Introduction

This research started as an attempt to find my own roots. By the time I realized that I was not descended from the Lancaster Co., S.C. Terrells, I had gathered considerable data. I have continued to acquire more data from other researchers so that I could make it available to future generations through this monograph. I hope you find what you're looking for!

Don C. Terrill

Descendants of John Terrell, Jr.

Generation No. 1

1. John¹ Terrell, Jr.^{1,2} died Bef. 1790. He married (1) Susannah Douglas. He married (2) Grace ^{3,4}.

Notes for John Terrell, Jr.:

In the S.C. Archives there is a memorial for a land grant to John Terrill for 150 acres "on the northeast side of the Great Lynches Creek, on Sandy Run." The land adjoins Jephtha Vining, John Perkins and David Perkins, as noted in the Craven Co. Survey for this plat certified 26 Jul 1774, a memorial signed 6 Jan 1775. This land is in the southeast corner of Lancaster Co., and it is only a few miles from a later grant to Richmond Terrell on "Lick Creek, waters of Lynches Creek." Surely this John Terrill is the father of William and Richmond. John and family probably moved down to S.C. from the Johnson-Wayne Co. N.C. area (where most of the records are gone) about 1775. They had apparently come to N.C. from Va. The boys went off to war in 1778, and father John must have died before 1790.

Notes for Grace ?:

In August 1798 William Narramore "Planter" deeded to her a mare, six cattle, a feather bed and furniture, four pewter dishes, and a saddle "in consideration of the Love, good will & affection which I have and do bear towards my loving friend Grace Terrell." In November 1807 William Narramore deeded to her all of his personal property, including his Negro woman Luch and her child Sam, his cattle, his horse, his hogs, and all of his household furniture in exchange for "a certain sum of money once borrowed of her in the amount of one hundred pound sterling and for certain causes besides..." She was listed in the 1820 census as living alone and over age 45. Was she a wife of John, we think it is possible.

Children of John Terrell and Susannah Douglas are:

- + 2 i. William² Terrell, born 6 Aug 1760 in Neuse River in N.C.; died 4 Jul 1851 in DeKalb Co, Ga..
- + 3 ii. Richmond Terrell, born 1755 in Virginia; died 13 Feb 1827 in Lancaster Co, S.C..

Generation No. 2

2. William² Terrell (John¹)^{5,6} was born 6 Aug 1760 in Neuse River in N.C., and died 4 Jul 1851 in DeKalb Co, Ga..

Notes for William Terrell:

His birthplace (Neuse River) could have been in Orange, Wake, Johnston or Wayne Counties. He was drafted into the S.C. militia in Dec 1778 at Lancaster District, Craven Co., S.C. into Capt. Edward Cunningham's Co. Placed in Gen. Richardson's militia at Munk's Corner. Discharged after one month. Drafted again Mar 1779 into Capt. Benjamin Hale's Co. of Col. Ely Crenshaw's Regiment. Marched to the S.C.-Ga. border about one mile from Augusta, Ga. Discharged in May 1779. Voluntarily enlisted in Capt. William Deason's Co. in Maj. Thompson's Battalion in early May 1782. The unit then joined Gen. Francis Marion's army. Released from service on 12 Sep 1782. He is listed in the 1820 census of Lancaster Co. Probably the brother of Richmond Terrell of Lancaster Co. He lived in Lancaster Co, S.C. until 1826, when he moved to DeKalb Co., Ga. (sold his land in Lancaster Co. in 1826). He filed pension papers for Revolutionary War service in Oct 1832. In 1820 his family looked like this: He and his wife were over age 45; 1 son under 10; 1 son 10-16; 1 son 16-26; 2 daughters 10-16; 1 slave; 3 free colored.

In his will, made in DeKalb Co., Ga., in February 1851 and proved in court in July of the same year, William Terrell left his estate to the following persons:

- a. To Sileta Hinson, wife of James Hinson of the State of Alabama, three Negros Fanny, Frances (infant daughter of Fanny), and Rhoda.
- b. To "Mary Ford, wife of my Grandson William Ford" a Negro man George, a Negro man Tom, and a Negro woman Kate and Kate's child Salitha Camile.
- c. To "my Grandson Coleman Ford" a Negro man Lud, and a parcel of land located in DeKalb Co.
- d. To "my friend William Ezzard" of DeKalb Co., Ga., three Negro men Jack, Ben and Jim and a parcel of land in DeKalb Co "to be in trust by him for the use & behoof of my Great Grandson William Terrell alias William Terrell Ford."
- e. To use the remainder of his estate to pay off his debts and divide any surplus equally among Sileta Hinson, Mary Ford, Colman Ford and William Ezzard (for William Terrell Ford).
- f. "I do hereby nominate and appoint my grandson Coleman Ford my executor of this my last will & testament."

Witnessed by William Carlisle, James Head, Robert Jones.

Notes for William George Terrell:

Conley & Brooks: William George Terrell (called BILLY) and Mariah Carlisle, whose father came over from Scotland. At one time, when Atlanta, Ga., was called Marthasville, Mariah's father, Willis Carlisle was a commissioner of the city.

William George Terrell was born to a Ford man and a Terrell woman. The father, a Ford, was either sent to prison or otherwise disappeared and the mother died when Billy was very young. Billy was taken by his maternal grandparents, who were Terrell's and they raised him. When he was 21, his Terrell grandfather gave him the choice of legally becoming a Terrell or a Ford and he chose his mother's name -- Terrell.

Before the War Between the States, Billy and Mariah owned a merchantile store at Little Five Points in Dekalb Co., Ga. The family also owned land around Grants Park (in Atlanta) which was later lost in a land dispute in which the Ford family played a part. When the war came, Billy became a Confederate soldier. Later, when rumors circulated that Sherman was going to burn the city of Atlanta, Mariah moved her family to Carroll Co. Billy survived the war and is buried with Mariah at Oak Grove Baptist Church Cemetery in Carroll Co., but markers for the graves have long disappeared. My source is: Dorothy Proctor, Grand-daughter of Will Terrell.

D. Terrill: William George Terrell was not of age when his great-grandfather (William Terrell, b. 1760) wrote his will in Feb 1851. Therefore, he was born later than Feb 1830.
