ARCHIVE MOVED FROM DOUGLASVILLE

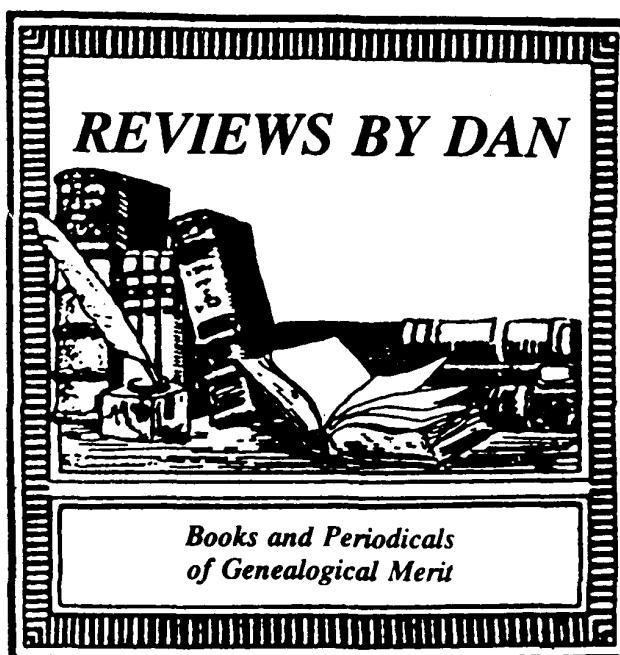

Due to Dan's change in employment, space required, and other considerations, the TERRELL COLLECTION, USA previously stored in Douglasville, GA at the residence of Dan Brinson was picked up by President Bill Terrell in September and transported to Charlotte for temporary storage until a more suitable home can be found for it.

Although Dan regretted to see the collection moved, it was deemed in your best interest to do so. After all, our goal is to build a collection (or collections) available to the PUBLIC, not to hoard the information in an individual's home.

We are proud of the amount of TERRELL specific information we have amassed in our short 4 years and hope to continue to add to the collection.

BROCHURE NEARS COMPLETION

At the last advisory meeting, it was suggested that the Society should prepare a short pamphlet describing our Society, the TERRELL COLLECTION, USA, and other pertinent facts to be distributed to libraries, archives, and genealogical societies nationwide. REVIEW OF TERRELL LENDING LIBRARY SELECTION By Dan Brinson 1988

#7 TERRELL FAMILY by Nellie F. Ayres; 1946; 85 pages, 8 x 11 typed; contains 31 pedigree charts including one theorizing the lineage

back to Adam and Eve; extracted from her larger work, Rush & Terrell Genealogy (#168); quotes lineages found in Burke's Peerage in England; traces TERRELL back to royalty; very colorful, especially the description of William TERRELL emigrant found on pages 54 & 55; most of the book consists of descendants of John Terrell of Granville County, NC; index improves usefulness as a research tool.

#13 TERRELL GENEALOGY by Emma Dicken, Texas c1953; 6 x 8-320 pages, by far the best work to date on the Terrell history; combines the works of most previous researchers; excellent index; the book to consult first.

#84 THE TERRELL FAMILY by Gen. William Henry Harrison TERRELL, 1883; Indianapolis IN; oldest known attempt by anyone in the USA to relate the history of the TERRELL family; 300 plus pages 8 x 11, some in original handwriting, balance typed capitals, double spaced; mostly conclusions drawn from 'my grandpa told me that his grandpa told him' type letters; contains some will and land record transcripts; lack of index destroys its usefulness as a research tool per se, but the fact that it is over 100 years old containing writings of persons who were then senior citizens makes it a book no serious genealogist can resist.

#85 TERRELL-WILLIS-KISTNER-MEIER-HARRIS GENEALOGY by Helen A. MEIER Smith, 1975; 220 pages; original 8 1/2 x 14, has been reduced to 8 x 11 to make it easier to handle; chronicles Mrs. Smith's ancestors through the surname lines in the title from Kentucky back to Europe; includes both family tree type charts and personal biographical sketches, letters, etc. to form a very interesting account of this branch of the family; contains information not included in Dicken and previous works; after-the-fact index by Dan Brinson (Member #1) makes this a useful research tool for those not lucky enough to have been included in earlier works.

