She is presumed deceased by 1880.

A deed of conveyance is found on Page 1, Book MM in the Courthouse in Union Co. AR. In it, on the 29th day of January, 1890, Richard G. TERRELL sold for $246.00, one black horse/ mule about ten years old, and the cotton already planted on 30 acres. His son, Minor TERRELL, was born there (Source: 1910 Census).

Aunt Eunice Hopson said that her father was fair with blue eyes, and that his son, Uncle Steve TERRELL was "the spitting image of him." She said that Aunt Grace, her sister, had his eyes.

Richard Gray TERRELL was called "Ritchie" in his father's will and was known as Dick TERRELL in Texas. He made his living in sawmills, and the logging business. All his children except Minor TERRELL were born in various sawmill towns in East Texas.

Richard Gray TERRELL was employed by the McMann or McMinn Sawmill in Henderson Co. TX. It was located on the Neches River, and the family lived there. Eugene TERRELL was born there. Richard ran the ferry across the "Big Eddy" on the Neches River near Chandler, Texas. The ferry was owned by the owner of the saw mill. This was before the bridge was built across "Big Eddy". The "old Ferry" crossing was where many families went for picnics and swimming in the 1940's. At one time, loggers put logs in the Neches to float them down to the saw mill. Richard Gray TERRELL operated a steam powered boat that worked with pulling the logs down the river. He built a bridge across Fork Creek at the fork of the Neches and Kickapoo Rivers and it was called Terrell's Crossing. A log road was built in conjunction with the crossing, and this was built with the help of Eugene TERRELL and his brothers.

Douglas Terrell said in the area where "Terrell's Crossing" was located, that his father, Eugene

"Gene" TERRELL, had sunk big hollow logs to make a habitat for catfish. They would go there, and as "Gene" could hold his breath longer than Douglas could hold his, "Gene" would dive down to try to catch a catfish. The method involved tying a rope to oneself, and tying on a plank to block the fish from going out the other end of the log. One time, "Gene" had tied the rope to his hand, and was taking an extra long time to surface. When he finally came up, he had a 22 pound catfish with him. These logs were used to put catfish on the TERRELL family tables during the Depression years.

Along about 1935, there was a forest of very large old trees that grew in the Neches River vicinity in Henderson County, TX. The National Guard had used the trees for target practice for a long time. About this time, Tom TERRELL, Richard Gray TERRELL's eldest son, bought the timber, and proceeded to cut it. The community was very angry that the trees were being cut. Douglas TERRELL said it could have very well been a natural virgin stand of trees. He described it as very, very beautiful. Eugene TERRELL was employed there for a long time, doing nothing but sharpening the saws that were used to cut the trees. They were full of shells that had been shot by the National Guard, and dulled or broke the many saws used to cut the trees.

Richard Gray "Dick" and Lula Terrell had seven children:

1. Thomas "Tom" C. TERRELL: (1886-1955) (He had the same name as Dick Terrell's father.) He married Ethel RASH.
2. Mittie E.: TERRELL (1882-1907) (Dick Terrell's mother was named Ellen.....Could the E. be for Ellen?) She married W.L.HUBBARD.
3. Sam: TERRELL (1888ca -1905) Uncle Steve said he died trying to wire rafters together to make a ceiling for their house. Douglas Terrell said that Sam was very smart. Sam, as a very young child, had made a small mechanical sawmill that actually worked.
4. Carrie Frances: TERRELL (1894-1971) Aunt Carrie married several times. One of Aunt Carrie's husbands was William K. BAILEY that she married in Beaumont, Texas. He was a member of the Bailey family of Barnum, and Bailey Circus. She also married Joseph BEALL.

5. Minor Wallace TERRELL (1890-1977) (Minor is a name found in previous generations of Terrell families, and there was a Minor Wallace living in Union County, Arkansas). Minor married Oma Jane SHIFLETT.

6 & 7. Infants who died.

Lula died prior to 1898. Eunice Terrell Hopson said Lula Givens Terrell was buried at Teasleville, TX near Bullard TX in an unmarked grave.

