The Club was organized May 15, 1884 for the purpose of "collecting, preserving, and publishing historical material, especially pertaining to Kentucky and adjacent states...to encourage historic inquiry and study...and to maintain a library and museum to further these goals." Incorporated in 1891.

Programs and Departments of the Filson Club

LIBRARY: The Library of the Filson Club, which contains fifty thousand research books, is noted for its genealogical holdings, files on individual families, abstracts of wills, deeds, and marriage and court records from many Kentucky counties. The library is open to the public. (There is a $3 daily usage fee for nonmembers.)

MANUSCRIPT DEPARTMENT: The Club's rich collection of manuscript material is the best in Kentucky for the pioneer, antebellum, and Civil War periods. The collection of over one million items provides an essential primary source of research material.

LECTURE SERIES: Since the Club's beginning, an annual lecture series of six or more presentations has been open to the public. Qualified experts speak on aspects of Kentucky history, art, heritage, and many other topics.

PUBLICATIONS: Over forty volumes of Kentucky history and biography have been published by the Filson Club. Many of these books are the standard reference on their subjects and have drawn national recognition to the Club's scholarship. Since 1926 the Club has published The Filson Club History Quarterly, an outstanding state journal that features articles on aspects of Kentucky's culture and history.

DEPARTMENT OF PHOTOGRAPHS AND PRINTS:

This department is responsible for maintaining and preserving thousands of early photographs and illustrations that help illuminate Kentucky's past.

MUSEUM: The Filson Club's Museum of Kentucky art and artifacts helps preserve the state's material culture through its highly-regarded collections of decorative arts, nineteenth-century paintings, firearms, coin silver objects, ceramics, textiles, ephemera, and other artifacts.

MISSISSIPPI SLAVE SCHEDULE 1860 NOXUBEE COUNTY

(Number next to name is number of slaves owned. Names are listed in order of appearance in the 1860 Census which is probably as the census taker traveled. This makes it easier to determine neighbors who might have intermarried. I did not extract this list. The compiler may have mistaken some colonial or long 's' for 'f'.)

TERRELL AIDS TERMINALLY ILL ADULTS

My name is Linda Terrell and I am the founder of a nonprofit organization, WISHING ON THE LONE STAR.

WISHING ON THE LONE STAR is helping people 17 years and older with terminal diseases or who are catastrophically ill. Our goal is to grant WISHES to these people. It may be a family trip to Disneyland or something as simple as a romantic dinner for two.

WISHING ON THE LONE STAR, Inc. is a newly organized nonprofit organization. We received our nonprofit certificate from the State September 29, 1995, and our 501(c)(3) in March of 1996.

There are about 89 other organizations out there that grant wishes to children, but this organization is unique in the fact that we help people 17 years and older. We are the only one of this type in the entire U.S.A.

There is a multitude of people who have dreams and WISHES. We want to grant WISHES to those people who are ill and will never have the opportunity that you or I may have of fulfilling our dreams.

I know that some things are impossible; we can't prolong life, predict what tomorrow might bring, or prevent death before life has been lived.

There is something I can do. There is something you can do. Together we can help these people do one thing they have wanted all their lives to do and have not had the opportunity or financial resources to do so. This is what WISHING ON THE LONE STAR is all about.

We would like to focus on these mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers, aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, sons and daughters that need us, but we need the moral and financial support of the community to make it work.

We have several events in mind for the next year but we need your help.

Support includes volunteers, fund raisers, benefits, and special events. All interested individuals as well as civic groups, church groups, and private organizations are encouraged to call or write for additional information.

Please keep us in mind when you are making your fund raising projections for this year.

I am very excited and will be more than happy to talk with you. Together we can make WISHING ON THE LONE STAR work. If you know of someone who needs us please have them get in touch.

I WISH I had started a college fund for my son thirteen years ago. I WISH I had the money to have the foundation on my home repaired. I WISH my husband and I could take the honeymoon that we never had. But, that's okay, because I can WISH. I still have tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Linda Terrell, Founder

QUERIES

Limited to two per member per year & limited to 50 words each maximum.

I am a descendant of John TERRELL b. NC 1785; husband of Mary Ann GILLILAND b. SC 1801. John migrated to Covington County MS where he died March 20 or 21 1858 or possibly February 14, 1859. I am interested in documentary evidence that John TERRELL was son of Philemon TERRELL who was possibly b. VA in 1744 and documentation of the origin and history of his ascendants. Your assistance in my quest would be appreciated. #477 Mr. Vernon L. TERRELL; 103 Hackett Lane; Pass Christian, MS 39571; e-mail: vernon@datasync.com

HUGUES TYRREL
SIRE DE POIX ARMS

Submitted by Mr. Jeddie TERRELL

Mr. Lee Ed TERRELL, son of Jeddie TERRELL, and a traveling companion identified only as John went to France this summer.

They arrived in Paris on Saturday afternoon, August 30 and Princess Diana died about 4:00 am the following morning.

Sir Walter TIREL, III and worn on his battle shield in the First Crusade in 1096. Sir Walter TIREL III, (3rd. Lord of Poix), died December 16, 1135 at Poix and is buried in the family sepulcher at Selincourt. He established the Monestary at Selincourt in 1131.

His son, Sir Hugh TIREL I, was his heir and as the fourth Lord of Poix wore the arms on his battle shield in the 2nd crusade in 1146. Sir Hugh TIREL I died in 1159 and is buried in Selincourt.

