PREFACE

We first became aware of the important lines of our ancestry when Mr. J. H. Ravlin of Minneapolis, Minnesota and his wife, formerly Mary Negus, gave us a blueprint of the Negus Ancestry Chart that shows three distinct lines back to the Wings of Massachusetts, the Coppocks of Pennsylvania, and the Terrells of Virginia. Then Mr. Alvin L. Anderson of Eugene Oregon gave us more interesting information on the English nobility in the Terrell line and we began research on our own.- We found the Los Angeles Public Library had an exceptionally fine genealogical Department which with the history department not only verified what we had been told, but supplied much additional information which we feel all members of our family will be glad to have, and we will herewith make it available in booklet form.

It will be noted. that the Terrell family was connected-with the Royal Family of England by the marriage of Sir Thomas Terrell to Alice Marney, a direct descendent of King Edward 1. of England and his wife Eleanor of Castile, a sister of King Alphonso X of Spain, and: daughter of King Ferdinand III of Spain. Since most kings married daughters of other kings, all were closely related by marriage.

We have given all of these three lines back from Isaac and Mary Coppock Negus., and to complete the connection down to the youngest descendant of the family to date, we have prepared a family chart of all such descendants in so far as we have been able to secure the information. We are indebted to Mrs. Ethel Tatum for most of this information.

We feel sure that many descendants of other than Isaac and Mary Negus will find their ancestors in these lines, and value this information. Others of the Terrell, Wing and Coppock families may also find their ancestry. Thus, our work will not have been in vain.

Rev. Ira E. Nolte,
compiler and publisher.

THANKS TO LOUIS E. JONES

We are indebted to Mr. Louise E. JONES for most of the material on the Negus-Stafford-Quincy Line; the King Henry III line, the Bohun-Fitz-Alan Line and the Beauchamp-Mucegroes-Bassett Line

He has certainly spent years of research and gathered a mass of material which he kindly sent to us with permission to use as we wished. We have not attempted to give all he has and have chosen to arrange the material into direct lines of descent.

He gives the following sources of his information:

17. Sir William TERRILL

18. Sir Humphrey TERRILL of Thornton, Buckinghamshire, Okenden. Held Manor of Bryn in 1548 with 500 acres. Married Jane INGLETON.

19. Sir George TERRILL of Thornton married Lady Eleanor MONTAGUE, County Bucks. Their four sons were Robert (father of emigrants to Virginia), David, Thomas, and Francis.

[NOTE: Information through #19 is based upon information obtained by William Holland TERRELL in 1910 from Joseph H. TYRRELL an English researcher who had researched primarily his own IRISH TYRRELLS. The above was based solely upon speculation, not documentation. Wills rediscovered by the TYRRELL FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY in England in the mid-1990s prove (at least to my satisfaction) that the parentage of Robert listed here is incorrect. He was a descendant of Robert & Agnes of Hagbourne, Berkshire. While it is possible that Robert of Hagbourne may have descended from someone in the chart above #17, Sir William TERRILL, the TYRRELL SOCIETY has not been able to find any documentation to prove any ancestry for Robert of Hagbourne. There is also disagreement among researchers about the parentage of William (21.) who m. Susannah. I will present what we believe to be the correct ancestry at the end of this work. Dan Brinson, Secretary, Terrell Society of America, Inc.]

20. Sir Robert TERRILL, married Jane BALDWIN and had eight children. 1. John, died 1661; 2. Robert, died 1667; 3. Richmond b. in 1624 came to Virginia; 4. Charles, d. in infancy; 5. William, came to Virginia 1665 and is the one from whom this family descends; 6. Timothy, came to Virginia; 7. Mary; 8. Margaret.

In a will printed in Virginia Historical Magazine, Sir. Robert left his [tailor] shop with all tools to his eldest son, John. In addition to specified sums of cash, the others were to receive: Robert, a silver beer bowl; Richmond, a silver wine bowl; Timothy and William each silver spoons; Mary a silver salt and pepper set; and Margaret a silver trencher set. [Robert was a tailor, I have not seen any documentation that indicated he was knighted and entitled to the title of Sir. DFB]

21. Sir William TERRILL, also spelled TERRELL married Lady Susannah WATERS. During the protectorate of Oliver CROMWALL, being Quakers and grievously persecuted because of their religion, they decided to try to get to America. Crossing over to Ireland as colonists, they sailed for Virginia about 1665. There is in the possession of the family of Richmond TERRELL, a watch and ring bearing the crest of the TERRELL family. Both

William & Richmond were land owners in Kent county, Virginia as early as 1670. From AMERICANS OF GENTLE BIRTH AND THEIR ANCESTORS, page 353, we get the following, "Terrell is an ancient family tracing their descent clearly back to the time of Henry II. There is in the family a silver water jug bearing the family arms which was brought over to this country by William & Susannah TERRELL over two hundred years ago when they came to Virginia.