Richard Gray Terrell married Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" HILL 3 April 1898 in Smith County, Texas. They were the parents of fourteen children:

1. Richard Gray, TERRELL Jr. :" Dick" (1899-1986)

2. Eugene Matthew "Gene" TERRELL: (1901-1984) Both names came from Jesse Hill Terrell's side of the family, Matthew being her father's name, and Eugene from the Augier family. Eugene "Gene" Terrell married Mary Belle NOWLIN in Henderson County on 22 Feb. 1922, and are the grandparents of the author.

3. Dave: TERRELL (c 1902-1905) Died as a child after eating lye soap (source: Steve Terrell)

4. Alice Lee: TERRELL (1903-1968) Married John B. NOWELL

5. Steve: (1904-1995) Married Laverne WYATT.

6. Clyde: (1906-1981) Married Willie GIDEON.

7. Eunice Inez: (1913- 1998) Married Riley HOPSON.

8. Willy Frank: "Bill" (1915-1989)

9. Joe Horace: (1917- still living) Married Sara COTNEY.

10. Jefferson Francis: TERRELL (1919-1974) (Jesse's father was named Jefferson.) married Louise CLOUD.

11. Grace Ann: TERRELL (1922-1972) (Richard had a sister named Grace.)

12. W.O.: TERRELL Died young. (These initials may stand for William Organ. Organ is a family name from Richard's mother's family.)

13. Caddie: TERRELL Died young...(Richard's sister was named Caddie.)

14. Infant TERRELL

Richard Gray TERRELL joined the Baptist Church in Chandler, Texas in 1913 (ref: Chandler, Its History and People) After his death, his wife and children still at home were members of the Martin Springs Church of Christ in Henderson County, Texas. (Source: Doris and Douglas Terrell).

Richard Gray TERRELL returned to Union County, Arkansas in 1925 and became sick with the flu, which turned into pneumonia. He was carried to Little Rock, Arkansas. Dr. MOON, his personal physician in Chandler, Texas, went to Little Rock, and brought him home on the train to Chandler. He died 6 April 1925. (Source: Steve Terrell).

TERRELL TERRELL was buried in Loftin Cemetery in Teasleville Cemetery in Smith Co. TX. Surely he was buried beside his first wife, Lula. A small tombstone was put there. When Jesse died, a double headstone with Richard and Jesse's names was erected, and the original stone was also left in place.

Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" Hill Terrell

18 September 1878-20 October 1956

From the first, Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" HILL Terrell lived an interesting life. I remember being taken in to see her when I was young, when she looked quite ancient. When she died, her vast Terrell and Hill families gathered at her daughter, Eunice Hopson's home.

Jesse, as she was called, was born to Ernestine Matilda AUGIER HILL, who was born in France. Her family moved to Cooke County, Texas by wagon train, and Jesse was the fifth child born. Before she was two years old, her father, Matthew Jefferson Hill was accidentally shot and killed. Numerous family tragedies occurred, and finally her widowed mother returned to Henderson County, Texas, where her maternal grandmother and the aunt, for whom she was named, lived. (source: East Texas Family Records, Vol 13, #2, pages 24-26 by DR. Alma MOORE FREELAND)

In her teens, Jesse had an illegitimate son, Paul BREWER, who was given to a family named Brewer for adoption. Later, he returned to her, and was known and loved by all.

On April 3, 1898 she married a widower, Richard Gray "Dick" Terrell.

Fifteen years younger than him, she acquired a ready-made family of five children age 16 years to 3 years. With her husband, living in the East Texas woods while pursuing his living working in sawmills, and working on a boat in the Big Eddy, one shudders when one contemplates what her life must have been like. Richard and Jesse started a family, and it seemed as soon as one child was weaned, another took its place.....fourteen times. Jesse lost an infant, and another child, Dave, died young from eating some lye soap.

When enlarging family pictures, the author was startled to see how beautiful she was in one of the pictures holding one of her babes with her husband. She was a heart-faced woman with a "widow's peak" in her hair.

Richard Gray "Dick" Terrell, her husband, left on a trip back to his place of birth in Arkansas in 1925, and returned to their home in Chandler on his deathbed. Soon Jesse was a widow with five or six young children for which to provide.

