I am writing to correct an error published in TRAILS. My great-grandfather TERRELL's first name was NOT Alonzo, as I previously reported. I am very sorry for the misinformation. I hope I didn't lead anyone on a wild goose chase due to the error. It is better to have his name UNKNOWN rather than INCORRECT. Mrs. Laura TERRELL Timmons.

GENEALOGY? ASK DAN!

Q. WHERE DID CORNELIUS D. TERRELL COME FROM?

I am attempting to trace the geographical origins of the first 1000 individuals who bought land from the Springfield, MO land office. Unfortunately, 498 are still missing. I am sure you can understand why I cannot subscribe to all the surname newsletters, journals, and quarterlies that have those surnames. One of the most difficult of my missing pioneers is a man called Cornelius D. TERRILL. I hope that you will run at least part of the enclosed information in your quarterly. Thank you very much for Consideration.

Cornelius D. TERRELL was b. ca 1800. He d. after the 1840 census of Taney County and before 12/01/1840 when bond was taken on his estate. He. m. in Greene County 04/21/1835 to Elizabeth, widow of James WILSON.

C. D. TERRELL first appeared in Greene Co. MO on the 1834 tax list with 1 horse. On 07/17/1837, he mortgaged a lot in Springfield to Samuel GRIGSBY and no release indicated, so he was not able to pay the debt.

He was listed in the Taney Co. 1840 Census, p. 117 with 1 male under 5, 2 males 5-10, 1 male 10-15, 1 male 20-30, and 1 male 30-40; 1 female 10-15, 1 female 20-30. He was the administrator of the estate of Joseph CROW in 1836.

Peter APPERSON, Jr. (who lived in Overton County TN and Cooper Co. MO before moving to Greene Co.) was appointed Administrator of C. D. TERRILL's estate with John EDWARDS, Sr. (who may have been a relation of Peter APPERSON, Jr.'s wife, Melinda EDWARDS, whose ancestry is unknown) and John BURDEN as surities $2,000. When John Edwards became insolvent, Peter APPERSON, Sr. placed security. Part of his probate case seems to be missing and was probably settled in Taney County, but those records are burned. The part in Greene County contains no listing of heirs, no letters of administration, and no distribution. Many people in Greene County owed Dr. TERRELL money and there was an estate sale held which named many individuals from Greene County. Joseph BURDEN came to court in 1845 and wished to make the court aware that John EDWARDS, Senior had become insolvent and he was now the only security. Therefore, Peter APPERSON, Sr was made security at an amount of $2,000 (Greene Co. Probate #9745). The estate was appraised by John W. HANCOCK, Eli JESSUP, and William P. COX.

A negro girl, Addy [Adaline], valued at $400 was sold 07/18/1842 for $651.00 along with two wolf scalps for a total of $653.00.

On 03/11/1843, the estate was charged for attending the sale of Stephen BOONE property for the benefit of estate.

A list of notes belonging to the estate of Cornelius TERRELL included: Daniel BROWN, 1839; James BURROW, 1839; John

MATERIALS WELCOMED

Materials pertaining to anyone who is a TERRELL or descendant via any variation of spelling are welcomed for submission to be used in TRAILS.

Possible materials include: biographies (short as in WHO'S WHO); obituaries; photographs (copies, not originals); news items; wills; deeds; historical court decrees; land grants; patents; old letters describing migrations, or family historical events--establishing births, marriages, deaths, etc; ad infinitum.

Your editor would prefer that these materials be presented in a form that does not require retyping if possible.

We can read any IBM compatible 5 1/4" diskettes in either 360K or 1.2 Meg format as well as 3 1/2" diskettes in 720K format. If you are using a computer with the older CP/M operating system, we will probably be able to read those.

Word processing files should be confined to either WORDSTAR or plain ASCII.

Photographs, drawings, plats, etc. are welcomed provided they are no larger than 11 X 17 inches. Your editor can scan materials up to 11 X 14 inches directly into TRAILS. Larger materials will have to be reduced on the copy machine at the local library and may lose detail in the process.