#86 TERRELL AND CARRUTH GENEALOGY by John H. Parker, Liberty MS, 1967; 102 pages, typed, appears to have been originally produced on mimeograph; our second or third generation copy has lost a few letters on some margins, but is still readable; rehashes the European mythology then gets down to business on descendants of William (1732-1812) and Frances WINGFIELD (1736-1802) TERRELL; quotes heavily from works of Dicken, Thiele, & Morgan; heavy on the migration from VA to MS; some transcripts of original records; every name index makes this a very useful tool for those with MS roots.

#90 RICHMOND, WILLIAM, & TIMOTHY TERRELL, COLONIAL VIRGINIANS by Celeste Jane TERRELL Barnhill; The Mitchell Company, Greenfield IN 1934; 6 x 8, 323 pages plus index; first professional attempt to combine the writings of previous TERRELL researchers into one book; begins with De Tirel in France and progresses through both fact and supposition quoting the works of Joseph Henry Tyrrell of England, some colonial arrivals 1637 and later; quotes early Virginia land transactions, wills, etc., follows the family's westward migration through several branches up to 1934; has an index or sorts divided by chapters and limited to heads of families; an after-the-fact every name index by Don Terrill (Member #144) should greatly improve the usefulness of this book as a research tool.

#129 A GENEALOGY LINE OF THE TERRILLS by Alexandros Jack Quayle; 1921; small pamphlet containing Mr. Quayle's version of his TERRILL ancestry; absolutely no source record citations; amusing due to having been written by a senior citizen of the 1920's, but totally useless for genealogical proof.

#131/132 A GENEALOGY LINE OF TYRRELL, TERRELL, TIRRELL by Roy Lee Terrell; Grass Valley, CA, 1934; 8 x 11, 11 pages; recaps English origins; Timothy Terrell, emigrant for total of 28 generations to Roy Lee TERRELL; only references cited was Edwin Holland TERRELL of San Antonio, TX and pamphlet by Alexandros Jack Quayle of LA; first appeared as article in the Grass Valley Herald; also contains brief bio of Roy Lee Terrell and listing of his two children; amusing, but of little value to anyone except descendants of Roy Lee Terrell or his very close TERRELL relatives.

#133/134 GENEALOGY OF THE TERRELL FAMILY by C. M. Terrell, U. S. Army; Lynchburg, VA, M. F. Bell Co., printers; 8 pages; not dated, but last generation was born in 1882; recaps European origin; follows theory of 30 generations from FULK FIRST, Count of Anjou through Henry and Anne CHILES TERRELL to C. M. TERRELL, then continuing on to his grandson, Frederick Brahan TERREL b. 1882; an interesting narrative, but lack of documentation destroys its usefulness as a genealogical tool.

#135/136 GENEALOGICAL NOTES ON THE TERRELL FAMILY by Mildred TERRELL Thiele and Exeen THIELE Morgan, 1962; 8 x 11, 9 pages; deals almost entirely with European mythology and royal ancestry; charts date back to 443 BC; descent shown through 79 generations to William TERRELL of New Kent VA; continuing through Peter Buford TERRELL (Sr & Jr) to 86th generation William Peter (1861-1941)

and Exeen MONTGOMERY (1867—1952) TERRELL, parents of Mildred TERRELL Thiele; includes Barnhill's descent from Alfred the Great and Joseph Henry Tyrrell's descent from William the Conqueror; no source materials; interesting, but useless for genealogical proof.

#137 FOLLOWING THE TRAIL by Georgia WHARTON Lamb, 1939, Manassas Journal Press, Manassas, VA; 6 x 8 84 pgs; reduced and printed 2 pages per sheet on 8 1/2 x 11; parallels the 1934 Barnhill work leaning heavily upon works of Edwin Holland TERRELL and Emma Dicken's original documents; no index; after-the-fact index by Suzanne Johnston (member #142) has turned this into a useful research tool for comparison with other works.

