EARLY TERRELL GRAVE MARKERS DESTROYED (UPDATE)

Submitted by #231 Ms. Barbara S. Kirby from FREDERICKSBURG FREE LANCE STAR: 02/22/97, page not listed; 03/26/97, page A8; and 03/28/97, page not listed.

The 02/22/97 article indicated that Jacqueline KEENEY, cultural resource manager for the Virginia Department of Transportation in Fredericksburg, said yesterday that she and Scott MOSER of the Caroline Sheriff's Office will visit the site as soon as they get permission from the landowners.

KENNEY (sic), an archaeologist who does similar research for VDOT, said she will search through the bulldozed debris for inscribed fieldstones and human bones. She will also look for recesses in the earth where bodies may be buried. Once she finishes her research, she said, she will turn a report over to MOSER.

Juan YOUNG, new owner of the property said he and his wife Anetta knew of a baby's tombstone, dated 1893, was on the property and it was left in place during the bulldozing. They denied knowing that the baby's grave was part of a cemetery where between 60 & 100 quakers were buried. Quakers typically did not mark graves, or used only fieldstones.

Herbert COLLINS, a descendant of some of the local Quaker families has talked with other Quakers since learning about what happened to the cemetery. They agree, he said, that if the graveyard is set aside by the landowners, the fieldstones could be put back in place. "We think that some funds can be raised to place a fence around the cemetery," he said.

TERRELL TRAILS

Robert HICKS of the Department of Criminal Justice Services in Richmond arranged for KEENEY to assist MOSER in his investigation.

The 03/26/97 article indicated that the incident had prompted a special meeting in Caroline on 03/27/97 at 7:00 pm at the Caroline High School auditorium called by Citizens for Historic Preservation.

The 03/28/97 article by Eileen MEAD, staff reporter contained the following new information.

Ollie CLARK has always known that some of her kin were buried in the 258-year-old Quaker cemetery at Golansville, and she assumed that their graves would remain undisturbed forever.

CLARK was one of 35 people who met at Caroline High School last night to support an effort to restore and preserve the historic graveyard which was bulldozed in February.

The Caroline county resident added her name to a list of hundreds of people from all over the country who are calling for an investigation of the damage, an archaeological study, and restoration of the graveyard.

They want the state to erect a historical marker near the cemetery, which is on the site of the Golansville Society of Friends 1739 meeting house. Only a foundation remains.

Investigator Scott MOSER of the Caroline County Sheriff's Office told the gathering that Deputy Wallace JANISH was first to alert him to the damage.

JANISH, who owns property across the road and grew up in the area, knew about the cemetery and was concerned when he saw that field stones that had served as grave markers had been pushed into a pile of dirt, and some of the old trees had been cut down.

YOUNG, owner of the property, denied any knowledge of the existence of the cemetery except for the LUCK tombstone. He has been cooperative and has agreed to set aside the property where the cemetery is located, MOSER said. YOUNG has suspended construction of his new home until an archaeologist finishes her research and MOSER completes his investigation.

Robert HICKS of the Department of Criminal Justice in Richmond attended the meeting last night to explain laws governing historic resources.

Efforts should be made to identify and protect all early grave sites before it is too late, he said.

Herbert COLLINS, a Caroline historian who found an documented the Quaker cemetery and meeting house two years ago, said he turned the information over to the Virginia Department of Historic Resources. Apparently, he said, it never got into the Caroline County records.

The history of the Quaker graveyard is also included in Virginia Lee HUTCHESON Davis' pamphlet "Tidewater Virginia Families."

The pamphlet said the Golansville Quakers were deeded an acre of land for a burying ground in 1779, through the will of John BURRUSS. BURRUSS, a pastor of a group that later established Carmel Baptist Church was married to Rachel TERRELL who was reared a Quaker.

Other entries say that the Golansville Quakers were the first dissenters from the Church of England in their part of the county.