They had four sons: David, Henry, Joe, and Micajah. David and Henry married sisters, Agatha and Annie CHILES who came from a family of noted English Army Officers. We continue this line of Henry, but David and Agatha were grandparents of Pleasant COBBS who married Amy TERRELL, so we are descended from both David & Henry TERRELL.

22. Henry TERRELL, son of William & Susannah TERRELL, born in 1695, died in 1760. Married Annie CHILES. They were parents of Thomas & Henry TERRELL & possibly others.

24. Amy TERRELL married Pleasant COBBS who was a grandson of David and Agatha CHILES TERRELL.

25. Amy COBBS daughter of Pleasant COBBS and Amy TERRELL; wife of Aaron COPPOCK who came from a Pennsylvania family who came from England with the Quakers in 1683. (See Coppock family line on another page.)

26. Mary COPPOCK, daughter of Aaron and Amy COBBS COPPOCK, married Isaac NEGUS who descended from the WING family of Massachusetts Puritans. (see WING family line on another page.)

ANCESTRY OF THE ENGLISH KINGS

The marriage of Sir Thomas TERRILL (No. 15 on page 1) and lady Anna MARNEY, a direct descendant of King Edward I of England, makes all descendants of the TERRELL line direct descendants of the English Royal Family. We give our ancestors of this line as far back as 802 A. D. (See page 1 for the line down from Sir Thomas TERRELL.

Information of this line is from DICTONARY OF ROYAL LINEAGE and WINSTON CHURCHILL'S (BIRTH OF BRITAIN, Vols. 1 & 2) Kings not in our direct line are omitted.

Information concerning descendants of King Edward I, down to Sir Thomas TERRILL was obtained from Monta-Grace Johnson of San Francisco, who has done extensive research in the Negus-Coppock ancestry.

WING FAMILY LINE

This information was taken from very detailed accounts found in Batchelder Family Genealogy, pages 84 to 94, and from Wing Family Annuals, published by the Wing Family of America, Inc. of which the writer is a member.

In the center of Oxford county, 30 miles from the manor of Wing, 23 miles from Oxford, 18 miles from Stratford-on-Avon, 95 miles from London, and less than 15 miles from Woodstock is the town of Banbury.

"Ride a cock horse to Banbury Cross,
To see a fine lady on a white horse;
Rings on her fingers and bells on her toes,
She shall have music wherever she goes."

The procession of the fine lady with the rings and bells takes place each year in Banbury with a considerable ceremony. Banbury Cross stands at the top of High Street in a wide, open space at the junction of four cross roads. The present cross, erected in 1859 is near the sight of the old cross. It is an ornate affair with a steeple.

Another thing making Banbury famous is its cakes, which are known throughout the kingdom. They are said to have been introduced in 1608. They are delicious tidbits of pastry filled with fruits which melt in the mouth. There is much rivalry in the back shops as to which is the truly original one. The present visitor to the town is assailed with the cry of vendors, "Hot Cross buns, Hot Cross buns, one a penny, two a penny, Hot Cross buns."

Matthew WING was born about 1548-50. His ancestors were doubtlessly pagan before coming to St. Augustine. He is first mentioned with his wife Mary when their second son, Thomas, was christened April 21, 1576, in St. Mary's Church, Banbury, England.

Matthew was born in the days of the boy king, Edward IV, prior to the time of Queen Mary, "The Bloody Queen" who tried to stamp out the Protestant church established by her father. She had her sister, Princess Elizabeth imprisoned at Woodstock, only a few miles from the house of Matthew WING. Upon the death of Queen Mary, the half-sister became Queen Elizabeth and restored the Protestant Church of England, and not only persecuted Catholics, but included all other sects who would not join the state church. At that time, the Puritans were very strong, and even had a majority in the House of Commons, but they could not pass any religious legislation because of the Queen.

Matthew WING made a request in his will that he be buried in St. Mary's Churchyard at Banbury. The church was destroyed in 1790, with an order that as little damage as possible be done to the graves, gravestones, monuments, and monumental inscriptions in removal. All seem to have been totally destroyed, however. Matthew's wife, Mary was buried in St. Mary's churchyard on July 24, 1613.

They had ten children:

1. Luke;
2. Thomas, christened January 21, 1576;
3. Sibill (CHAMBERLAIN), christened January 26, 1576
4. Elizabeth christened March 20, 1579, buried March 31, 1579;
5. Elizabeth christened October 28, 1581;
6. John christened January 20, 1584;
7. Matthew christened February 1, 1586;
8. James christened February 10, 1587;
9. Sarah christened January 19, 1589;
10. Joan christened December 25, 1592.

John WING (Reverend), sixth child of Matthew and Mary WING, was christened January 20, 1584, in St. Mary's Church, Banbury, Oxfordshire, England. At this time, the church was no longer Catholic, and Queen Elizabeth was trying to force all to worship in the Church of England. John Wing entered Oxford School at 14 year of age. Records show, "John WINGE of Oxen plebe St. Albens Hall, 15 October, 1599, age 14." On February 12, 1603, he was invested at Queen's College with the degree, Bachelor of Arts.