#144 CHRISTIAN-TERRILL GENEALOGY by Inez Christian Doshier [member #213], Shirley Eileen Nelson, & Sharon Nelson McFarlan; 8 x 11, 122 pages; an obvious labor of love by three descendants who are proud of their TERRELL heritage; traces possible descent from Antenor, King of the Cimmerians prior to 412 BC down through emigrant William TERRELL, continuing through Joel and Sarah OXFORD Terrell, through Dr Thomas Waddy and Martha RAINES TERRELL to William Joseph and Harriett NEBLETT TERRELL; quotes from Giles-Estill Collection, but does not say where collection is located; this is an interesting lineage and has 3 blank pages for continuation of lineage into future generations; the only shortcoming is lack of an index which would greatly increase its value as a research tool.

#145 THE TERRELLS - EIGHTY FIVE YEARS TEXAS FROM INDIANS TO ATOMIC BOMB by C. V. Terrell, Austin TX, 1948; 6 x 8, 236 pages; chock full of memories of Charles Vernon Terrell, from whom he came, where and how they lived, account of the many "noted" people he had known; some fine B & W photos; one of the more interesting narratives to cross my desk, but containing very little actual genealogical information; no index, useless as a quick check reference source.

#146 LIFE AND GENEALOGY OF GEORGE RICHARD AND GENOAH TERRELL DOSHIER by Inez Christian Doshier [member #213]; 8 x 11 typed, aprx 100 pages; no index companion work to #144 CHRISTIAN-TERRILL GENEALOGY contains some source records, photos, but is mainly a biographical sketch of the family; an interesting book, well worth reading.

#147 PARENTAL ANCESTORS OF JAMES TERRILL CHRISTIAN FAMILY by Inez Christian Doshier [member #213]; 8 X 11, 237 pages; narrative of paternal ancestry; includes some photos, original record transcripts, and source record citations; facinating reading, well worth the time; could be greatly improved as a research tool by addition of an index.

#148 VARIOUS TERRILL MATERIALS, U S AND ENGLAND by Inez Christian Doshier [member #213]; 145 pages; 8 x 11, typed; no index; hodgepodge collection of photos, newspaper clippings, transcripts of original records, correspondence with or about TERRELLS, and other items that Inez originally dubbed "TERRELL TRASH". ie, items not pertaining to her immediate line, or not suitable for her formal writings; however, we all know that one's TRASH is often another's TREASURE—you may find exactly what you need in this collection! I consider this to be far more valuable than the "famous" EUBANKS COLLECTION for which we paid $64.00 to the University of Western KY.

#163 MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS ON TERRELL AND RELATED FAMILIES by Inez Christian Doshier [member #213]; 8 X 11, 74 pages, most typed, some original handwritten letters and research notes, most are legible copies; includes such interesting tidbits as the names of 7 slaves of John Terrel of Granville Co. NC in 1755; marriage of John Terrel Jr. to Susanna DOUGLAS, Granville Co. NC in 1760; Solomon TERRELL to Amelia ROBERTSON, Wake Co. NC in 1778; Samuel TERRELL, soldier of Mex. war b. 1821 Chester Dist SC, . . . Need I say more?

#166 FURTHER GENEALOGICAL NOTES ON THE TYRRELL-TERRELL FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND ITS ENGLISH AND NORMAN-FRENCH PROGENITORS by Edwin Holland TERRELL, San Antonio, TX 1909; revised second addition; 6 x 8, 41 pages plus two charts added by L. F. LeStourgeon (#91); relies heavily upon research of Joseph Henry Tyrrell of England; few if any source material citations; contains some interesting biographical notes about Mr. TERRELL'S ancestors, but has very little use other than as a source of leads to look for source materials; lack of index destroys usefulness as a rapid research tool.