Member #468; Mrs. Fay Parrish Wade; 8703 Ewes Ct; Richmond VA 23236; Phone: 804-674-5177 is personally leading the crusade to fully restore this cemetery. We are sure that she will appreciate all the support you can give her.

Our latest communication from her indicates that resolution may become reality without the necessity of legal action. The land owners approved the initial phase necessary to historic site designation status, including archaeological investigation to reveal the actual boundary, and possibly the number of grave sites in the cemetery.

Further goals of: replacing the original field stones; possibly marking all grave sites with additional stones; fencing the perimeter; replanting appropriate greenery; & placing a granite marker with engraved bronze plaque memorializing the families who were members of the Golansville Friends Meeting are still to be negotiated.

The ultimate goal of purchasing the adjacent meeting house site for future restoration will be negotiated after the cemetery restoration is complete, if the necessary financial support is obtained.

She says, "Your continued support is urgently needed! We should have limited financial responsibility (the granite marker & fencing) in the cemetery restoration; the meeting house is another matter. Please send your comments/ideas ASAP. Please consider a pledge for the cemetery restoration so we may estimate funds available for planning purposes. Many thanks for your concern & interest, 'Cousins.'"

His marriage broke up between 1890 & 1896. Editor's Note: The TYRRELL FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY in England appears to promote the belief that all the English & Irish TYRRELLS are descended from Sir Walter TYRRELL, the accused king-slayer. Those would include all the colonial immigrants to what is now the USA. However, I do not know how much documentation they have to support that theory. DFB

I have a problem of which I can't seem to get to the bottom. I believe that Jeremiah TERRELL who d. Elbert Co. GA 1816 was my 4th great grandfather. I have no proof, but I think that if I can get anyone with information on him I may be able to prove it. Mr. Ron Holley; 965 Huff Rd NW; Atlanta, GA 30318-4348; office 404-351-5512, home 770-975-8941

Editor's Note: Due to the limited information we have on Jeremiah TERRELL I am including excerpts from the rest of Mr. Holley's letter. There may be a gem here that you do not have! If you have something that might help Mr. Holley, please send it to him.

Jeremiah TERRELL is the only TERRELL of whom I am aware who named a son John in his will and has not been eliminated as the possible father of John TERREL who d. 1828/29 in Henry Co. GA. This interest is intensified by the fact that our John TERREL named a son Absalom, a name that also appears in the JORDAN families below. When one considers that Absalom JORDAN named a son George Walton JORDAN one can't help wondering if there was an earlier connection between him and the family of Louisa WALTON TERRELL, widow of Jeremiah TERRELL. [DFB]

On 12/18/1778, Jeremiah TERRELL sold to James AULD of the same county, 150 acres of land where TERRELL lived on the west side of the Pee Dee River in Anson County NC.

Jeremiah TERRELL appears in 1786 Wilkes Co. GA Tax Digest. (Elbert County was formed from Wilkes in Dec.1790)

Jeremiah TERRELL lived in the part of Elbert County near the Savannah River and Pickens Creek. Also living near him were John JORDAN; James JORDAN; & Absalom JORDAN. George Walton & Joshua JORDAN, sons of Absalom JORDAN also lived nearby. Later John JORDAN sold that property and moved into the western part of Elbert county.

In Jeremiah's will, he names his grandson, John JORDAN, son of James JORDAN. He also mentions daughter Rachel's heirs, but gives neither Rachel's married name nor the names of her children. We know that this grandson John is not the son of our James JORDAN since James's eldest son was Stephen White JORDAN. Furthermore, the land that Jeremiah TERRELL left to grandson John JORDAN was sold by John JORDAN of Franklin Co. GA in the early 1830s.

Thomas MAXWELL was an early pastor of Holly Springs Baptist Church (founded 1795) in Elbert Co. GA. Elijah MAXWELL, son of Thomas, md. an Elizabeth JORDAN. Thomas MAXWELL's family Bible lists Elizabeth JORDAN and her brother and sisters birth dates.