The Reverend Stephen BATCHELDER, Vicar of Wherwell, refusing to comply with the requirements of the Crown, was deprived of his church at Wherewell in 1603. He became a Presbyterian and was interested in the Puritan movement, as was John WING. In 1609, John WING was married to Deborah, a daughter of Reverend BATCHELDER. John was then 25 years of age. Deborah was 18. Just when and by whom John was ordained to the ministry, we do not know, but the persecutions in England caused many of the Puritans to cross over to Holland and Germany.

We find John WING preaching in Hanover in 1617, and he had a church in Sandwich in Kent in 1620. He was ordained in Amsterdam June 19, 1620, as pastor of Flushing and Middlebury, and later as pastor of Hague in 1627. He was author of many books, some of which are in the British Museum. He was very active in the preparations for Puritans to leave for America when he died in 1630 at the age of 46. Reverend BATCHELDER continued active in the Puritan plans and with his daughter, Deborah WING and her five children, they sailed in 1632 for America. The children were: Deborah, born 1611; John born 1613; Daniel; Stephan born in 1621; and Matthew.

From BATCHELDER GENEALOGY we take the following, "John WINTHROP, first Governor of Massachusetts as a colony, kept a journal with all public transactions down to 1649, and enumerated the vessels conveying immigrants. He makes this record under date of June 5, 1632: 'Arrived, William and Francis, Mr. THOMAS, Master, which left London on the ninth of March, reaching this port after a voyage of 88 days with about 60 passengers, whereof were Mr. WELD and old Mr. BATCHELDER (being good 70), with their families and many other honest men.'" In another place he specified that Mr. BATCHELDER was a party of six or seven persons who went to the same place and cooperated with him in his religious movement.

Most of the Puritans settled around Massachusetts Bay and soon they numbered around 300 people. In 1637, the "Ten Men of Saugus" received a grant from the Crown to that part of Cape Cod which lies south of Plymouth Colony. Mother, Deborah WING and her children were in this group and they located near the town of Shawmee (an Indian name later changed to Sandwich). It was located some 17 miles south of Plymouth. Since the John WING family had come from Sandwich, in Kent, England, they surely were there when the name was chosen. The Wing home is described as being "one mile south of Sandwich, near a stream, between two ponds, on an high ground overlooking the lower pond and the town of Sandwich." Another says it was near Wolf Trap Neck, a narrow strip of land separating Lake Shawmee from Lower Lake Shawmee about a half mile from the village of Sandwich. The Stephen WING home has remained in the family and is now a museum maintained by the Wing Family of America, Inc., a non-profit corporation having as its purpose the maintaining of family ties and fraternal relations among the members, and support of a Family Memorial Hall for historical and literary archives.

In time Quakers began to come to Massachusetts, and were greatly persecuted, Daniel and Stephan WING refused to take an oath of fidelity because the pledge required them to assist in the execution of intolerant enactments, Laws could not be enforced in Sandwich because the settlers, while not Quakers, were mostly "the friends of tolerance." Daniel was arrested for befriending Quakers, and both Daniel and Stephan later became converts. Of the four sons of John WING, we shall follow only the line of John WING who was our direct ancestor.

John WING, son of Rev. John WING, seems to have been born in Yarmouth England. He is mentioned in his father's will made in 1614, so it is probable that he was born in 1613. Coming to America with his mother in 1632, when he was about 19 years of age, he was early recognized as the man of the family. His wife's name was Elizabeth, but her maiden name we did not find. Their family consisted of seven children as follows: Susannah born 1647; Ephraim born April 4, 1649, died December 11, 1649; Joseph (our ancestor) born September 12, 1650; Annias; Oseah; John.

Joseph WING, born in Sandwich, Massachusetts, September 12, 1650 was but seven or eight when his parents moved to a settlement at Sawtucket River. April 12, 1672, at 22 years of age, he married Jerusha MAYHEW, daughter of the famous Martha's Vineyard Missionary, Thomas MAYHEW, Jr., and granddaughter of Governor Thomas MAYHEW at Martha's Vineyard. Joseph died May 31, 1679. They had three children, John, Jane, & Joseph. Our line continues through the daughter, Jane.

Jane WING West, daughter of Joseph WING and Jerusha MAYHEW married October 15, 1694 at Shrewsbury, New Jersey to John WEST, son of Bartholomew WEST, and grandson of Matthew WEST. John WEST was born in Providence Rhode Island. John and Jane WEST had 11 children:

1. Jerusha, married William CORLIES.
2. Bartholomew, married Susanna SHINN.
3. Joseph married Audry WEBLEY
4. John;
- 5; Stephen;
- 6; Matthew;
7. Catherine;
8. Jedidiah, married Daniel WAINWRIGHT
9. Audry;
10. Lavinia who married Thomas NEGUS;
11. Sarah.

Lavinia WEST Negus, daughter of John WEST and Jane WING was married on July 27, 1748 to Thomas NEGUS, who was born in Freetown Massachusetts May 18, 1718. (See Negus-Stafford-Quincy Line on another page.)