#167 THE TYRRELLS OR TERRELLS OF AMERICA by Joseph Henry Tyrrell, ENGLAND 1910 6 x 8 on 8 x 11; 29 pages; written as a supplement to his book GENEALOGICAL HISTORY OF THE TYRRELLS; author readily admits "This work is not in any sense intended to be a complete record of the family, but should be used in conjunction with the above-named book."; includes Arms, arrivals in VA, achievement, biographical notes; land grants; royal descent; 11 pages of pedigree charts, and a few wills; no source records cited in connectic with the charts; no index; very limited genealogical value.

#168 GENEALOGY OF THE RUSH FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND TERRELL GENEALOGY, by Nellie F.

Ayres 8 x 11; 1946; 135 pages plus index; #7 expanded to include her RUSH ancestry; well written, interesting; every name index.

* THE TERRELL FAMILY by R. W. Carroll, 1890; 8 x 11; typed, 2 pages per sheet; a cousin of Gen. William Henry Harrison TERRELL takes a critical genealogical view of the many "family traditions" contained in #84 and successfully proves or disproves some of them; source records are used to expand upon surmises about the European origins; a pioneer work in modern genealogy, well worth reading; no index.

#184 DESCENDENTS OF WILLIAM AND JOHN JOHNSON INCLUDING SOME TERRELLS by Lorand V. Johnson, MD; courtesy of Dr. Harvey S. Johnson (Member #149); brief table of contents of TERRELLS added by Mr. L. F. LeStourgeon; contains 150 charts including that of Dr. Harvey S. Johnson back to 1360 in Europe and down to grandchildren of Dr. Harvey Johnson; 12 Terrell charts; includes several variations of JOHNSON Arms as well as those of VANS, MELDRUM, BARCLAY 1740, HAY 1370, FORBES, LUNDIE (also with Royal Arms of Scotland), IRVINE, OGILVY, ASHELY, TERRELL, & COOPER; TERRELL/JOHNSON connection begins with Sarah JOHNSON (1729-1775) who md. David TERRELL (1729-1805) in 1749 with some lines charted to 4th generation descendants; George Terrell Johnson (1796-?), grandson of Christopher and Elizabeth MOORMAN Johnson; Benjamin West TERRELL (1823-1905) md. Ase-neth JOHNSON (1840-1915) parents of Celeste Jane TERRELL Barnhill who wrote Richard, William, and Timothy Terrell, Colonial Virginians; Rachel TERRELL (b. 1805) md. Joseph Wright JOHNSON in 1828; Lucy TERRELL md. David JOHNSON; Samuel Chiles TERRELL (b. 1802) md. 2nd. Malinda JOHNSON; Sisley TERRELL (1824-1901) md. Christopher JOHNSON in 1842 etc. for 149 charts with JOHNSON intermarrying with every known surname; charts are linked by number, ie continued to and from other charts; next section has 25 pages of notes about persons appearing on the charts each keyed to the applicable chart; 8 pages of hand written letters from persons appearing on the charts are reproduced; and finally there are 6 pages of addendum containing information received too late to include in the original work; the book is clear, concise, and well prepared; it should prove an excellent source of leads for the serious researcher, especially if the surname is JOHNSON.

#179/180 TERRELLS OF ALABAMA by Don C. Terrill (member #144); computer printed list of Terrell variations found in books located in Alabama archives and libraries while researching his own family tree; excellent source of leads to Alabama TERRELL (and variant) source records.

#194 COL. LYNCH MOORE TERRELL GENEALOGY, VOL I by Lynch Moore Terrell, Atlanta, GA; 8 x 11. 151 pages; papers collected by brother of Gen. William Henry Harrison Terrell including some letters from WHH; begins with origins of the name in Europe; has 3 page list of 'wills proved to the name of Tyrrell (with variations) in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury 1383-1700'; some Quaker records extracts; some extracts from Colonial and State records of VA on file in land office at Richmond; Origin of the term "Lynch Law" by Robert W. Carroll; assorted TERRELL lineages; an interesting 4 page sketch on John Dabney Terrell, Sr of AL by W. B. Wilkes; if indexed, could become a valuable research tool.