Her brother was James JORDAN. Her sisters were: Jane JORDAN md. Reuben HAM in Elbert Co. GA; Nancy JORDAN md. William HANNAH in Madison Co. GA; Annie A. JORDAN md. Hugh BRITT Jr in Madison Co. GA; Rebecca JORDAN md. (1) Job GOOLSBY in Madison Co. GA (2) George OWENS in Oglethorpe Co. GA.

We are pretty sure that these JORDAN children were the offspring of Rachel TERRELL & John JORDAN since John was the only JORDAN in Madison Co. GA at the time of these children's marriages. The earlier marriages were in Elbert Co. before Madison Co. was formed (mostly from Elbert).

Since River JORDAN who came to Wilkes (now Elbert) Co. GA, the reputed father of John JORDAN was also in Anson Co. NC at the same time as Jeremiah TERRELL and living on the west side of the Pee Dee River, we think that John JORDAN & Rachel TERRELL were md. in Anson Co. NC about 1779. Records in Anson Co. were destroyed at least once by fire. Except for the deed, we found nothing on him in Anson Co. NC.

Another problem is that James JORDAN (my 3rd. great grandfather) who md. Obedience 'Beda' WHITE in Elbert Co. GA in 1807, died in 1826 leaving several orphans. We cannot prove his parents. There were at least 3 James JORDANs living in Elbert Co. GA during the time our James was alive. We think we have connected all of them to other families except our James and the James in the MAXWELL Bible. This leaves the distinct probability that our James JORDAN and the MAXWELL Bible James JORDAN are one and the same!

Mr. Holley included the following group sheets:

TYRRELL PUBLISHES CONTROVERSIAL BOOK ON BILL CLINTON

Submitted by Mr. Don C. Terrill in form of advertisement from The WASHINGTON TIMES, 10/04/96, page A11.

No one has done more to lay bare the truth about Bill CLINTON'S character and career than R. Emmett [Bob] TYRRELL and his magazine, The American Spectator. Now, TYRRELL draws together all the known facts about Clinton — plus many never before revealed — into the most comprehensive, illuminating, and biting irreverent biography ever written about a sitting U. S. president.

In Boy Clinton: The Political Biography, TYRRELL unearths troubling new revelations about both Bill & Hillary CLINTON, and sheds important light on their activities in Arkansas & Washington. He points out many previously unobserved connections in the evidence against the Clintons and nails down countless contradictions and inconsistencies in their public statements about it.

TYRRELL traces Clinton's life and career from boyhood to the present, drawing heavily on interviews with the friends and associates who knew him best.

TYRRELL reveals the formative influence on the young, fatherless CLINTON of the hustler and rogues who populated his real childhood hometown of Hot Springs (not Hope), Arkansas. He shows how the influence-peddlers who dominated Arkansas politics served as CLINTON's real political mentors and role models. And he explains how these factors combined with CLINTON's Sixties-era radicalism to create a new, more dangerous type of career politician.

Clinton stories the media missed—or buried exposed in this book include:

1. Did then-Governor Clinton knowingly benefit from the profits of a cocaine-smuggling ring operating out of the Mena, Arkansas airport?
 2. The "peculiar pattern" of deaths of people connected to the Clintons during their rise to power—serious questions that can't be dismissed with accusations of conspiracy-mongering
 3. Bill & Hillary's college years: keys to understanding their politics, and their characters
 4. TYRRELL's revealing interview with a member of Prague's "Communist ruling class" whom Clinton visited during a 1970 trip
 - Clinton's lies: as outlandish as they are often unnecessary. What makes him lie all-out when even a half-truth will do?
 5. "public service," Clinton style: Bill and Hillary's shameless sponging off taxpayers throughout their adult lives
 - 6.; His adulteries, and hers
 7. Clinton's habitual lateness and mysterious disappearances from state functions—just an endearing fault?
- The overwhelming evidence—enough to convict any lesser citizen—that the Clintons are guilty of tax fraud, obstruction of justice, and lying to government agencies (for starters).