His son, Walter TIREL IV, was heir and became the fifth Lord of Poix. He died in 1171 without any children and all lands and titles went to his brother, Sir Hugh TIREL II, (the Grecian Knight), of Ireland. He wore the arms on his battle shield in the 3rd Crusades in 1191. He died in battle in 1199 at the age of 69 fighting beside King Richard I of England and is buried at Selincourt. His eldest son, Walter TIREL V, became the 7th Lord of Poix. I have not completed that line, but I am told that if the title were to still exist, it would belong to Jean TIREL who presently lives in Paris.

I have heard too many variations to repeat how Sir Walter TIREL III came to design the arms of Poix. Probably none of them are correct.

Sir Hugh TYRRELL II had English arms and Irish arms well before he became heir to the arms of Poix. Upon his death, his Irish arms went to his son, Richard (Ruadh), and his English arms went to his son, Roger, of Hants.

Section of arms in the Hall of Crusades containing the arms of Poix.

See enlargement of outlined section below.

Lee & John reached the Palace of Versailles about noon on Sunday. When they asked directions to the Halls of Crusades, they were informed that the halles were open only for groups who arranged two days ahead.

Several bureaucrats later after Lee explained his relationship to the coat of arms and that he had traveled thousands of miles to see it, a man reluctantly led them to the halls. With a large key, he unlocked all three halls and left Lee & John to search alone.

They did not know which hall was which. Finally John spotted the arms high in the corner next to the back wall of the third hall.

About the same time the man returned and Lee asked permission to photograph the arms. The man told him that photos were not allowed because of damage to the paintings. Lee explained that a photo was the only way to prove that it was still there. Since there were only three of them in the hall at the time, the man reluctantly allowed them to photograph the arms.

The arms does not appear to be a battle shield as it is too small, but rather to be a painted plaque style of the arms of Poix. The arms are thought to have been designed by Chroniclers of the times stated that the arms of Hugh TYRRELL were seen the early foggy morning that King John was taken out of his warm bed to the meadow of Runnymede by 30 Nobles of the realm. Since Hugh TYRRELL was killed several days before John became King, it could not have been Sir Hugh TYRRELL that was seen. Since Hugh TYRRELL's English arms was inherited by his son, Roger, it would indicate that Sir Roger TYRRELL was one of those Nobles that took part in that historical event.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A black & white copy of a color photo never does the item justice. In plain Americanized English, the shield is red; the crosses are gold; and the diagonal stripe appears to be blue. The dark streak originating on the left and extending half way across the shield appears to be a crack in the wood.

For the winter issue, we have a 9 page scholarly account of Sir James TYRRELL, prince slayer or protector, depending upon whose version you choose to believe. This was submitted by Mr. Don TERRILL, but I already had too much of this issue in the computer to use it at this time.

It is titled: Sir James Tyrrell of Gipping - Time to set the record straight. It is an almost verbatim transcript of an address before the Tyrrell Family History Society [of England] by Mr. J. A. Speares, O.B.E. The address was given at High Wycombe, England, 7 October 1995.

Now you have a reason to look forward to the next issue!

Got this off of one of the lists on the net. Thought you might enjoy it. I didn't have anything else that would fit here.

The Elusive Ancestor

by Merrell Kenworthy

I went searching for an ancestor. I cannot find him still. He moved around from place to place and did not leave a will.

He married where a courthouse burned. He mended all his fences.

He avoided any man who came to take the U.S. Census.

He always kept his luggage packed, this man who had no fame.

And every 20 years or so, this rascal changed his name. His parents came from Europe. They should be upon some list of passengers to U.S.A., but somehow they got missed.

And no one else in this world is searching for this man.

So, I play geneasolitaire to find him if I can.

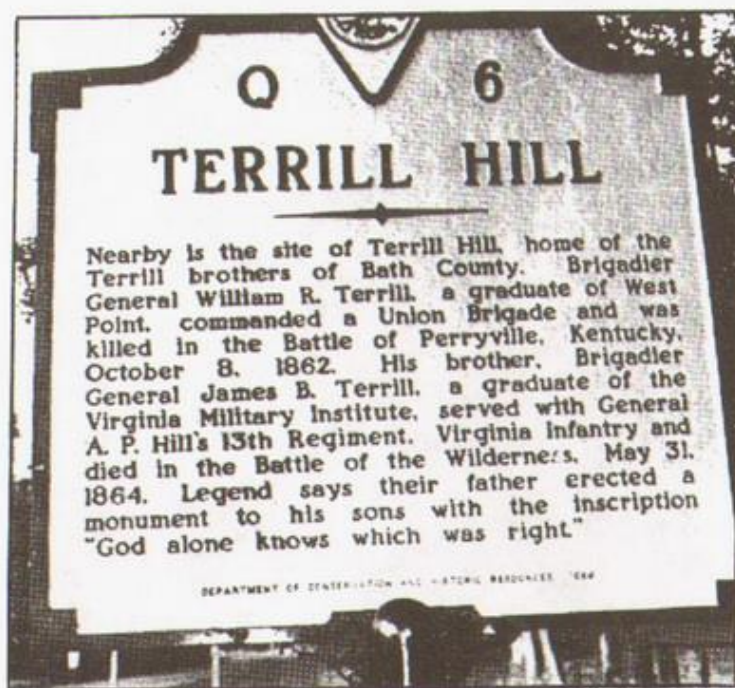

I'm told he's buried in a plot, with tombstone he was blessed;

but the weather took engraving, and some vandals took the rest.

He died before the county clerks decided to keep records.

No Family Bible has emerged, in spite of all my efforts.

To top it off this ancestor, who caused me many groans, Just to give me one more pain, betrothed a girl named JONES.

Warm Springs, Va.

We conclude this issue with TERRELL, listings of the International Genealogical Index (IGI) from the Family History Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) for Connecticut. We remind you that this type of information is available on all your surnames at your nearest Family History Center.