195 COL. LYNCH MOORE TERRELL GENEALOGY, VOL II by Lynch Moore Terrell, Atlanta, GA; 8 x 11. 356 pages; table of contents indicates that it covers most if not all items in Vol I, plus many additional ones; definitely the better of the two works; unfortunately, not indexed and therefore useless as a quick reference leads source.

MARGARET LORENA TERRELL c1890, Age 12 Coosa County, Alabama.

WHO WAS LORENA?

The origin of the name LORENA is as mysterious as the name itself.

Rev. D. H. L. Webster penned a poem which was set to music by his brother, J. P. Webster. The song became a hit in 1857.

The song was titled simply LORENA. The Civil War carried that song far and wide on the lips of Confederate soldiers.

It has been referred to as the "Annie Laurie" of the Confederate Armies. In Pen and Ink Brander Matthews says, "this doleful old ditty started at the start and never stopped until the last musket was stacked and the last campfire cold." It was the song nearest to the Confederate soldier's heart.

"Maggie Howell (the sister-in-law of President Jefferson Davis), says there is a girl in large hoops and a calico frock at every piano between Richmond and Mississippi, banging on the out of tune thing and looking up into a man's face, singing that song. The man wears a soiled and battle stained uniform, but his heart is fresh enough, as he hangs over her, to believe in Lorena." (A Diary from Dixie edited by B. A. Williams, p. 304.)

After the war, a multitude of daughters from all surnames were named LORENA.

Margaret Lorena Terrell was just one of them. She was called Aunt Margaret all her life by those who knew and loved her, but she was proud enough of the name LORENA to name her daughter Lorena Matilda. These fine ladies were the maternal grandmother and the mother of Dan Brinson.

LORENA

Slowly, with much expression

1.

The years creep slowly by, Lorena,
The snow is on the grass again;
The sun's low down the sky, Lorena,
The frost gleams where the flow'rs have been.

But the heart throbs on as warmly now,
As when the summer days were nigh;
Oh! the sun can never dip so low,
A down affection's cloudless sky.
The sun can never skip so low,
A down affection's cloudless sky.

2.

A hundred months have passed, Lorena,
Since last I held that hand in mine,
And felt the pulse beat fast, Lorena,
Though mine beat faster far than thine.
A hundred months, 'twas flowery May,
When up the hilly slope we climbed,
To watch the dying of the day,
And hear the distant church bells chime,
To watch the dying of the day,
And hear the distant church bells chime.

3.

We loved each other then, Lorena,
More than we ever dared to tell;
And what we might have been, Lorena,
Had but our lovings prospered well—
But then, 'tis past, the years are gone,
I'll not call up their shadowy forms;
I'll say to them, "Lost years, sleep on!
Sleep on! nor heed life's pelting storms."
I'll say to them, "Lost years, sleep on!
Sleep on! nor heed life's pelting storms."

4.

The story of that past, Lorena,
Alas! I care not to repeat,
The hopes that could not last, Lorena,
They lived, but only lived to cheat,
I would not cause e'en one regret
To rankle in your bosom now;
For "If we try, we may forget,"
Were words of thine long years ago.
For "If we try, we may forget,"
Were words of thine long years ago.

5.

Yes, these were words of thine, Lorena,
They burn within my memory yet;
They touched some tender chords, Lorena,
Which thrill and tremble with regret.
'Twas not thy woman's heart that spoke;
Thy heart was always true to me;
A duty, stern and pressing, broke
The tie which linked my soul with thee.
A duty, stern and pressing, broke
The tie which linked my soul with thee.

6.

It matters little now, Lorena,
The past is in the eternal past,
Our heads will soon lie low, Lorena,
Life's tide is ebbing out so fast.
There is a Future! Oh, thank God!
Of life this is so small a part!

'Tis dust to dust beneath the sod!
But there, up there, 'tis heart to heart.

Mrs M.E. Terrell 1861

My Dear Friend.

It was my purpose to have written to you some time ago, but owing to the nature of my wound; I have been compelled to forego that pleasure until now, and I only hope, that I may succeed in interesting you, to that extent of my desire to do so and if I fail, ascribe it to my incapacity, and not to the want of effort. [At this point, Fowler repeated the story of his regiment's part in the battle and his own wounding.]