Well..., I said it is controversial! Get a copy and see for yourself!

Boy Clinton is available from book store nationwide or directly from the publisher: Regnery Publishing Inc; P O Box 39; Federalsburg MD 21632-0039 for $24.95 per hardcover book (356 pages) and $4.00 shipping & handling. Phone 1-800-955-5493.

TYRRELL MUSEUM COMMENTS ON FEATHERED DINOSAUR

Submitted by Mr. William D. Terrell from American Statesman, Austin TX 10/18/96 titled "Feathered fossil may be proof of bird-dinosaur link"

NEW YORK—Chinese paleontologists have found the remains of a 121-million-year-old feathered dinosaur, providing what could be the most graphic evidence yet that birds are descended from the pre-historic titans.

Photographs of the fossilized creature show an unmistakable downy stripe running down its back. If the feathered dinosaur is confirmed, say paleontologists who have seen the fossil, then it provides almost irrefutable evidence that today's birds evolved from dinosaurs.

"As soon as they showed me the specimen, it just blew me away," said Phil CURRIE, a paleontologist at the Royal Tyrrell (sic) Museum in Canada. "You can't come to any conclusion other than that they're feathers."

In life, CURRIE said, the feathered dinosaur was about three feet long. It ran on its hind legs, holding its front limbs in front of it in the manner of the vicious velociraptors in the film "Jurassic Park."

The dinosaur wasn't a velociraptor, however. CURRIE judged from its appearance that the feathered dinosaur is related closely to the compsognathus, a relatively small dinosaur that ate insects and other small animals.

TERRIL IA—NAMED FOR NO ONE

Submitted by #144 Mr. Don C. Terrill

The TERRELL name and its variations appear here and there on the maps of the United States. Some of the better known places are Terrell County Texas named for General

E. R. TERRELL, (CSA); Terrell City TX, named for Robert A. TERRELL (an early settler); Tyrrell County NC named for Sir John TYRRELL (one of the early Lord Proprietors of the colony); and Terrell NC named for Rev. Pinkney Lawson TERRELL.

Another such place is in the southeast corner of Dickenson County Iowa—a town called TERRIL. I assumed, as would most people, that it was named for an early settler or favorite son. My research revealed that it was named for no one. According to A History of Dickenson County, Iowa (R. A. Smith, The Kenyon Printing & Mfg. Co., Des Moines, IA 1897, Lib. Cong. F627 .D5S6, at pp. 513-514)

"...a movement had been started to build up a town near the center of Lloyd township. The tract selected was part of Section 15 and was owned by E. E. TAYLOR, who had it surveyed, platted and put on record in the summer of 1895. The first name hit upon for the new town was "Trilby," but upon applying to the department for a post office, it was ascertained that there was already a post office by that name in Iowa, and so the name Terrill (sic) was substituted in its place. A store, bank, and hotel and some other buildings were erected this season."

TRAILS, page 381:#226 Agnes LoRetta CLARK Parker listed Elizabeth "Betsey" TERRELL as daughter of Timothy & Mary MARTIN TERRELL of Orange Co. VA. She lists Timothy TERRELL as son of William TERRELL & Susannah WATERS.

TRAILS, page 620: Member #377 Lynn TOLLESON Goen indicated she descended via Stephen TOLLESON & Kesiah WILKINS from Elizabeth "Betsy" TERRELL WILKINS. She listed her parents as Timothy & Mary MARTIN TERRELL, grandparents William & Susannah WATERS TERRELL; g-grandparent Richmond TERRELL; gg-grandparents, Robert TYRRELL & Jane BALDWIN of Reading England.

It appears that descendants cannot agree on the lineages. In view of the loss of records from that era, it is doubtful that anything can be positively proven. DFB