She became a member of the Martin Springs Church of Christ, where her daughter-in-law, Mary NOWLIN Terrell was a member. Another member of the Church there was Doris COTTEN Terrell who remembers the little purse in which Jesse's daughter Grace used to bring her Church offering.

Jesse had a brief second marriage.

Tragedy struck Jesse. She lost her eyesight.

In the 1950's, Grandma Jesse Terrell made her home with her daughter, Eunice Hopson on an East Texas farm in Henderson County, Texas. A vicious tornado made a direct hit on their farmhouse, and the family, including Jesse, found themselves flung into the adjacent field. All survived. The home was smashed to small pieces.

I do know that even forty years or so after Jesse's death, Aunt Eunice still showed a fierce love for her Mother, as did her other children. There are several different spellings of Jesse's name, from Annette to Auntunett. I asked Aunt Eunice if a family Bible existed, and she said that it had blown away in the tornado. Because Jesse had a maternal aunt named Josephine Antoinette, I believe Jesse was named for her, and so have chosen to spell her name the way I have in the records. Her death record has several inaccuracies in it, including the spelling of her mother's maiden name and that her mother had been born on a ship as it crossed the ocean. The correct name was Augier, and her mother was three years old when she sailed to America.

Ernestine Matilda Augier and Matthew J. Hill obtained a marriage license in Henderson County, Texas on 28 Oct, 1872. She was the daughter of Clarissa "Clara" Antoinette ROBERT AUGIER and Bienvenue Pascal AUGIER. Clarissa and her children had joined her husband in America in 1856, and all were born in France. Augier died in Rapides Parish Louisiana in the 1860's and Clarissa was found on the 1870, and 1880 census of Henderson County TX before she moved with her son, Charles Augier to Terrell in Kaufman County, Texas, where she died in 1900. Matthew J. Hill was the son of John Jacob Hill and Mary MULLINS Hill, and the grandson of Asaap Hill and Elizabeth MARR Hill. The widowed Elizabeth Hill first came to Texas before 1846 with her daughter, Rebecca Hill, according to family stories. She is buried in the Meador Cemetery in Smith County, Texas. (primary source ...various publications of Dr. Alma Moore FREE-LAND).

Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" Hill Terrell was the second wife of Richard Gray Terrell. She, along with his first wife, Lula Givens, were the founding Mothers of the East Texas Terrell family. What a great clan they gave birth to, and how straight and tall they would have stood if they could have seen the future of their Terrell family in Texas.

Richard Gray Terrell's family in Arkansas Thomas C. Terrell

Know all men by these presents, that I Thomas C. Terrell of Hillsboro, in the County of Union, and state of Arkansas, being in ill health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

1st. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved daughter Grace to be the sole executrix of my last will, without giving bond, directing my said executrix to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses and the legacies hereinafter given out of my estate.

2nd. After the payments of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give to each of my children Perry Terrell, Thomas Terrell, Richie Terrell, and Cad Tatum, the sum of one dollar each, to be paid to each of them as soon after my decease but within one year, as conveniently may be done.

3rd. And for the payment of the legacies aforesaid, I give and devise to my said executrix all the personal estate owned by me at my decease, also all moneys owned by me, or owing me, also my household furniture and wearing apparel for her sole use.

4th. I give and devise to my said executrix all of my real estate, of whatever kind and description, I may own at the time of my decease, to be hers and hers alone, to do with, and dispose of in any way she may see proper.

In testimony whereof, I hereto set my hand, and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below, this 13 day of Dec. 1904.

Thos. C. Terrell

With these few words, Thomas C. Terrell of Hillsboro, Union County, Arkansas leaves an impression of his character and legacy to his descendants.

All he possessed except for four dollars, he left to his daughter, Grace, the wife of Charles W. TELFORD. Soon after Terrell's death and burial in Hillsboro Cemetery, Grace buried her only child, name unknown, beside him. The tombstone has the name Telford, "Our Darling", b. Dec. 8, 1906 engraved on it. Thomas Terrell's stone has a Masonic emblem. The graves of his brother, Thomas O. Terrell (1861-1923) and sister in law, Gussie, (LEWIS) (1869-1900) are in the same plot.