I lay on the bank of the Creek six long hours, before I was moved by South Carolinians. They put me in a good wagon and carried me to a tent hospital of the S. Carolinians (about midway between the battlefield and the junction) three miles from where I was wounded. I think I suffered about a half a dozen deaths going those miles, and when I reached the hospital, it was so full they could not put me in there, so I lay out in the rain until nine o'clock Monday morning. They then carried me in the hospital, and one of the surgeons probed my wound to the bone, and remarked "that it was too dangerous an operation to attempt, to cut the ball out of my leg, and that he could not do anything for me."

I lay here all day, or rather till late in the evening. They then carried me to the junction in an "ambulance" which place I reached about half past seven at night. There was no room in any of the hospitals for me. So I was put in the Ordnance department, on account, I suppose of having lead in my leg. Here I remained until Tuesday afternoon. I was then put on the cars and reached Mrs. Taliaferro's at twelve o'clock in the night, and I then had my wound dressed for the first time, but thanks to providence, and a strong constitution, I will soon be myself again I hope.

I must now say a few words about Col. Taliaferro's family and the appearance of the country. His family consists of wife, five daughters, and one son. Mrs. Taliaferro is a perfect pattern of a housewife, and all of the qualities that constitute a perfect lady of the old Virginia School are embodied on her. Her oldest daughter Miss Mollie, is about twenty years old, has black hair and black eyes, and rather dark skin. She could pass for a Spanish girl very easily. Is fine looking, I think. She is considered pretty by a great many. The second, Miss Leah, is above eighteen years old, has rather dark hair and eyes, but of fair complexion, is quite pretty. The third, Miss Maggie, is about "Sweet Sixteen" has jet black hair and eyes, and fair complexion, is passably good looking, and will no doubt be a fine specimen of Virginia beauty when she is grown. The fourth, Miss Nellie, is about fourteen is almost the counterpart of Miss Leah tho' the mouth is somewhat different, larger and not so pretty. The fifth, and last, Miss Aggie, is about twelve years old, has black hair and eyes, hair is very short and stands on the top of her cranium (which by the way is shaped very much like a large monkey's) like the hair on a wire-haired terrier, her nose is more like a hawk's bill than any thing I can think of to compare it to, and her complexion a strange one. Her face is well sprinkled with freckles, about like a turkey's egg, and has a dry perpetual bloom on it, like a frostbitten leaf in autumn. The boy, "Alick," as they call him, . . . is perhaps ten years old, and a fine looking boy . . .

I staid [sic] at Loin Taliaferro's nearly one month, which by the way is in Culpepper County, and I spent quite a pleasant time there. They were very kind to me, could not have paid more attention had I been a member of the family, for the last four days, I have been over in Orange County just across the "Rapid Ann" and not more than three quarters of a mile from Coln Taliaferro's. I am staying at the residence of one of "Nature's Noblemen" Capt. Henry Holliday, than whom a better man does not live. He is a widower, but one of his sisters is living with him. She is not pretty, but is quite good-looking, and improves amazingly on acquaintance. She is pious, intelligent, amiable, and is a fine housekeeper, as her table attests, and of course is a great favorite of mine. She has a sister, (who comes over occasionally) who is about seventeen years old, and is very pretty, indeed I think you would call her beautiful. . . . Rumor says she is one of the best housekeepers in the county, and is as industrious as a bee. Also, that she is the very personification of amiability, and of course she is intelligent. In fact, she seems to have caught, "Nature's coy and furtive graces," and spread them like witchery about her person. She has all the delightful blushing consciousness of an artless girl, inexperienced in coquetry who is ignorant of having made the first conquest. I have seen, and known many fair and good ladies in the course of my somewhat chequered life, but I confess, that this is the first volume of woman-kind, I have ever attempted to study on so short an acquaintance. I was captivated with the very title page; but the further I read, the more am I delighted. . . . Your respectful and constant friend.