We reserve the right to edit materials for length, grammar, spelling, and clarity. Whenever possible materials will be used as presented to preserve the atmosphere of the era.

We also reserve the right to decide which materials to use and when. We will publish as many materials as finances permit.

Materials submitted become the property of the TERRELL SOCIETY OF AMERICA, INC. and will not be returned.

Please submit materials for publication directly to: Dan Brinson, Editor, TERRELL TRAILS; Rt 2 Box 33; Cairo, GA 31728.

At the sale held on 01/01/1841, Samuel THOMAS bought the Bible and a Thomas TERRELL was mentioned. [One Thomas TERRELL was enumerated in Greene Co. in 1850 #433 as 34 years of age, b. NC, all his children b. MO.]

TERRELL appeared to be in partnership with John W. BALL and later with Benjamin JEWETT.

Suit of Joseph HALL vs. estate of C. D. TERRELL. Those summoned in February 1842 included: John W. BALL; Rebecca CROW; L. D. HALAY; A. YOUNG; & Charles W. YOUNG. Executed by Thomas HORN, sheriff.

Milton APPERSON was paid for driving cattle and horses in December 1840.

In 1850, one Cornelius TERRELL (probably C. D.'s son) was living in Newton County, MO in Neosho Twp. p. 331: Cornelius TERRELL, age 11, b. MO. He was living with J. J. SNEAD, age 40, physician, b. VA $2,000; Ann, age 40 b. TN; also in the family was Susan MATHIS, age 8 b. MO. [Nothing was found in Greene Co. records on J. J. SNEAD.]

On 04/24/1860 Cornelius D. TERRELL, as son and heir of C. D. TERRELL, deceased by his attorney, John M. RICHARDSON, filed a bill of complaint against Peter APPERSON and asked that the court revoke letters of administration of Peter APPERSON and issue them to someone else. C. D. TERRELL complained that Peter APPERSON has become so much addicted to drunkenness that he is "unsuitable to execute the business reposed in him." The outcome cannot be determined from the probate packet. In August 1860, the probate court reported that the defendant had been notified, but stated that he would not appear. It appeared to the satisfaction of the court that Peter APPERSON was unfit to administer the estate, that he failed to discharge his duties and he was released. The Public Administration was appointed to continue the administration (Greene County Probate Book C, p. 573.)

He served in the Union army during the Civil War. Two of his letters to his wife survived.

Mrs. Franklin wrote this about the first letter: "No date is given on this letter. Must have been written after he left Nashville and on their way to Shiloh, or just before coming into Nashville. His reference to the whereabouts of Robert GRAY, very interesting, for he must have been his first wife's (Polly GRAY) father, my grandmother's (Mary TERRELL Horp) grandfather.

Henry Clay TERRELL

Eliza I must tell you some good new, Capt. SNIDERS Company is in camp within one mile and one half of our camp. William HARRISON was the first to find us. We got here on the 25th of the month and Capt. SNIDERS on the 26th day. James HARDESTY came in that night and staid in our tent. He had his canteen full of molasses and we had a fine breakfast. John SULLIVAN came down here and is well and harty. Will COOK came into se us. The boys is generly well but they have to sleep without their tents in the wagons and has not got tents yeat. I have not saw Dick PUGH yeat but will see him this evening. Richard FOSTER and William HARRISON come to see us last night. James HARRISON come to see us. He is well. Tell all their connections where they are and most of them is well. All that I have named is well and all that I [know] of being sick is Wesley GRAY and Bushy. Bushy was in Elizabethtown as we pass through there on the 15th of Feb. He was well then. The boys says he has not come up yeat.

I sent you the Proven Act on father's real estate in my letter from Evansville. Write to me and let me know whether you got it or not. Write to me at Camp Andrew Jackson near Nashville, Tenn. NELSON 19 Brigade and 4 Division Col WHITAKERS reg. 6 KY Vol, Company D in care of Capt. E. HADDEN.