These four dollars....where did they go? The first one went to his first born son, William Perry Terrell. William Perry had married Frances FLENKEN, and moved to Duncan, Oklahoma, where he died about 1910.

The second dollar went to Thomas O. Terrell. This son stayed in Union County, Arkansas, and married first to Gussie Lewis, and second to Hortense JORDAN.

The third dollar went to Richard Gray "Richie" Terrell who moved to Henderson County, Texas, and married first, Lula Givens, and second, Josephine Antoinette "Jesse" Hill.

The fourth dollar went to Grace's twin sister, Caddie. Caddie (Oct. 28, 1874-March 21, 1940) married her first cousin, Dr. Perry A. Tatum, (March 30 1868-October 18, 1928) and lived in Cherry Ridge, Union Parish, Louisiana. It is said that Caddie and her husband made a decision to never have children because of their close kinship. In her will, she bequeathed all she owned to her caregiver and niece, Mrs. J.P. HEBERT (Mamie) and her sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Telford. The Telfords were deceased by this time, with no descendants. Mrs. J.P. Hebert was the sole beneficiary.

Thomas C. Terrell married Sarah Ellen Tatum on December 25, 1857 at the home of her father, Joshua Perry Tatum. The 1860 census lists Terrell's occupation as farmer with a $10,000 value of Personal Estate. The 1860 Index of Slave Owners shows that he owned three male slaves and three female slaves. In March 1862, Thomas C. was a Private in Co. G, 19 (Dockery's) Arkansas Infantry, Confederate Army. This unit defended Vicksburg, Mississippi during the siege. There is no known information on the military career of Thomas C. Terrell, other than the two small cards from the National Archives. No children were born between 1862 and 1874 that survived to be enumerated on the Census.

Sarah Ellen, wife of Thomas C., was not found on the 1880 census of Union County. She had birthed twin daughters in 1874 at the age of 38. Richard Gray left home between 1880 and 1883. Sarah Ellen is said to be buried on her father, Joshua Perry Tatum's plantation, now called the Taylor Plantation, located in Union County, Arkansas. (source: Jackie MYERS).

The Biographical and Historical Memories of Southern Arkansas, Goodspeed, 1890, stated that T.C. Terrell in 1890 was "Tyler" (tiler?) of Polk Lodge, A.F.& A. M. located at Hillsborough.

These records for Thomas C. Terrell are located in El Dorado, Union County, Arkansas.

Thomas came to Union County, Arkansas with his parents, William Pitt TERRELL and Lucy B. JEFFRIES Terrell, and siblings probably between 1848 and 1850 from Wake County, NC. The family received patents on many acres of land, and brought numerous slaves with them from North Carolina. Thomas married Sarah Ellen Tatum, who had recently moved with her family, Joshua Perry Tatum, and Sarah Elizabeth Vardeman Tatum from Alabama.

The Civil War raged around them and their families, undoubtedly changing their lives forever. Two sons left to seek their fortunes in other states. . It is evident that better times returned to the family. Terrell was first appointed to be a School Director, and then won three elections to the Register. His daughters filled the void left when Sarah Ellen died, and helped ease his life in his old age.

Thomas C. Terrell was the grandfather of 30 known grandchildren, and many of them lived in Henderson County, Texas.

TYRRELL namesake dies at 97 in Beaumont

By Kaite Carolyn Dyess Bales, LA

The Enterprise 10/17/2003

The grandson and namesake of Capt. William C. TYRRELL, one of Beaumont's earliest entrepreneurs, died Monday in Beaumont at age 97.

TYRRELL was born in Beaumont, but spent many years on the TYRRELL family farm in Belmond, Iowa. He received a degree in business administration from the University of Colorado, where he met his wife, Catherine Ross SULLIVAN.

During his years in Iowa, TYRRELL farmed and served two terms as a state representative, returning to Beaumont in 1946 when he was appointed trustee of the TYRRELL trust.

TYRRELL, an avid golfer and longtime member of the Beaumont Country Club, took great personal interest in TYRRELL Park and the TYRRELL Historical Library, bequests of his family.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at First United Methodist Church Chapel. Arrangements are being handled by Broussard's son McFaddin.