J. Douglas Fowler
On the evening following the Battle of Manassas, while he was waiting for his wound to be attended to, Fowler received a visit from Confederate President Jefferson Davis. A brief conversation with the injured soldier so impressed Davis that he told the young man to visit him at Richmond upon his recovery. Fowler did so and Davis recommended him for a commission as an officer of Confederate States Marines. On October 25, 1861, John D. Fowler was so appointed.

At the time of the Alabamian's appointment, the only Confederate States Marines in Richmond were those serving on the headquarters staff: Colonel Lloyd J. Beall, commandant of the corps; Major Richard Taylor Allison, paymaster; Major Israel Greene, adjutant; and one or two recently commissioned subalterns. The field battalion, consisting of three companies of Marines, was then in Florida serving with the Army of Pensacola under the command of Maj. Gen. Braxton Bragg. Ultimately, all three companies ended up stationed in Virginia and Fowler would become associated with all of them.

I lay on the bank of the Creek six long hours, before I was moved by South Carolinians. They put me in a good wagon and carried me to a tent hospital of the S. Carolinians (about midway between the battlefield and the junction) three miles from where I was wounded. I think I suffered about a half a dozen deaths going those miles, and when I reached the hospital, it was so full they could not put me in there, so I lay out in the rain until nine o'clock Monday morning. LETTER TO MRS. M. E. TERRELL

The letter reproduced on this page was written by a brother-in-law of Mrs. Terrell's daughter.

John Douglas Fowler joined the Confederate army April 15, 1861 in Alabama; hit by a minnie ball in July 1861 at the battle of Manassas; chance meeting while recuperating with president Jefferson Davis propelled him to a very unusual position, Lt. Confederate Marine Corps.

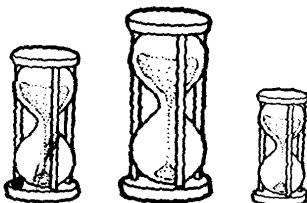

Fowler came from an old VA family that had prospered. In the 1850's financial difficulties forced him to migrate to Uniontown AL with his elder brother, Theophilus G. Fowler.

Mrs. Terrell was mother of Theophilus' wife.

He wrote his brother in July 1862 that he had written her five letters, but had not received a single reply. Only this letter was reproduced in the article about him. Apparently, he never fully recovered from his wounds. Illness during the summer of 1862 forced him to take sick leave. Lt. J. D. Fowler died in his mother's arms at Goochland County, VA August 31, 1862.

with the aid of conducted tours, teas, collections of ancient motor cars in the stables, or zoos and aviaries in the demesnes.

Thornbury in Gloucestershire would seem to have been the last building project in England to be described categorically as a castle. Conceived by Edward Stafford, duke of Buckingham, it began to take shape in 1511 but came to a halt when Henry VIII ordered his beheading in 1521. Its long west front and tower remain impressive, but the battlements and arrow slits are unashamedly ornamental, the bay windows are too spacious for a defensive building, and the whole thing is crowned by remarkable triple groupings of convoluted brick chimneys, like fantastic watch-towers yet utterly unmilitary in character.

The horrors of disease, deprivation and torture, of starvation during sieges and of death in foul dungeons, recede into the background when we contemplate the romantic silhouette of some old tower and battlements on the skyline. Romance survives; everyday reality conveniently fades. Edward Gibbon was right:

There is more pleasure in building castles in the air than on the ground.

and the Mythological from Europe*

The castle shown in the upper left is named WINGFIELD and located in Suffolk England.

The article which accompanied this photo did not give any information about the builder or his genealogy. However, most of you will recall that WINGFIELD is one of the surnames which has been prominently connected with TERRELL in this country.

The embroidered figures on page 316 are from the famous BAYEUX TAPESTRY which was made during the 11th century. The tapestry is about one foot high and about 100 feet long. It depicts scenes from the famous BATTLE OF HASTINGS won by William the Conqueror.

On the pages that follow, we begin the INTERNATIONAL GENEALOGICAL INDEX for LONDON ENGLAND.

This information is directly from microfilm in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) and is readily available not only in the TERRELL variations, but in almost any surname imaginable. The information is free to anyone who cares to search for it.