If we get paid before I start this letter, I will send you all of the money but some little so that if I new anything that I can do with out that I may get it. Tell Gilbert that I want him to settle with John HARRISON and let you have my part if I have not got it and tell John to pay for the five hogs that I fattened from the time I tuck his hay. I cant tell you all only Capten SNIDERS men found Judge BARNETT's haversack and some of his clothing at Bollinggreen and he had to leave in such a hurry that he could not have time to geather all his things. The boys says there was some fifteen hundred Cesich [Cecessionists] died at Bollinggreen and a lot of other things. If I can keep my health, I don't fear anything else. The only thing is a man must take leave (?) of himself and that is a thing I try not to do (?) [A man cannot get authorization to leave, he must go AWOL?]

Elisha BROWN is very sick with the Pheumoney. Sam DOWNEY (?) is sick but is better. Harry CHOAT is sick this morning. the ballance of the boys is well. I sent some to the children. Kiss Anny, Cap and Nancy for me. Tell Anny and Cap that paw wants to see them and to be good children until I come home and I will bring them something pretty.

This rebellion cant last long for the Rebles is leaving every place and all their heavy guns. There was near twenty five thousan guns burnt up in the Depo in Bolingreen so William HARRISON said. I will not write any more this morning until I can see Dick PUGH. The old Stars and Stripes floats over the Capital at Nashville. The Rebels when they left burned the railroad bridge across the river. See Wash McClain and tell him to find out where Robert GRAY --- down hear I may find him or some of his boys.

(across the margin) I could fill a book riting all I have seen. I dreamed this morning of seeing you all and kissing my little ones and Mary WILLIAMS (?)

Comfort, 12, female, b. IL

Mary, 11, female, b. IL;

William, 5, male, b. IL.

(We can't understand why there is a William TERRELL in both townships unless the family moved and were recorded in each place. We believe this [which?] William to be a brother to the Elizabeth who married Josiah CONNELLY.)

[Editor's Note: Census records consist of what the census taker thought someone was telling him. Records are rife with errors. However, in this case, William, Nancy, Comfort, & Mary are all very common given names for that era. Unless Josiah was also known as Mathias, these are two different Williams. This theory is strengthened by the fact that they and their wives are listed as having been born in different states. DFB]

ANDREW JACKSON TERRELL, OBITUARY

Submitted by #293 Mrs. Eleanor N. Howard

(The obituary I copied this from was very hard to read and some was gone which explains the blank spaces.

We understand that Andy's mother was a sister to Elizabeth TERRELL who md. Josiah CONNELLY. Evidently William TERRELL was an uncle and surely was a brother to Elizabeth also.)

Andrew Jackson TERRELL was born ____ 1824 in Lawrence Co. IN and died in Cleone March 23, 1911. His mother died when he was small and he lived with his grandmother until 9 years old. Then with his uncle, Wm. TERREL, a pioneer of 1833 they moved to Clark County. Andy lived with his uncle Josiah CONNELLY until of age. Without money or property, he went to live with his cousin, Mrs. Mary JOHNSTON whose husband was a member of the Isaac & Jordon JOHNSTON farming and livestock company. He worked for them and with Ceph PATTEE helped drive milk cows etc. to Chicago and Kankakee to sell to settlers. June 1849, he married Amanda Jane DARNELL of Westfield township and to them were born two daughters, Lucinda and America Bishop, and sons John, Newton, and A. J.

Jr. All except Lucinda survive. In 1859, they moved overland to Kansas, but soon returned and operated a farm in Parker township where his wife died March 26, 1865. In 1879, he and son Jasper went out to Fort Scott, Kansas, returning in a year and had resided in Clark county ever since.

____ inspirations, Andy was pre ____ successful, serving his township as assessor, road commissioner, constable, school trustee, etc. Mr. TERRELL was a gentleman of the old school, possessing great natural ability, but no education except self ____ and being a great reader was sociable, generous, kind, influential, and forgiving and a good neighbor and citizen. All his pioneer associates in the days of long ago have passed over the great divide except three: Sarah Bean Ulrey, Clark Hammon, and Barney Collier. Wm. Ulrey, an old neighbor stayed with Mr. TERRELL every night during his last sickness.

HENRY TERRELL I

Submitted by Mrs. Marion Crowel

Son of William and Susanna TERRELL, Henry was born in Hanover County Virginia, about 1703, but lived most of his life in Caroline County, VA. He was a Quaker lawyer and transacted business only for Quakers. He was also a general merchant, importing goods directly from Bristol and Liverpool, and became a wealthy man for his time.

Recently, his will has been found, also an inventory of his estate. In his will, he provides liberally for all of his children, besides a number of bequests for others.

The inventory of his estate contains a list and date of the births of his children, now in possession of the writer, from which it appears that he is designated as "Henry the First," the "oldest" and that he died after March 1760.

He married his second wife, Sarah WOODSON, daughter of Tarlton WOODSON of Henrico County, Virginia, in 1743.

By his first marriage, he had four children:

Henry TERRELL, born March 29, 1735, died in Clark County, KY in 4th month 1812

Thomas TERRELL born 8th month, 20th day 1736, died 11th

month 1804

Betty TERRELL, born 9th month, 7th day 1738, married Zacheriah MOOREMAN, died in VA.

Anna TERRELL, born 9th month 16th day, 1740. Married Col. Charles LYNCH, Jr.

By second marriage to Sarah WOODSON:

Ursula TERRELL, born 3rd month, 11th day 1746; married John RAGLAND of VA.

Charles TERRELL, born 8th month, 3rd day, 1748;

Judith TERRELL, born 2nd month, 6th day, 1750;

Abigail TERRELL, born 2nd month, 6th day, 1751, married Col. DURRETT, VA.

George TERRELL born 6th month 28th day 1753;

and the Mythological from Europe*

ALTERNATIVE TERRELL ORIGINS

Submitted by Mrs. Marian Crowel

History, traditions and genealogy have been compiled by General W. H. H. TERRELL, 1883, of Indianapolis, IN, with notes by Hon. Robert W. CARROLL, and Lynch M. TERRELL, 1890.

The following are a few high lights, copied from this history, a copy of which is in the possession of some of the TERRELLS in the state of Texas, to wit, Ms. Maude JONES of Greenville, TX.

NAME ORIGIN

The family first gained a foothold in England during the conquest of William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066, through Sir Walter TYRRELL (TERRELL), the "Red Knight of Normandie," whose name is first mentioned in the history of King William RUFUS, son and successor of the Conqueror, in connection with the tragic death of the monarch.

The King and Sir Walter were hunting one day in the New Forest, the royal game preserve of the Crown. Suddenly a stag sprang up. Sir Walter shot at it hastily, but his arrow glanced from a tree, struck and killed the King. The horror stricken Knight, overwhelmed with grief, protested that the death of his royal sovereign was accidental, but a clamor to the contrary was raised by the populace to such an extent that Sir Walter deemed it prudent to return to Normandy, from whence in due course of time, according to the law of that day, he made 'monied compensation' for his unfortunate shot and was permitted to return to England and resume his title and estate. From that period, the family existed in England, "Valient and noble," and is still represented in the Peerage of that country.

THREE BROTHERS

From this old Anglo-Norman stock sprang three brothers, named William, James, and John TERRELL, who, according to tradition during the protectorate of Cromwell, being Quakers and grievously persecuted on account of their religion, left England and took up their abode in the "English Pale" in that part of Ireland in which the protector had previously confiscated and set apart for the occupancy of English colonists. Thus the three brothers were temporarily domiciled in Ireland, and from thence, they emigrated to Virginia in the latter half of the 17th century. William TERRELL located in Virginia, another TERRELL located in North Carolina, and the third brother in New England.

How long they remained in Ireland is not known, but it is probable that they were looked upon as intruders, their religion condemned and their general treatment made so uncomfortable by social ostracism that a second move became necessary. Prior to their coming to Virginia, none bearing their name had preceded them, as has been verified by a careful examination of the old lists of colonists who came over under the auspices of the Virginia Company and its governmental successor. They are, therefore, supposed to be the first of the TERRELL family to come to this country, the date being probably not earlier than 1665, nor later than 1700.

One of the corporators or grantees of the Virginia Company, which was chartered by James the First, was Francis TERRELL of London. The charter included several hundred grantees, and provided that "The grantees and their successors to be known and incorporated by the name of the 'Treasurer and Company of Adventurers and Planters' of the City of London, for the first colony of Virginia, whether they go in their persons to be planters there in the plantation, or 'Whether they go not, but adventure their monies, goods, and chattels. That they shall be one body or Commonalty Perpetual,' etc. (SMITH'S, HISTORY OF VIRGINIA, Appendix "p" 11)

TERRELL COUNTY NC

Near the Virginia Coast line in North Carolina lies the county of TERRELL, one of the oldest counties in the Province and one of the original precincts of the Lord Proprietors. It forms the first part of the mainland of this continent discovered by Sir Walter RALEIGH on his first voyage in 1564. It derived its name from Sir John TYRRELL who owned that part of the province which had been originally granted in 1663, by Charles II to his Chancellor of the Exchequer, Anthony Lord ASHLEY. (See WHEELER'S, HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA) It is presumed that one of the three brothers who located in North Carolina was drawn thither by some family connection with, or overture of an advantageous nature made by the said Sir John.

It is a well established fact that William TERRELL, one of the three brothers located in Virginia and that another settled near there in North Carolina. Of the New England brother, we have no trace or record. The southern branches of the family are widely represented by descendants still living in nearly all of the southern and western states. It is a natural thing for members of an adventurous and enterprising family in their migration to follow in the footsteps of their relative who have advanced before them, as well as to scatter into new fields.

Therefore, it is reasonable to conclude that the large landed interests of Francis TYRRELL in Virginia, and of Sir John TYRRELL in North Carolina, may have had great weight in the immigration and location of two of the three brothers in the south.

HEREDITARY TITLES IN THE NOBILITY

The writer of these notes makes no special pretension that the family from which he is descended is of noble ancestry, although this claim has been maintained with such plausibility and pride by many of the TERRELLS of the early American generations and much reliable data to sustain the claim has been adduced. From historical gleaning, it appears that the old family name of TYRRELL was first enrolled among the nobility in the honor of Sir Walter TYRRELL, at or about the time of the invasion and the conquest of England by William of Normandy, as heretofore noted.

In the CHRONICLES OF FRANCE AND ENGLAND, by Sir John FROISSART, we find that Edward, the Black Prince, in A. D. 1367, went to reinstate Don Pedro of Spain, who had been dethroned by Henry, the Bastard, speaking of the members of the order of good and true knights who accompanied that victorious expedition, the names of Sir John and Sir James TYRRELL are mentioned with approbation. Sir John TYRRELL, who had been knighted on the field for valorous conduct, is also mentioned by the same author as of the English expedition sent, about 1367, under the Earl of Buckingham to succeed the Duke of Britany in France.

In the time of Richard III, Sir James TYRRELL was Master of the Horse, a position of high honor and only held by men of great ability and progress. He was accused (whether justly or not is still disputed among historians) of the murder of the young Princes in the Tower, for which he was beheaded.

In the fourth year of the reign of Henry II of England, (1489) the Earl of Dixevre in Flanders, held by the English was besieged by the French, who were repulsed with great slaughter. Among the English Noblemen who were hurt was Sir James TYRRELL, "sore wounded in the legges with a quarrel." In another place in the same report the name of Sir James is spelled "TERRELL." (Old English Chronicle of 1489, reprinted in DODSLEY'S ANNUAL REGISTER for 1771.

In the fifteenth century, Pierre Du TERRAIL of France, of an ancient family, was enobled in the recognition of his high chivalrous bearing and splendid valor at arms in tournaments and upon the field of honor. When the order of the Knighthood was conferred, he abandoned his original name of Peter TERRIAL, and in accordance with the customs of chivalry, assumed the Knightly title of the Chivalier Bayard. He is known in history as the "Good Knight," Sans Paur et sans Reprocher (without fear and without reproach), and is renowned as the most superb representative of chivalry of any age or country.

In giving the lineage and history of the TYRRELL family of England, now or recently represented in the peerage by Sir John Tyssen TYRRELL, Baronet of Boreham House, County Essex, Debratts BARONETAGE OF ENGLAND says: "The family is descended from Sir Walter TYRRELL, who slew King William Rufus, and who appears in the DOOMSDAY BOOK as "Siezed of the Manor of Logham in Essex." He is the common ancestor of "several families of the name seated in the various parts of England, but chiefly in Essex and Suffolk." For fifteen generations from this Sir Walter, the head of the family appears to have been constantly knighted. Among them, Sir James TYRRELL, eighth in descent from Sir Walter, married Margaret, daughter of Sir William Heron, "Knight of Heron," and thereby acquired the Manor of Heron, which was subsequently for many generations the seat of his descendants. Sir John TYRRELL, of Heron, the great grandson of Sir James, was treasurer of the household of King Henry VI. Sixth in descent from him, eighteenth from Sir Walter TYRRELL, was Thomas TYRRELL of Heron, whose eldest son, Sir John, died without issue, and his second son, Thomas TYRRELL, was seated at Ramsey's TYRRELL, county Essex, and had issue Sir John TYRRELL, Knt., whose son Sir Charles, second Baronet (who died July 1735) and Sir John, Fifth Baronet, on whose death, without issue, in 1756, the title became extinct." Debritt continues the family lineage down in regular succession to the year 1809 when, under royal favor of George III, the Baronetage was revived and Sir John TYRRELL was invested with the order of Knighthood, and from it descended to Sir John Tyssen TYRRELL, of Boreham House, County Essex, by whom it was held as late as 1874.

COAT OF ARMS

The ancient Heraldic Arms of the TYRRELLS are engraved in Debritt's Baronetage (plate 41) and there described as follows: Arms; - Argent, with bordeur engrailed, Gules, two chevrons, azure

Crest; - A peacock's tail issuing from the mouth of a boar's head, coupéd erect

Supporters; - Two tigers, regardant

Motto; - "Sans Crainte" (Without fear).

[In our language, that translates into a white shield with a red border containing reversed scollops on the inside, with two blue chevrons (bars pointing upward like the Chevron Oil Co. Logo).

The helmet was topped with a hog's head cut off at the neck, mounted erect, with a peacock's tail sticking upright out of the hog's mouth. The shield was supported by two tigers standing on their hind legs with one paw on top of the shield and each looking backward away from the shield. The "motto" was actually not firm part of the arms and could be changed at any time by the knight or his heirs. This explains why several different mottos are floating around. The numerous members of the family also account for several minor variations in the shield itself, but that is beyond the scope of this article.]

TYRRELLS OF IRELAND

In a book entitled GENEALOGICAL HISTORY OF MILESAIN FAMILIES OF IRELAND, TYRRELLS are listed as of English Origin, Immigrated AD 1172, reside in Dublin, Donnegal, and Londonerry.

TERRELLS OF AMERICA

In the latter part of the 17th Century, between the years of 1665 & 1700, three brothers, William, John, and James TERRELL (Originally TYRRELL) of English birth and parentage and of Anglo-Norman descent, immigrated to America since they had lived sometime as colonists in Ireland. ### Mr. William Y. TERRILL PASSES

We extend our deepest sympathies to Mr. Don C. TERRILL on the death of his father Mr. William Y. TERRILL of Arlington VA on 07/08/1993.

You will recall that Mr. TERRILL and Don recently researched and published THE TERRILL FAMILY, DESCENDANTS OF JOHN AND CLARISSA TERRILL.

I found Mr. TERRILL both interesting and entertaining at the meeting he attended in Jonesboro GA several years ago. He had a deep love for all his TERRELL/TERRILL kin and will be deeply missed.

We conclude this issue with TERRELL listings of the International Genealogical Index (IGI) from the Family History Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) for Cornwall County in ENGLAND. We remind you that this type of information is available on all your surnames at your nearest branch of the library.
